

Music Students Give Combined Concert

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—The Ione Grade and High school bands and the high school chorus, under the direction of Carol Miller, pleased a large crowd of parents and friends last Tuesday evening in the cafeteria with a well-planned program of musical entertainment. Thirteen members of the fifth grade band played a miscellaneous selection of pieces followed by the junior high band with 44 members playing six different selections. The high school band did a fine job on six more numbers. The chorus sang "Oregon, My Oregon," "Little Brown Jug," "Bless This House," "Pick a Little, Talk a Little," and "Good Night Ladies." Seventeen girls and ten boys make up the chorus.

Band officers are Dick Hynd, president; Mark Halvorsen, vice-president; Stephen Lindstrom, secretary-treasurer; and Bonnie Hynd, student council representative. The band members have been energetically working this year on a band uniform fund and this concert was given without charge to the community to show the progress of band personnel. A formal concert will be given in May.

The high school band group went by bus to Pendleton on Saturday where they participated in a band contest with other bands from Eastern Oregon and Washington. They were judged by Ira Lee of the University of Oregon, Robert Miller and Howard Deming of Washington State University. The Ione band received a rating of 2 competing with other Class D bands.

On Wednesday James Arment, who is director of the junior and senior high school orchestras in La Grande met with the Ione band students and assisted them in preparing for the contest. Mrs. Arment and two sons accompanied him and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker were visitors at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann and other relatives the first of the week. They left on Wednesday for Heppner, where they visited Mr. Turner's brother, Frank, and other members of his family.

Mrs. Gottfried Hermann held a coffee party on Tuesday afternoon to honor Mrs. Garry Tullis on her birthday. Besides the honoree and hostess, those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Tullis' mother, Mrs. E. V. Stingle, her sisters, Mrs. Sam Johnson, and Mrs. Howard Bryant of Heppner, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Harold Sherer, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom.

Don Brostrom of Bend and his brother, Roger spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in Ione. Don was a guest at the Lewis Halvorsen home and Roger at the Robert Hoskins home.

Relatives Here for Rea Wedding

Visiting relatives in Ione this week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Jaimer Koski of Vashon, Wn., Mrs. Ted Hall and George Newton of South Bend, Wn. The Koski's were guests at the home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. Hall stayed with another cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Roberts, and Mr. Newton with his aunt, Mrs. Edith Nicholson. They all visited their uncle, G. A. Pettys, who is a patient at Pioneer Memorial hospital, and also attended the wedding of Frances Rea and Lorraine Leonnig at Heppner Saturday morning. Other friends and relatives from Ione also attended the wedding, but Mrs. Clell Rea, mother of the groom, was ill with the flu and unable to attend.

Other out of town relatives here for the Rea-Leonnig wedding were Frances' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lundell and son of Mil-

"SHOW THEM free enterprise at work," was the request of the U.S. State Department when it asked investor-owned Portland General Electric company to host a delegation of Russian engineers at Round Butte dam. Inspecting the $60 million Deschutes river project by boat are, from left, Nikolay Cuprakov, deputy chairman for electric power in the USSR; and Vasily Troshin. Reds were among 164,996 visitors from 48 states and 28 countries who have registered at Round Butte's observatory in the past two years. Dam will be completed in fall.

Waukie. They were guests of Mrs. A. C. Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea on Saturday evening. They were also dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell on Saturday. Richard Rea of Portland came up Saturday for the wedding and went home the same day. His daughter, Darcie, was in bed with chicken pox so the rest of the family remained at home.

Mrs. Elmer Griffith is spending a few days in Portland. She drove down with her daughter, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom on Friday. Mrs. Lindstrom attended an Eastern Star reception honoring Nancy Delle, chairman of the Credentials Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon on Friday evening at the Pythian Building and returned home on Saturday.

Pam Proudfoot spent the last week visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Proudfoot, from her work at St.

Paul's school for Girls at Walla Walla. She returned to school on Sunday.

Grange Works on Repairs

Sunday, April 5, Grange members met at Willows Grange hall for a potluck dinner and work day. The men began sealing the basement with blocks and wall paneling. One door was closed in the storage room and a new entrance made from the kitchen. The stairway is being built directly into the new dining area and a much needed coat closet is being made. The entrance to the basement is being partitioned off, which will make the room much more comfortable. A carpenter will finish the dining area and local granger will complete the rest rooms and storage area.

Home Economics club will meet on April 17 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Heliker at 2:00 p.m.

Willows Grange will go back to night meetings beginning April 18. A program consisting of selections by the band, a movie and slides of water skiing, and a talk, pertaining to Bill No. 10 of special interest to farmers, by Scott McMurdo of Corvallis, will be given.

Club To Sell Plants, Bulbs

The Garden club is planning its garden sale of plants and bulbs for April 28 from 10:30 in the morning through the afternoon. Pie and coffee will also be served. The sale will be held in the old Bristow Store Building adjoining the Laundromat. Advance orders of dahlias may be made by phoning Mrs. William Rawlins and advance orders of mums may be made to Mrs. Edith Nicholson or Mrs. F. T. Martin.

Topic club will be held at the home of Mrs. Verner Troedson on Friday afternoon, April 10. Ralph Crum was guest speaker of the American Problems class at high school on Monday. The rest of the student body also attended the showing of his slides and movie on his trip to Russia and enjoyed his accompanying commentaries.

Rebekah Lodge met at the hall on Thursday evening for a regular business meeting. The members decided not to serve an election day dinner on May 15 this year, but will serve pie and coffee and hold a food sale on that day. Delegates selected to attend the state convention in Salem the third week in May are Mrs. Mary Swanson and Mrs. Paul Pettjohn, Sr. After the meeting the Noble Grand, Mrs. Pettjohn served cookies and coffee.

Attend Moro Charter Night

A number of members from the Ione Lions club and their wives attended Charter Night of the new Lions Club at Moro on Saturday night. The evening included a social hour and banquet during which time the charter ceremony was held. A dance for the large crowd was held following the dinner. Those going from here were President and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lamb and son Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bishop and Melvin Melena.

At a meeting of the Legion Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon it was decided to have a traveling food sale on Saturday morning, April 18. The proceeds will go to the Child Welfare fund of the auxiliary. The tea planned previously for April 12 has been cancelled.

Mrs. Joseph Jepsen is spending a few days in Pendleton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lieuallen.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thorne have sold their home and small acreage in the south edge of Ione to Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray, owners of Humphreys Drug Store in Heppner. The Murrays plan to take possession on May 1. The Thorne's plans are still undecided.

Raymond Lundell is a patient at the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner suffering from a severe back pain. He was taken there on Saturday after being stricken while doing some field work with his tractor on Friday. He was unable to get to the house for some time and an ambulance had to be called to take him to the hospital.

Rainbow Girls of Ione Assembly No. 89 are having a card party at the Masonic hall on Saturday afternoon, April 11, at 2:00 p.m. Both pinocle and bridge will be played and the girls will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Mary Emert returned on Friday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Ward at Kuna, Idaho. She also received medical attention, while she was there.

Willows Grange members will again meet for a work day on Sunday, April 12, at the hall. The ladies will prepare dinner and the men will assist the carpenter in finishing some of the remodeling.

McBaths Welcome Son

Mr. and Mrs. David McBath are the proud parents of a new baby boy born on Thursday, April 2, at Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner. He weighed 7 lbs., 3 1/2 oz. and has been named William Paul. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols and Mrs. Clara Brown of Ione and great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William McBath of Sequim, Wn., and Archie Nichols of Lexington. The baby also has two great-great grandparents, Mrs. Ina Nichols of Lexington and Mrs. Queener of Stanfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks and daughter, Sandra spent the week-end in Portland attending the P. I. Quarterhorse show.

Extension Sets Study in County

"It pays to take care of your eyes," says Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent, "there are only two to a customer."

Miss Kirmis is beginning a series of agent visits to the extension units in the county on "Don't Be In The Dark About Lighting," in which she gives the science of the electric light, the P's and Q's of good lighting, and ideas for improving old light fixtures.

Good light speeds work, helps prevent fatigue, reduces accidents, and prevents eye strains, she advises. Parents who provide well-lighted study areas for youngsters may find that school work comes easier and faster—for both of them.

Here are some suggestions the extension worker gives for what a study area should include:

1. A flat top desk or table 24x46 inches gives adequate working space. Place somewhere away from family activity and not in front of a window.

2. Provide a good study lamp. This might be a table lamp with an 8-inch diffusing bowl, with the bottom of the socket no more than one inch below the shade. A shade that flares at the bottom gives wider light distribution. Avoid goose-neck, bullet or pole type lamps for study purposes. They cause harsh reflected glare back into a child's eyes when light is concentrated on white paper.

3. Table lamps should have a minimum 50-100-150 watt three-way bulb or a 150 watt frosted bulb.

4. Pick a light colored shade especially on the inside. The bottom of the shade should be 15 inches from the desk top in order to give a good spread of light.

5. A pair of lamps either wall or table type provide more even desk light than a single unit. If they're wall lamps, hang them 30 inches apart at a height above the desk which locates the bottom of the shades at about the eye level of the user. If one lamp is used, put it to the left of a right-handed student, so a shadow isn't cast as the student writes.

It's estimated that one out of five grade school children has eye defects, and two out of five at college graduation have some kind of eye deficiencies.

The schedule of Morrow county extension units is as follows: April 1—Rhea Creek, Rhea Creek Grange hall; April 2—Ione, Ione, James Lindsay's; April 8—Pine City, Mrs. Leo Ashbeck's; April 9—Irrigon, Old Irrigon school; April 14—Heppner, Mrs. Joe Wright's, and April 21—Boardman, Mrs. Roland Black's. Meetings begin at 10:30 a.m.
