Degree of Honor Plans For State Convention, Holds Easter Program

Kate J. Young Degree of Honor lodge No. 29 met in regular session on March 24 at the Episcopal parish hall for a business meeting and Easter program, with President Lucille Parrish in charge.

The Carnation club president reported good results of the food sale held March 21, proceeds of which will be used to assist in payment of drill team and officer's dresses.

The secretary read the program of the State Convention to be held at the Benson Hotel in Portland on April 20, 21. The local lodge will appear on the program, presenting the drill and a hat modeling skit. About 14 members plan to attend and delegates, Prudy Casebeer, and State Secretary, Mrs. Bill Farra, will give reports.

It was decided to send Easter cards to elderly sick members and a plant to Mrs. Darold Hams, confined to home.

The death of Joe Hughes was reported and the lodge agreed to make salads for the family dinner served after the service on Friday at the Christian church.

An Easter program was given after the business meeting, with the glee club composed of Mrs. Pete McMurtry, Mrs. Don Townsend, Mrs. Mary Bryant and Mrs. Dean Connor at the piano, presenting two numbers. Mrs. Martha King and Mrs. C. R. McDowell gave Biblical and ritual readings portraying the scriptural origination of ritualistic work.

The president read an original poem, "Tribute to our Color Bearer," to Mrs. Alice Luttrell on the occasion of her 82nd birthday. Sunshine chairman, Miss Doris Robinson, presented her with a gift from the lodge with an original poem.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. William Cunningham, honoring Mrs. Luttrell. Fruit cake, topped with whipped cream, was served members at tables decorated with dishes of candied Easter eggs.

MISS CONNIE GRAVEN

Engagement Told Of College Couple

The engagement of Miss Connie Graven of Burns to Don Clark of Heppner has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Graven, Burns.

Miss Graven is a senior at Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, and will graduate this spring with a degree in education. She was a graduate of Burns High school with the class of 1956.

Mr. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark, Heppner, is completing his sophomore year at Eastern Oregon College, where he is majoring in education. He was a graduate from Heppner High school in 1952.

The young couple has applied for assignment in the Peace Corps. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Speaker Shows Early Collection of Bibles To Sceptimist Club

Dr. Guy J. Wright, professor of Bible and Hebrew at Northwest Christian college, Eugene, was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Heppner Sceptimist club last Thursday noon. He was accompanied by Tom Fort of Jerome, Ida., a student at the college, and by the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Knox of the Christian Church.

The owner of one of six of the world's largest private collections of Bibles, Dr. Wright displayed and told of the historical background of several of the unusual ones in his collection. An authority on biblical history, he told of earliest days of civilization revealed through tabloid records.

His complete collection consists of more than 500 items and dates of printing range from 1551 to the present. Some of special interest were a hand printed Samaritan Torah scroll, a Hebrew Synagogue scroll with titles printed on sheepskin, a Latin Bible printed in Paris in 1528, the earliest Bible known written with verse numbers, first printings of King James and Geneva translations, and many others. They have been collected by him through his years as a chaplain in the Armed Forces and a minister and traveler all over the world.

Guests of the club on March 19 were Mrs. Ella Sargeant of Taft, Mrs. Bonnie Mattoon, Mrs. Marjorie Worden, Miss Glenda Hills, a high school senior, and Jan Hager.

The club voted recently to make its last $100 donation to the National Foundation Fund in memory of the late William J. Thomas, husband of one of its members, Leta Thomas.

Initiation of new members, Mrs. Emil Groshens and Mrs. Marjorie Worden, is planned for Thursday evening, April 9, at the home of the club president, Mrs. Jim Hager.

Many Receive Prizes At Easter Card Party

The Episcopal parish hall was the scene of the annual Easter Monday card party. Pineapple dessert was served preceding the evening of bridge and pinochle play.

Of the six tables of bridge the tallies revealed high score going to Mrs. Riley Munkers and second high to Mrs. Gerald Jonasson. First prize for pinochle was won by Mrs. Madge Bryant and Mrs. Don Cole won second prize. Mrs. Don McClure was the winner of the traveling prize. The prizes were all homemade cakes.

Hostesses for the annual event were Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Ella Farrens, Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, Mrs. Clarence Rosewall, Mrs. Gordon Hutchens and Mrs. Harold Cohn.

Bridge Club Meets At Johnson Home

Mrs. Clarence Johnson was hostess last Tuesday evening when the Bridge Biddies met at her home. Winning high for the two tables in play was Mrs. Don McClure and second high went to Mrs. David McLeod. Mrs. Jim Gordon was low and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren won the traveling prize.

Mrs. Johnson served a Lenten dessert to her guests that included, in addition to those already mentioned, Mrs. Riley Munkers, Mrs. Clint Agee and Mrs. Arnie Hedman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Case, Claudia, Carol, Joyce and Ronnie, returned Sunday to their home in Poulsbo, Wn., after spending several days visiting friends and relatives here.

Auxiliary to Present New Flags to Legion At Special Meeting

A special program is in store for Legionnaires, auxiliary members, their families and friends on Monday, April 6, at the Legion hall, beginning at 7 p.m. with a potluck dinner.

The American Legion Post No. 87 will be presented with new color standards, a belated birthday gift from the Legion Auxiliary. Herman Winter will deliver a talk on Americanism.

A musical program under the direction of Arnold Melby is slated for the evening, along with other entertainment and a brief joint business meeting.

Mrs. Frank Hamlin, auxiliary president, promises an enjoyable evening and urges all members to attend.

Social Club Meets

Eleven women met at the home of Mrs. Ray Ferguson for their regularly scheduled bi-monthly afternoon of sewing and socializing last Wednesday. They were Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, Mrs. Lowell Gribble, Mrs. Jim Norene, Mrs. Carl Spaulding, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Jack Bedford, Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr., Mrs. Phil Mahoney and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie.
