Ceremony To Join Couple at Nuptial Mass on April 4

Miss Lorraine Leonnig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Leonnig, and Francis Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea of Ione, will exchange vows at a nuptial mass at 11:00 A.M., Saturday, April 4, in St. Patrick's Catholic church.

The bride-elect was graduated from Heppner High school with the class of 1963. She is presently an employee of Pacific Northwest Bell in Portland. Her fiancé was graduated from Ione High school in 1961 and attended Eastern Oregon College at La Grande for two years. Since then he has been working at the family ranch near Ione and plans to further his education at Blue Mountain College in Pendleton this fall.

Families of both the bride and groom take this means of extending to friends a cordial invitation to attend the wedding and the reception that will follow at St. Patrick's parish hall.

Episcopal Women Plan Easter Monday Party

An evening of fun, fellowship and good food is promised by the Episcopal Church Women's organization when they sponsor their annual Easter Monday Party on March 30.

A dessert lunch will be served at 8:00 p.m. in the Episcopal parish hall, followed by bridge and pinocle. A door prize, as well as card prizes, will be awarded at the end of the evening. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The church is undertaking a project of remodeling the kitchen of the parish hall, and proceeds of the party will be used for this purpose. Mrs. Walter Wright is general chairman, assisted by a large committee of workers.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Honors L. Leonnig

St. Patrick's parish hall was the scene for a wedding shower Friday evening given in honor of Miss Lorraine Leonnig. Mothers of the future bride and groom, Mrs. Ronald Leonnig and Mrs. Clell Rea, poured from a gold tea service at a table which was decorated with floral arrangements of salmon pink, the bride-elect's chosen color.

Co-hostesses, Mrs. Herb Hamilton, Mrs. Sammy Johnston, Mrs. Pat O'Brien and Mrs. Elene Wyman, served lime supreme party salad along with crackers, mints, and nuts to the 45 invited guests.

Assisting Miss Leonnig at the gift table were her sister, Mrs. Kay Corbin, Pendleton and Miss Judy Hamilton, Heppner.

New Bride Honored At Kitchen Shower

Mrs. LeRoy Gardner, Mrs. Harold Laird and Mrs. Ronald L. Daley, entertained last Thursday at the Laird home with a buffet dinner and kitchen shower in honor of the former Miss Shirley Van Winkle, who became the bride of Kit George on Saturday, March 14.

Mrs. Jack Van Winkle, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Elaine George, mother of the groom, assisted the honoree at the gift table. Green ribbons, white candles and white roses were abundant, carrying out a St. Patrick's Day motif. Interlocking wedding rings decorated the buffet table.

Couples Enjoy Cards At Informal Evening

Three tables of individual duplicate bridge followed a potluck supper Sunday night at the LaVerne Van Marter home. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake.

High individual score was won by Mrs. Driscoll. Mrs. Van Marter and Mrs. Collins ended in a tie for second high.

ELIZABETH VAN SCHOIACK

Libby Van Schoiack To Wed Salem Man

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Van Schoiack, Heppner, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann (Libby) to Stephen Douglas Fenton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fenton of Salem.

Mr. Fenton, a graduate of Serra Catholic High school in Salem in 1961, is completing his junior year at Oregon State University, Corvallis, where he is majoring in business administration.

Miss Van Schoiack, a sophomore at Oregon State University, is majoring in the field of home economics. She was a graduate with the class of 1962 at Heppner High school.

The young couple has announced their wedding date for June 20. Mr. Fenton is a guest this week at the Van Schoiack home while the students are having their spring vacation.

Visitor is Welcomed At Social Gathering

Mrs. Roger Steiger, Derinda and Doug of Portland, were house guests last week of Mrs. Steiger's sister, Mrs. Gene Hall.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Walter Jacobs honored Mrs. Steiger with a bridge party one evening during her stay at the Hall home. Mrs. Eldon Padberg had high score for the three tables in play, and Mrs. Pete Cannon was second high. The guest list also included Mrs. Wayne Prock, Mrs. Jimmy Prock, Mrs. Eddie Gunderson, Mrs. Cy Flack, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mrs. Ray Boyce and Mrs. Lennie Corley.

Mrs. Labhart Greeted At Van Marter Home

Acquaintances of Mrs. Bill Labhart, former resident but now of John Day, gathered at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter last Thursday for an afternoon of visiting and bridge. Bridge honors went to Mrs. Creston Robinson for high score and to Mrs. Bill Blake for second high. Completing the three tables in play were Mrs. Ed Dick, Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Dick Meador, Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Jim Norene, Mrs. Phil Mahoney, Mrs. Fred Gimble, Mrs. Gene Hall and Mrs. Walter Jacobs.

Mrs. Labhart, accompanied by her son Chris, returned to their home in John Day Thursday evening.

Evening Pinocle Club Meets at Devin Home

Mrs. Oliver Devin was hostess last Wednesday when the Dealin' Dozen pinocle club met at her home for an evening of cards.

High score went to Mrs. Dale Baker and Mrs. Robert Harrison had low score. The traveling pinocle prize went to Mrs. Carroll Miller.

The hostess served angel food cake roll and punch amid St. Patrick's Day decorations. Her guests included Mrs. Skip Pettyjohn, Mrs. Dick Sherer, Mrs. Cleo Childers, Mrs. Wayne Ball, Mrs. Larry Fettsch and Mrs. Perry Morter.

Youth Here for Skate

Eighty-one young people of Job's Daughters and DeMolay Chapter 44 of Hermiston and No. 15 of Pendleton enjoyed a special roller skating session at the Heppner Roller Rink early Sunday evening. Twenty chaperones accompanied the visitors.

Heppner Girl Gets Good Reception By Little Theater Group

Dramatic talents of Miss Mary Shannon, daughter of Mrs. Martha King, are meeting favorable tests with a little theater production in Alameda, Calif., according to letters and clippings received by her mother.

Mary, who has been living in Alameda since last August and working in the offices of Fibreboard Paper Products Corp. in San Francisco, was given a part for a six-week engagement on week-ends with the Alameda Little Theater group. She is playing the character part of "Miss Tacher" in the successful comedy play, "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" and has adopted the stage name of Stephanie Shannon. Evidence of her being well received is shown through a critic's appraisal, "an individual to keep in mind the next time someone brings up the topic of comedy at the playhouse." They have chosen for their next production "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," a Broadway musical.

One of the honorary life members of the Alameda Little Theater players is Phyllis Diller, popular TV personality.

During her high school years in Heppner, Miss Shannon was active in drama and speech and is thrilled with the opportunity now of doing some stage play work.

Student From Turkey Visits in Wright Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Litchfield of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Litchfield of Newport and Husnu Ozyegin of Izmir, Turkey, were week-end guests at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright.

Joining the family for dinner on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson and Tami of Arlington.

Husnu Ozyegin is a student in engineering at Oregon State University and is here on an OSU interfraternity scholarship where he is a guest of a different fraternity each term. This past term he was a roommate of Steve Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Davis of Olex, in the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. Mr. Ozyegin's father is a Doctor of Medicine in Izmir, Turkey.

Mrs. Gordon White of Portland visited in Ione last week and took Mrs. Edythe White to Seattle where they spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Wehling. Mr. White and his brother, Dale, went to Portland this week to return his mother to her home.

Lt. Gerald White, formerly of Ione, is now stationed at Schilling Air Force Base near Salina, Kan., with the Air Refueling Squad, according to word received here by relatives.
