

4-H Leaders Receive Recognition at Meet

"From These Seeds," theme of this year's 4-H Leader banquet, featured an IFYE (International Farm Youth Exchange) speaker, presentation of 4-H leader pins, certificates and special awards; and a report on the Oregon 4-H club conference on Saturday evening, March 14, at the Rhea Creek Grange hall, Heppner, according to Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent.

Two friends of 4-H, the Columbia Basin Electric Co-op and the U. S. National Banks of Oregon made the banquet possible by providing the banquet meal, served by the Rhea Creek Grange women, and the 4-H leader pins, respectively, informs the agent.

Dean Wimer, Brownsville, Oregon, was introduced to the group by Toastmaster Dean Graves. Wimer was Oregon's IFYE to Ireland in 1963 and spoke of the "green and misty Isle" with the aid of colored slides. Sixty-six pins and certificates were presented that evening by Hadley Akins, Agriculture Field representative of the U. S. National Bank, Pendleton. Mrs. Louis Carlson, Ione, was given the "4-H Alumni Recognition" certificate for carrying on her 4-H training into 4-H leadership. A set of small American and 4-H flags was won by the "Flower Growers" club (Mrs. William Rawlins, leader). Sears Roebuck Foundation sponsored this award in recognition of the club's blue ribbon work, the agent comments.

Arieta McCabe, Ione, and Dale Van Blokland, Heppner, told of their 3-day visit to Salem in February as guests of the Oregon 4-H Club Conference. Special music for the evening was provided by Sheila Healy and her flute accompanied by Kay Daggert.

County TB Seal Sale Falls Short, Closes April 15

Receipts from the Morrow County TB Seal campaign are about $100 short of that which was received by the health association last year, according to Mrs. H. B. Stroeber, county chairman.

An urgent appeal is made for all county residents who have not yet sent in their money for the Christmas seals or would like to make extra contributions, to do so before April 15, as books will be closed after that date.

Total contributions to date amount to $1110.65, as compared with $1224 at the end of the campaign last year, Mrs. Stroeber reports. Effectiveness of the work of the association in the county will be greatly hampered if contributions do not at least match that of last year. Aid is given in many respiratory diseases, as well as free X-ray services each month through the association.

Team Wins 8 of 9 Games. Upon the completion of a successful basketball season, the boys of Kinzua Grade school are looking forward to the spring sports program. The basketball schedule for the season found the team winning eight of nine games, holding wins over all teams in Wheeler county, losing only to Condon to mar the season.

The squad was quite small in number due to a shortage of boys in the upper grades however, a good team effort was highly instrumental in the squad's success. The boys who participated in all games throughout the season, thereby winning a letter for their performance are Joe Bowman, Ronnie Bowman, Dick Allen, Rick Kandle, Mike Craig, and Kevin Bell.

Baseball practice will begin Monday, March 23, weather permitting. So far, five games have been scheduled and these coupled with track meets throughout the county will provide a busy schedule for the spring. A good measure of the success of these teams can be credited to the coaching and untiring efforts of Milt Boring.

The members of the Friendship Club met Wednesday evening at the hall with Zerita Conlee as hostess to the group. Pinocle was played with high going to Ann Bastian, low to Jean Ann Adams, and floating to Ann Bastian and Molly Day.
