Class of '68 Guests At Dinner Party

Mothers of Eighth Grade "graduates" went all-out Saturday evening to bring a happy climax to their children's grade school years. The class of 54 students, with teachers and supervisors as guests, were entertained at a dinner and dance at the Catholic parish hall.

Mothers prepared and served the ham dinner, complete with homemade rolls, strawberry sundaes and dainty cupcakes decorated as May baskets. Miniature maypoles centered the long tables. A large banner in front carried the class motto: "Sail onward, through life's breakers roll."

Program numbers were introduced by honorary hostess, Mrs. Fred Gimbel. Steve Pettyjohn extended a word of welcome for the class and all students were presented a carnation corsage or boutonniere, along with a scroll of the class prophecy. Principals Hillard Brown and Gordon Pratt were each introduced by John Rawlins, and each gave remarks of encouragement and challenge to the students. A piano duet, "Salute to the Colors" by Mrs. Gimbel and son Ricky was enjoyed by all.

Dancing followed to favorite records of the students.

Mrs. Marshall Lovgren served as general chairman for the evening, assisted by Mrs. Gene Hall, Mrs. Bob Abrams, and many of the mothers helping with cooking, serving and clean-up.

Pinochle Club Meets At Cutsforth Home

Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth was hostess last Thursday to eleven women who gathered at her home for an evening of pinochle play.

Prize for high score was won by Mrs. James Phegley, who highlighted the evening by melding 1500 trump. The tallies revealed Mrs. Don Griffith to be second high. Mrs. Phegley also won the pinochle prize.
