KEN SMITH, Heppner High Mustang pitcher, will see his last action for the Mustangs this Saturday in the Heppner Burns double header. The classy chucker, a senior, has pitched 51 innings for the Mustangs, striking out 52. He has won five and lost three and sports a 2.85 earned run average. (G-T Photo)

Mustangs, Grant Divide Series

Ken Smith tossed a three-hitter and struck out eight men on the way to his third straight victory Saturday at John Day as the Heppner Mustang baseball squad split a double bill with the Grant Union Prospectors. Heppner took the first contest, 4-1, and dropped the second, 2-1. The first game of the series counted in Greater Oregon league standings and evened the Mustangs' league mark at 2-2.

Smith got help from Carl Bauman, Don Munkers, Jim Doherty and Stuart Dick at the plate as he chalked up his fourth win of the year against three defeats.

Heppner struck first in the second inning of the game as Doherty walked, Smith got on on an error, and Dave Hanna walked. Dave Anderson then brought Smith and Doherty home with a sacrifice fly.

The Mustangs picked up another tally in the third panel when Dick walked and Munkers blasted a triple to bring him home.

Final tally for the local squad came in the fifth on a walk to Sam Strait and hits by Dick and Bauman.

Carl Bauman took to the mound for the Horsemen in the second contest. Although it was the first time this season that Bauman has tried his hand at the flinging chores, the flashy first sacker struck out six batters and gave up only one hit to the Prospectors, only to be beaten 2-1.

Heppner will meet the Burns Hillanders Friday on the Mustangs' home field in their final games of the season. The winner of the first of half of the doubleheader will be the second-place winner in the western division of the Greater Oregon league. Wahtonka of Chenoweth of The Dalles is the first-place finisher in the league. The Eagles sport a 4-0 league record and have only one league contest remaining, against Pilot Rock this week-end.

Mustangs Drop Saturday Meet To Sherman Squad

With three men missing from the squad because of illness, the Heppner High thincads dropped a dual meet to the Sherman Huskies Saturday at Moro. The Huskies racked up 77 points as compared to 53 for the Horsemen.

Heppner's ace distance runner, Lee Padberg, was among the three missing Mustangs in the meet. Padberg's absence was felt in the mile and 880 runs as was that of Larry Muessig in the sprints and Daryl Dick in the high jump.

John Wagenblast, Heppner miler, helped take up some of the slack in the distance events as he romped to a victory in the mile with a time of 5:02.5 and placed second in the 880, clocking 2:22.

Doug Dubuque had a good day in his specialties of the shot put and discus as he grabbed first place in each event. Dubuque heaved the platter 132' 5" to establish a new Heppner High record. The toss bettered the old standard by more than two feet.

In the shot put, Dubuque tossed the iron ball for 41' 7 1/2" to cop the first position.

Another first-place winner for the Horsemen was Raymond Nichols who cleared 10 feet in the pole vault. Nichols also clocked 22.4 to place third in the low hurdles.

Others who placed for the Mustangs were: Tim Driscoll, second in the high hurdles, 16.6; and second in the 440, 55.6; Dean Robinson, third in the 880, no time; Mark Brown, second in the two-mile, 11:14.7; Terry Hutchins, third in the two-mile, 11:36; Bill Weatherford, second in the low hurdles, 22.3, and third in the high hurdles, 22.4; Dave George, second in the high jump, 5' 4"; Jim Jacobs, second in the shot put, 39' 10"; Simon Winters, second in the javelin, no distance; Mickey Massey, third in the pole vault, no height; and Steve Wagenblast, third in the javelin no distance.

Saturday, the Mustangs will travel to Umatilla for the Athena Invitational meet. If the Mustangs emerge victorious from the meet, they will add another trophy to their trophy case.

3 Girls Attend FHA Convention

Three Heppner High school girls, Jean Stockard, Phyllis Nelson and Kitty O'Harra, attended the 19th annual state convention of the Future Homemakers of America in Salem Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Alice Vance took the girls to the meeting.

Phyllis reported to the convention on her trip to the national convention last year. The girls and Mrs. Vance toured the Capitol building while in Salem.

Theme of the convention was "Your Values—A Key to Citizenship." Some 350 delegates from 107 chapters were present with meetings through Friday and Saturday. Banquet was Friday evening with Circuit Judge Ralph Holman of Clackamas county as the speaker.

Units Have Homemaker Spring Festival

MONUMENT—Monument and Dayville Home Extension Units served as joint hostesses for the annual Homemaker's Spring Festival held in Monument Wednesday, April 22. About 78 women attended the program and luncheon.

Members of the 4-H cooking and sewing clubs served the luncheon prepared by the monument ladies. Dayville was host for the coffee hour during the morning program.

Mrs. Helen Holmes of Kimberley gave an interesting talk and showed pictures of a recent trip to Germany and the Holy Lands, as the speaker from Pendleton couldn't make it because of the snow storm that morning. The John Day Unit won the gavel for the coming year, by placing first with their display of "You, the Informed Food Shopper."

Mrs. Doris Vinson conducted the installation ceremony in the afternoon for the new officers of each organization.

Hans Hanson is in the John Day hospital recovering from injuries received when his car turned over with him near their ranch on Cherry Creek road near Mitchell.

Mr. H. Harold Lippert and three sons drove to Burns Saturday to attend her stepfather's funeral, returning home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hinton, who are now working at Pendleton, were home for the week-end. A son, Kenneth Duane, has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hall at Prineville. Mrs. Hall is the former Julia Ann Wheeler. Grandparents are

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wheeler. Mrs. Edna Moore, Mrs. Beta Copper and Mrs. Janice Cork accompanied Wayne Leathers to Bend to meet his wife, Ethel, who had been in Chico, Calif., visiting her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gates, and her son, Wayne, Jr., who is a student at college there. Mrs. Moore stayed in Prineville and visited her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arlot Cork and children.

Miss Sherry Neal was home for the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Neal, returning Sunday evening by bus to her business school.
