MORE MOUTHS TO FEED!

Families on-the-grow make careful budgeting a "must" . . . to provide for the future as well as the present.

Additions to the family mean not only "more mouths to feed," but increased responsibility for future needs . . . such as education. This calls for the wise management of money to provide a margin for regular saving . . . but the results are most rewarding!

Barkers Greeted at Public Reception Following Wedding in Idaho Temple

Many friends and relatives were greeted at a wedding reception honoring newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barker, Jr. (Sandra Richards) in social rooms of the First Christian church Saturday evening, March 28.

The couple had exchanged marriage vows March 24 in the Idaho Falls Latter-day Saints Temple. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards, Heppner, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barker, Sr., of Mesa, Wn.

For the reception the new matron wore her floor length wedding dress of white chiffon. The gown was lovely with three quarter length sleeves, a slight train and a fitted bodice daintily detailed with embroidery, seed pearls and tiny sequins. A small silver headband accented with seed pearls held her waist length veil of sheer chiffon.

The traditional first wedge cut from the three tiered wedding cake was shared by the newlywed couple, amid shades of pink and silver, the colors chosen by the bride for her wedding. The beautiful cake was then cut and served to guests by Mrs. Dean Hunt and Mrs. Vernal Gehring, aunt of the bride from Hood River. Pink roses and pink carnations etched in silver were gracefully arranged on the serving table. Linda Barker, sister of the groom, and Beverly Blake poured the fruit punch. Pouring coffee and tea were Mrs. Ralph Richards, Jr., Port Angeles, Wn., and Mrs. Paul Richards of Pendleton, both sisters-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Vernon Munkers was accompanied by Mrs. Carl Marquardt at the piano as she sang "Because." Beverly Davidson at-

Hazel Mahoney took Mike Pierce for a partner and walked off with the grand prize in the first annual Mother's Day golf tourney last Sunday, receiving a beautiful Sunbeam toaster from Lott's Electric. Lois Hunt teamed with Russell Kilkenny to win first in the thirteen and under group, netting a $10.00 merchandise award from Central Market, and Marie McQuarrie took the same award for the 14 and over class, playing with son, Dan.

Shirley Loyd alternated strokes with her boy, Tim, to get a $5.00 merchandise award from Del's Market, and Cora Mae Ferguson had the help of John O'Donnell to get the same prize in the 13 and under division. As the youngest mother in the tournament, Bev Gunderson received a box of candy from Phil's Pharmacy, and Helen Schaffitz got her box of candy from Humphreys Drugs for teaming up with the youngest child in the contest, her 10-year-old son, Jimmy.

Don Turner, activity chairman, announces that next Sunday, beginning at 10:00 a.m., the club will sponsor an 18 hole warm-up tournament for men, with golf balls (Dots) for awards. The club house will be open, coffee and rolls being served from 9:30. Each club member is entitled to bring no more than two guests.

On Tuesday, 12 ladies showed up for first of the organized Play Days. Golf balls were given for low score, Dee Gribble for regulars and Gina Leonard for the beginners. She incidentally, played 18 holes—first nine with Lois Hunt and second with Bobbe Driscoll and Hazel Mahoney. Lunch and coffee were enjoyed at the club house.

Others playing or eating were Cork Norene, Helen Schaffitz, Cora Mae Ferguson, Janet Turner, Mary Malcom, Marie McQuarrie, and Kay Anderson.

tended the guest book and passing the groom's cake were Jeanine and Gary Hunt. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mrs. John Ledbetter, Mrs. Paul Warren, Mrs. Harold Wright and Miss Bernice Thomson of Portland. Attending the table laden with many lovely gifts were Mrs. William Rill (Sandra Harshman) and Mrs. Mike Rogers of Portland.

The new Mrs. Barker was graduated from Heppner high school in 1962. She attended Northwest Business School of Commerce in Portland and is presently employed with the Department of Welfare in Portland where the couple resides.

The groom fulfilled a two year mission in Canada for the LDS church after receiving his high school diploma in 1961 from Mesa High school in Mesa, Wn. He attended Columbia Basin College in Pasco and is now employed by Grant Edgel Co. in Portland.

Bride-elect Honored At Luncheon Party.

The dining room of the Black Angus Motel in Kennewick, Wn., was the scene of a pre-nuptial luncheon Saturday afternoon, given by Mrs. Holmes Gabbert of Ione, honoring Miss Tana Lechelt.

Miss Lechelt's engagement to Gerald Bunch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Bunch, was announced recently. Their wedding will be an event of early June.

The luncheon table was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers and each of the ten women guests received a carnation corsage.

Attending from this vicinity were Mrs. Gabbert, Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs. Grace Wood, Mrs. Al Bunch and Mrs. Kenneth Brenner.

Turners Attend St. Paul Program

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Turner and Mrs. J. O. Turner attended the annual Mother's Day week-end at St. Paul's school in Walla Walla last Sunday, witnessing the school's drama club production at the Whitman College theater, and hearing a debate delivered before the St. Paul's Episcopal congregation. The title of the question was "Is the Church Adequately Serving Teen-agers?" and Ginny Lou Turner argued the affirmative. She also participated in the drama club production.

The Turners plan to attend Ginny Lou's graduation services at the end of this month.
