

Many Residents Attend Easter Sunday Services

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Easter observances in Ione began with a sunrise service in the City Park sponsored by the junior and senior high classes of the United Church of Christ. Young people taking part in the worship service were Dolores Emerl, Louis Ortiz, Bernice Matthews, Stephen Lindstrom, Jim Jacobs, Charles Nelson, and the Rev. Walter B. Crowell. Accordion accompanist for the hymns was Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid and a special trumpet solo, "The Holy City," was played by Carol Miller. Decorations and seating were arranged by Barbara Bishop and Robert Emerl and their committees. General arrangements were made by Mrs. F. T. Martin, Mrs. Norman Nelson, and Leonard Herrick.

Immediately following the sunrise service a breakfast was served in the social rooms at the church. Chairman was Mrs. Milton Morgan with Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Sr., Mrs. Clell Rea, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, assisting her. Several Rainbow girls helped serve.

During regular morning worship services at the United Church of Christ the choir sang "King All-Glorious" with the soprano solo being sung by Teresa Tucker.

St. Williams Catholic church held Easter service at the regular 9:00 a.m. time.

Valby Lutheran church had an 8:00 a.m. service with a children's choir directed by Mrs. Donald Peterson, taking part in the service. Following the church worship, a breakfast was served in the Parish hall. Carl Troedson was chairman of the cooks with Carl Bergstrom and the men on the Church Council helping him. A large crowd attended.
