Men Entertain Mothers, Girls At Church Affair
 By DELPHA JONES
 LEXINGTON—Men of the Lexington Christian church were hosts to a delightful evening of entertainment for a group of 54 women and daughters of the church and community Saturday evening. The evening started with a delicious pancake feed followed by a program with Mrs. C. C. Jones as the master of ceremony. Opening prayer by Mrs. Earl Soward was followed by a minute of silent prayer, then all sang the doxology.
 Mrs. Carl Marquardt was introduced and gave a welcome, with Miss Glenda Hills giving the response. Following this the oldest mother present, Mrs. Roy Campbell, received a corsage. Corsages were also presented to the youngest mother, Mrs. Vic Groshens, and to Mrs. Charles Colley who found the lucky number under her plate. The mothers then introduced themselves and their daughter or their "adopted" daughter. The guest speaker, Mrs. William Piper of Hermiston, then talked on "Family Love and Sharing."
 After the dinner the men were introduced who had helped in the kitchen and all attended a movie, "Christian Faith in a Confused World." Also present was Rev. Piper of Hermiston. Mr. and Mrs. Piper are serving the Hermiston Christian church until a permanent minister arrives. Both are long time friends of Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward, having attended school together.
 Mr. and Mrs. Max Breeding of Portland, and Mrs. Lola Breeding were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones and Mrs. Florence McMillan were business visitors a couple of days last week.
 Mrs. Florence McMillan is spending a few days in Pendleton with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool.
 Mrs. Vida Heliker of Ione, Palomona HEC chairman, has announced that Mrs. A. F. Majeske and Mrs. Billy Klingler have won first prize in the Grange dress contest and two dresses will be sent to State for state judging May 20. Mrs. Klingler and Mrs. Majeske sent dresses representing the Lexington Grange.
 Laddie Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, is spending two weeks with his parents before receiving overseas duty assignment in the U. S. Army Secret Service Division, Army Chief of Staff Dept. Mr. Henderson has been attending school in Fort Gordon, Ga., for the last three months.
 Mr. and Mrs. Butch Eatch were Lexington visitors over the week-end. They motored to Pendleton on Sunday where they met Mr. Eatch's father, Jack Eatch, and all returned to Lexington where they spent Sunday. Miss Marilyn Morgan of Ione motored to Ione with them on Sunday for a visit with her parents.
 Mr. E. E. Peck and children Joyce and George were Portland visitors one day last week.
 Sunday the Lexington Christian church will be favored by Miss Evelyn Jepsen daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jepsen of Ione, who attends Northwest Christian College in Eugene. She will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rickard also of Northwest Christian College who will speak. Following there is a potluck dinner planned at 1.
 Lee Padberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg, has returned home from an appendectomy at Pioneer Memorial hospital.
 Keith Peck of Portland spent Monday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peck.
