

Banquet, Prom Honor Lone High Class of '64

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM
 IONE.—The graduating class of 1964 was honored at the Junior-Senior Prom held in the grade school gym on Saturday evening. The Junior class was host with several grade school students serving punch at small tables about the room. Parents of the Junior and Senior class members were guests and many other students and parents also attended.

Theme song for the Prom was "Tonight" and decorations were carried out in shades of blue and lavender with a rock garden, including a lovely fountain with colored lights playing on the water in the pool. Rietmann's orchestra played for the dancing. At the intermission Judy Sherer was crowned Queen of the Prom by Robert Emert, and Dick Hynd was crowned King by Connie Christopherson.

Seniors are Lynn Benson, Barbara Bishop, Cheryl Corley, Dallas Dalzell, Delores Emert, Tom Heimburger, Dick Hynd, Ken Klingner, Stephen Lindstrom, Arleta McCabe, Merrie Jo Morrison, John Rea, Judy Sherer, and Sue Townsend.

Members of the Junior class are Connie Christopherson, Robert Emert, Joe Halvorsen, Shirley Hicks, Ken Jones, Cheryl Lundell, David McBeth, Lee O'Connor, Dennis Steigman, Frank Wiley and Sid Zinter. Grade school students serving at the Prom were: Connie Emert, Terri O'Connor, Donna Pointer, Mark Tullis, Keith Nelson and Frank Halvorsen.

Last Thursday night the junior class mothers prepared the Junior-Senior banquet, when the Seniors, their parents, the faculty and Junior class were guests. The tables were beautifully decorated in lavender and gold. Members of the freshman and sophomore classes helped serve.

Principal speaker of the evening was Wayne Brubacher, county school superintendent, who spoke on the "Ideas and Ideals" by Horace Mann. Toastmaster for the dinner was Cheryl Lundell, president of the junior class, and making the response was Senior Class President, Stephen Lindstrom, who also gave the class history. Dan Follett of Hermiston sang "I Believe" and "How Great Thou Art." He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Follett. Rev. Walter B. Crowell gave the invocation and Rev. Kenneth Robinson gave the benediction.

Jack, Herb and Ewing Hynd and Bill Lowe spent the week-end at Malheur Lake on a fishing trip.

Last Saturday night Ekstrom Farm Chemical Company entertained their friends with a dance in the new shop they have just completed west of Ione. Everyone had a good time dancing to records and enjoying the spaghetti, salad, french bread and coffee, which Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Jr., served the guests. His brothers, Roland Ekstrom, who goes to school at Boise Junior college, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ekstrom and family of Wenatchee, Wn., were here to attend the party.

Mrs. Dick Krebs entertained her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Cecil. Winning high prize was Mrs. E. R. Schaffer and low was received by Mrs. Krebs.

Susan Jane Jepsen, Christina and Susan Lindstrom, Sandra Carlson, Terri O'Connor, and John Rawlins took part in the piano recital presented by their teacher, Mrs. Virginia C. Turner at the First Christian church in Heppner Sunday afternoon.

A Mother-Daughter Tea will be held in the social rooms of the United Church of Christ on Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m. A program will be presented and all mothers and daughters in the community are invited.

Rainbow Entertains Masons

Rainbow Assembly No. 89 entertained their Masonic guests with a banquet and program last Thursday evening. The men also attended the Rainbow meeting. The advisory board, consisting of Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, prepared the banquet. Dick Hynd, Robert Emert, Stephen Lindstrom and Joe and Mark Halvorsen served the girls and their guests. The program included a skit by Cheryl Smouse, Terri O'Connor, Elaine Savage, Teresa Tucker, and Mary Nichols; a pantomime by Dixie and Joyce Peck, a solo by Teresa Tucker and some group singing.
