

Church Women Elect Officers; Grange Makes Improvements

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Officers elected for the coming year at the Maranatha club meeting at the home of Mrs. E. M. Baker last Thursday were Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., as chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Smouse as vice chairman; and Mrs. Oscar Lundell as secretary.

Devotions, "Understanding Our Community" were led by Mrs. Omar Rietmann. She mentioned how our changing society affected our community, of its effect on family life, and the result of mob rule. Her final point was a question, "Do we have the best church in town? If not, why not?" She did not have reference to the building. The program, "Racial Justice," was given by Mrs. Dale Ray.

Guests present were Mrs. Lee Palmer and Mrs. Wesley Smith.

The Maranathas are sponsoring the annual Mother-Daughter Tea on May 2 at the social rooms of the United Church of Christ from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. All community ladies and daughters are invited. A program will be given during the tea hours.

Grange Makes Improvements

Willows Grange will meet on Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. The program will begin at 9:00 p.m. with two numbers by the high school band, slides and movies of water skiing, and a talk by Scott McMurdo, bio-chemist from Corvallis. About 25 persons enjoyed the potluck dinner served by the ladies of the Grange on Sunday, while the men finished the work on the basement. Members are invited to come and see the newly finished basement. An added dining room, cloak room and stair landing are improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barnett of Portland were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett. Also visiting the Barnetts on Saturday was another son, Paul, of Gresham and his friend Larry Cook, who were here on business.

Mrs. John Clerf and children left on Sunday for their home at Kitiati, Wn., after spending most of the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schaffer at Cecil. While here, Mrs. Clerf visited in Pendleton on Thursday with relatives and with her uncle, Charles Hynd, who is a patient in a hospital there. She and Mrs. Robert Jepsen also attended a shower for a former classmate of Mrs. Jepsen in Pendleton, who lost many of her belongings in the Alaskan earthquake.

Mrs. Roberts Breaks Hip
Mrs. Walter G. Roberts had the misfortune to break her hip on Friday evening at the home of her sister-in-law and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Engelman and family. He took her to the hospital in Heppner and she underwent surgery on Saturday. Mrs. Roberts retired as postmaster of the lone office last fall after many years of service.

The Junior class held a successful "Grubbies Dance" Saturday evening at the school cafeteria.

The Ione Dance club sponsored a dancing party following the classes on Saturday evening at the Legion Hall. The lessons are concluded until fall. The Dance club has tentatively set May 2 as the date for the next dancing party. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., were chairmen of the refreshment committee and were assisted by eight other couples. A large crowd attended.

Mrs. Gene Rietmann gave an interesting review of "The Music Man" by Meredith Wilson at the Topic Club meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Verner Troedson. Mrs. David Baker played selected recordings from the musical during the review. As a benefit for the Public Library the club members are sponsoring a dinner to be held at the cafeteria from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, May 3. Guests present at the meeting were Mrs. Arthur Crawford, Mrs. Georgia Brewster, and Mrs. George Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom attended a dinner and reception on Saturday evening at Wasco honoring Mrs. Lawrence Kaseberg, Grand chaplain of the Grand Chapter of Oregon OES. The Home Economics club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Crawford on Friday, April 17. This was previously announced for the home of Mrs. W. C. Heliker, so members are asked to note the correction.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Rankin were overnight guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, on Wednesday. They were returning to their home in Salem from Fullman, Wn., where he attended a short veterinary course.

Mrs. E. J. Akers had Danny spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in Yakima.

mond, Mrs. Margaret Doust of Everett, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Lester Farris and Anita of Portland, Mrs. Gloria May of The Dalles, Mrs. Louise Kurlash of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Linquist of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Christopherson of Olex, and Mrs. Harry Ring and children of Payette, Idaho. The Home Economics club of Willows Grange served dinner to the family at the Grange hall following the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobyns of Eugene are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen this week. Mr. Dobyn's brother, Noel, flew them to Ione in his plane, returning to his home in Florence on Thursday.

Miss Jeri Abken of Kennewick, Wn., was a houseguest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., and family from Thursday to Sunday.

Miss Helen Salter of Sanatarium, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter and other relatives, while convalescing from a back injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gorgor and two little girls left on Sunday for Pendleton, after spending the week-end here visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker, and family. They will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorgor in Pendleton, before returning to their home in Honolulu.

Mrs. Gil Lujan was guest of honor at a "Diaper Party" on Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Carol Miller. After the gifts were presented to the honoree, the following guests enjoyed coffee cake and coffee: Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. Robert Jepsen, Mrs. Arthur Lindstrom, Mrs. Pete Cannon, Mrs. Ray Boyce, Mrs. Gene Harryman, Mrs. Gene Rietmann, and Mrs. Gene Dockter.

Several women from the United Church of Christ attended the Women's Fellowship of the Mid-Columbia Association at Ingle Chapel in Milton-Freewater for the spring meeting. Those attending the all-day meeting on Monday were Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Walter B. Crowell, Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Robert Jepsen and Mrs. Wesley Smith and Barbara Ann.

Mrs. Ramond Lundell brought Mr. Lundell home from Pioneer Memorial hospital on Monday, where he had been confined for more than a week with his back in traction.

Mrs. Lee Palmer entertained on Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harold Sherer. Those attending the birthday party were Mrs. Gottfried Hermann, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Dale Ray, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., Mrs. Dick Sherer, Mrs. Marion Palmer, and Mrs. Garry Tullis.

Mrs. Eldon Tucker received high score, Mrs. E. R. Lundell received low, and Mrs. Al Marick won the 300 pinocle at the card party sponsored by the Rainbow Girls on Saturday afternoon at the Masonic hall. Those winning prizes in bridge were Eulenna Corley, high; Mrs. James Lindsay, low; and 100 honors was won by Mrs. Charles O'Connor. Mrs. John Clerf, Jr., received the door prize.

At the Rainbow Assembly No. 89 meeting on Tuesday night the girls decided to entertain the Masonic fathers at a banquet, program and meeting on Tuesday, April 21.

Sale To Aid Alaska Relief
The Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a traveling food sale on Saturday morning, April 18. Proceeds will go to the relief of Alaskan earthquake victims and child welfare in Alaska. This is a state-wide project and the sponsors hope for a financial success. Wives of Legionnaires as well as Auxiliary members are asked to contribute food to bring it to the Legion hall between 9:30 and 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom returned on Friday from Portland, where they had been for several days for medical attention.

be held at the United Church of Christ on Sunday, April 19, during the regular worship hour at 11:00 a.m. Following the service a coffee hour will be held on the church lawn, weather permitting, for the benefit of the Vacation Church school to be held June 8 through 12. Teachers are still needed for classes for vacation school and it is hoped volunteers will contact Mrs. James Barnett, chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree went to Walla Walla Sunday to meet their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe of Colfax, Wn. Their grandsons, who have been visiting here, went home with their parents.

Miss Michelle Kay Morrison, sophomore at Oregon State was entertained at luncheon last Tuesday by the Beavers. She was presented a lovely diamond ring as her gift from Sport magazine. Miss Morrison was chosen Campus Queen by the readers of the magazine in the 13th annual contest sponsored by them. It is the first time a coed from OSU has won. Jean Saubert, the Olympic Medal winner, was also a guest at the luncheon.

PTA Officers Chosen

Mrs. H. R. Krebs was elected president of the Ione PTA on Wednesday evening during the meeting at the school cafeteria. Carol Miller was elected vice-president and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson was chosen secretary.

DR. S. SPENCE MEIGHAN, who is studying leukemia trends under a grant from the American Cancer Society's Oregon division, uses a blackboard to explain some of his findings to date. Oregon's incidence is 4.5 cases per 100,000 population per year, he said.

Considerable discussion was held regarding the merits of PTA. Entertainment was furnished by a group of

Bucs Blast Cards In Friday Match

Riverside's Pirates collected their first league win of the year Friday at Boardman as they belted the Ione Cardinals, 10-0, in a five-inning baseball contest.

Riverside connected for eight runs in the first inning of the contest on eight hits. Chester Phillips and Dick Skoubo each hit two singles in the inning as the Pirates batted a round. Mike McCoy got the biggest hit of the inning as he blasted a triple.

Following the big first inning, the Bucs brought home a run in each of the next two frames.
