Public Invitation Extended to WSCS Spring Tea, Musicales

Final preparations are being made this week for the special Spring Tea and Musicales to be held during the afternoon on Saturday, April 18, in the Methodist church parlors.

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service are sponsoring the social afternoon as a means of getting acquainted with more ladies in the community and as a benefit project to carry on mission activities of the organization.

Guests are asked to come between the hours of two and four o'clock, during which time a program of vocal and instrumental numbers will be heard. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Guild Holds Study On India Missions

The Christian Woman's Guild continued its study of foreign missions last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Etta Parker.

Mrs. Theda Stratton, guild president, led the group in the current study project, missions in India. Growing churches and missions in Orissa, a province of India, provided the main topic for discussion.

Mrs. Everett Struckmeier led the worship service.

Friday Card Club Has Social Gathering

Mrs. Art Watkins was hostess to members of the Friday afternoon pinochle club, along with holding the highest score for the weekly session of card play. Low score went to Mrs. Hannah Anderson. Mrs. Anderson teamed with Mrs. Orian Wright to win the pinochle.

Also enjoying the afternoon of pinochle were Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs. Max Harris, Mrs. Toussent Dubuque, Mrs. Walter Beckett and Mrs. Charlie Beckett.

Sorority Initiates Cheryl Morrison

Miss Cheryl (Tass) Morrison, a freshman at Oregon State University, has been initiated into membership at Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega, women's national social fraternity. She was initiated April 10, after the winter term grading period.

One of the largest sororities on the Oregon State campus, Alpha Chi Omega is the oldest national Greek-letter fraternal organization at OSU. Tass is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Morrison of Ione.

Mrs. Eddie (Beverly) Gundersen was off from her work as clerk of the Morrow county school district Tuesday and part of the day Wednesday because of the serious illness of their son, Doug, 8. He was confined at home from a rather severe virus infection. By Wednesday he showed considerable improvement and seemed to be on the road to recovery.

Reception to Honor Golden Anniversary Of Wm. Van Winkles

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Van Winkle of Lexington will be honored on their Golden Wedding anniversary at a reception planned by members of the family for Sunday, April 26, at the Lexington Christian church.

Friends, relatives and neighbors are invited to call between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. to extend greetings to the couple.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle are native residents of this area. They were married at the family farm home near Lexington on April 26, 1914, have raised their family of six children here, four of whom continue to make their home in Heppner or Lexington.

Family members, three daughters and three sons, who are planning the special occasion include Mrs. Herman Green, Heppner; Mrs. John Ledbetter, Lexington; Mrs. Kenneth DuVall, St. Louis, Mo.; Alfred Van Winkle, Spokane, Wn; William J. Van Winkle, Lexington, and Jack Van Winkle, Heppner.

Newlyweds Honored With Wedding Shower

More than 60 Grangers, friends and relatives honored newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. William Rill (Sandra Harshman), with a wedding shower that was held Sunday evening at the Rhea Creek Grange hall.

Wedding bells and many lovely gifts bedecked the gift table that was decorated in pale blue and white, the colors chosen by the bride for her recent wedding.

Refreshments of coffee, cake and punch were served from a lace-covered table graced with lovely arrangements of spring flowers. Serving were mothers of the honored couple, Mrs. Everett Harshman and Mrs. Leonard Rill.

Heppner OEA Group Elects Officers

Heppner chapter of OEA met Tuesday night at Heppner High school and elected officers for the coming school year. Those elected were: Arnold Melby, president; Don Clark, vice president; Bernice Struckmeier, secretary; and Bill Nelson, treasurer.

The group will sponsor two delegates to the Future Teachers of America workshop at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth this summer.

Mrs. Kilkenny Wins Bowling Tourney But Trophies Held

Mrs. Bob (Vesta) Kilkenny won in both women's singles and doubles in a bowling tournament at Pendleton Lanes on April 4, but when she went there Sunday to get the trophies, she found that they had been held pending investigation by the Bowling Proprietors' association, she said Wednesday.

The contention is that Mrs. Kilkenny was entered in the tournament illegally because Fiesta Bowl of Heppner is not a member of the BPA, she was advised. This apparently eliminates those playing out of the local lanes from BPA-sanctioned events.

The association will conduct a statewide investigation, she said.

Mrs. Kilkenny won the singles with a score of 810 for three games and with Cleo Gett of Hermiston won the doubles with a score of 1524.

Kilkenny Pitches No-No for Ponies

By KIT ANDERSON

Russell Kilkenny's no-hit, no-run pitching kept Heppner's Ponies on the winning trail as they shut out the Arlington Goslings, 10-0, on the Heppner diamond Saturday.

The Arlington club threatened in the last inning as they had runners on second and third, but Kilkenny fired a final strike to end the threat. Heppner collected 10 hits in the 5-inning stint, with the Pratt twins, Kent and Kevan, getting five of these. Kilkenny allowed no runs on no hits, walking four and fanning 10. Nelson, Arlington pitcher, allowed 10 runs on 10 hits, walking one and fanned six. Heppner made only one error while
