Alpha Rho State Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held its 22nd annual convention at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Portland May 1, 2, and 3 and was attended by four members of the Morrow county Iota chapter. These included Joyce Smith of Irrigon; Gladys Ely of Ione; Margaret Kirk of Heppner and Velva Bechtoldt of Hardman.

Miss Florence Allen, professor of Education and Field Supervisor at Southern Oregon college, gave the keynote address at the birthday luncheon. Her speech "But Who Are We?" was very thought provoking and interesting. Miss Jeanette Fair, N. W. Regional Director of Minneapolis, Minn., gave the President's and Founder's banquet address, entitled, "The Emphasis Is On You," found by all to be very inspirational.

Annual Homemakers' Festival Slated for May 13

By ESTHER KIRMIS

"ACWW Down Under," the annual Morrow County Homemakers' festival, has been in the planning six months by the members of the county advisory committee, but now that May 13 is drawing near, preparations are shifting into high gear. (Homemakers Festival is to be held at the Willows Grange hall in Ione.)

All the six Extension units of Morrow county are cooperating to make this a successful event. Mrs. Riddell Lage, Hood River, has been secured as the principal speaker. She was Oregon's delegate to the ACWW (Associated Country Women of the World) Triennial at Melbourne, Australia, in 1962.

Assuming responsibilities for luncheon arrangements, music, table, and stage decorations is the Ione Unit; Boardman Unit will hostess; Heppner Unit will make arrangements for mosaic displays; Irrigon Unit has made the program covers and will register the members and friends; Rhea Creek Unit will serve coffee, beginning at 10:00 a.m. for the convenience of the guests; and an Australian display will be furnished by the Pine City Unit.

Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Ione, and Mrs. Ewing Hynd, Cecil, will chairmen the display of cotton and better dresses made in the two workshops they conducted. Units are reminded to turn in their "Pennies for Friendship" (for ACWW); Commemorative Stamps (for UNICEF) and Betty Crocker coupons (for Azalea House) at the Festival.

Luncheon tickets for $1.25 may be obtained from your local county committee woman or the county agent's office.

It all looks good, and we invite the public to attend.

Want To Host IFYE In Your Home?

We have received word from the State 4-H Council office that they are in need of host family applications for eight foreign boys and girls coming into Oregon this summer.

The girls are from Korea, Luxembourg and England. The boys are from Venezuela, Italy and Israel. The two other exchanges coming into the state have not yet been assigned.

So if you'd like to further the cause of world peace, why not open your home to a foreign rural boy or girl for three weeks this summer. They usually come in July and August to Morrow county. Call the local office for an application.

This year the 4-H Leader's Council will furnish incidental expense money to the IFYE—rather than the host family.

Oregon Wheat League Cake Contest

Mrs. Douglas Drake, local Wheat Utilization chairman, called me the other day about the Oregon Wheat Growers cake baking contest. This contest will be held at the Morrow County Fair—August 25-28.

This year the contest is on a "Silver White Cake" and creamy nut icing. Here's the recipe to use—

- SILVER WHITE CAKE
- 2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour
  - 1 1/3 cups sugar
  - 2 1/2 tsp. baking powder
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - 1/2 cup soft shortening
  - 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
  - 1 cup milk

3 egg whites (3/8 cup)
Sift dry ingredients into bowl. Add shortening, vanilla, 2/3 cup of milk. Beat 2 minutes at medium mixer speed. Add rest of milk, egg whites. Beat 2 more minutes. Pour into 2 round layer pans, 8x1 1/2". Bake 30 to 35 minutes in 350 degree oven.

CREAMY NUT ICING

- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 1/2 Tbsp. flour

Cook until thick paste (about 10 min.) Set aside to cool to lukewarm. Cream together: 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 tsp. salt. Add lukewarm paste to creamed mixture, beat until fluffy. Fold in 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla, 3/4 cup nuts (coarsely chopped.) Use about 1/3 of the above for filling. Blend remaining 2/3 of icing with 1 cup powdered sugar (more if needed) and frost top and sides of cake.

We urge all the housewives in the county to try their luck in this contest. I even had a man ask about this event—so watch out ladies!

Fair Premium Books Off The Press

We had a "look-see" at the new Morrow County Fair premium books last week. (This is the earliest we can remember.) Mrs. Glenn Smith, fair secretary, says a copy will be mailed to all past exhibitors. We also have some on hand in the county agent's office.

Salad Making Theme Of Next Unit Study

"Adventures in Salad Making," the theme for the May project of the Heppner Home Extension unit, will be presented to unit members at the home of Mrs. Ray Drake on May 12, at 10:30 a.m.

In place of the usual procedure of a potluck luncheon, there will be a salad luncheon served at noon and a nominal fee will be charged to cover food expenses. Project leaders will be Mrs. Gene Ferguson and Mrs. Paul Warren.

Schedule to Stand At Post Office Here

Announced changes in Saturday money order service at the Heppner post office will not be placed in effect, and patrons of Heppner, Lexington, and Hardman will be provided with the same window service that exists on present schedules, James H. Driscoll, postmaster states.

Bennett in Hospital With Eye Injury

Don Bennett, employee of Morrow County Grain Growers, was struck in the eye by a nail while preparing a railroad car for grain shipment on April 21.

He is being treated at St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla, under a specialist's care. As of Wednesday, extent of damage to the eye had not been determined.

Money receipt books in duplicate and triplicate are on sale at the Gazette-Times.

Over The Tee Cup

By DELORES GRIBBLE

The Willow Creek Golf club officially opened the 1964 season with a tremendous success last Sunday, hosting the Kinzua Golf club, and regaining temporary possession of the two-club trophy, 709-722.

Although losing, the Kinzua stickers did very well, considering that their course is not yet opened for play, and many of their team were making their first strokes of the year.

Lowell Gribble approached mid-season form in capturing low gross honors with a sharp 64, five strokes ahead of the field of 43. Don Turner nailed low net honors with a 57, just one stroke ahead of Maurice Brown, L. Van Marter, Sr., and Fanny Doherty. Don Lovell shot low gross for Kinzua with a 70, and Will Parrish took low net with a 57. Maurice Groves lagged ten inches from the cup on the fourth hole for a KP win, and Jack Chase of Kinzua banked a 285-yard long drive on six.

For the ladies, Arlene Schroeder claimed low gross honors for Kinzua with a lovely 39, and Helen Schaffitz claimed low net with a darling 27.

Chiefs Maurice Brown and Harry O'Donnell served over one hundred ham, egg, and flapjack breakfasts, ably assisted by Clint McQuarrie and Phil Mahoney, along with several ladies of the club who still managed to keep the food palatable, even delicious.

Harlan McCurdy established handicaps, Juanita Carmichael cashiered, and Chere Mahoney tallied scores. Junior stewards Dennis O'Donnell, Jim Doherty, and Jeff Turner performed valuable tournament assistance, and Club President McQuarrie and activities chairman Turner agreed that the day proved a fine inauguration for the newly renovated club house, each predicting many successful events forthcoming. For so early in the year, the course was in excellent condition, thanks to greenskeeper Ray Ferguson, and every putter was glad that Judge Carmichael had double-mowed the greens the day before.

P. S. With the help of yours truly, Connie Schroeder and Tom Turner each caught a frog.

Marie McQuarrie thanks all the golfing gals that worked so diligently to get the club house in shape—this was a labor of
