St. Patrick's Catholic Church Scene Of Leonnig-Rea Wedding Ceremony

Miss Lorraine Agnes Leonnig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Leonnig, became the bride of Francis Norman Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea of Ione, at a nuptial mass ceremony in St. Patrick's Catholic church on Saturday, April 4.

Father Raymond Beard solemnized the morning ceremony in a setting of Capucine orange and white. The colors, chosen by the bride, were carried out with white pew bows and side bouquets of Valaria gladiolas arranged in tall standards. White Calla lilies decorated the altar. Wedding music was provided by soloist, Bill Kenny. Organist was Mrs. Herman Stroeber.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin. A pointed crown head-dress trimmed with drop pearls held a veil of fingertip lace. The bride carried a crescent bouquet of feather white standard chrysanthemums.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kay Corbin, Pendleton, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Hamilton, Heppner, and Miss Carol Tholberg, Pendleton. Capucine orange brocaded gowns of taffeta graced the bride's attendants, who carried crescent bouquets of orange gladiolas.

Keith Rea, brother of the groom, served as best man. Usher of the groom, and Ronnie Leonnig, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Leonnig chose a three piece blue and white suit to which was pinned a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Rea, mother of the groom was ill and unable to attend the rites.

Arrangements of Valaria gladioli and white crystal pom pom mums decorated the Catholic parish hall where wedding guests were greeted at a reception following the ceremony. A three tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells and decorated with orange colored roses centered the reception table. Pouring were Mrs. Herb Hamilton and Mrs. Dallas Rea, sister-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Omer Huston attended the gift table and passing the guest book was Mrs. Wayne Ball.

For her going-away ensemble the bride wore a three piece blue and white suit with the white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Following a wedding trip through Idaho and Washington the newlyweds are now at home in Heppner.

The new Mrs. Rea is a 1963 graduate of Heppner High school and is currently employed by the U. S. Forest Service. Rea was graduated from Ione High school in 1961 and is presently occupied with ranch work.
