

New PTA Officers Installed At Ione

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Mrs. Henry R. Krebs was installed as 1964-65 president of the Ione PTA at an impressive ceremony last Wednesday evening at the school cafeteria. Mrs. Omar Rietmann was installing officer. Carol Miller was installed as vice-president and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson as secretary-treasurer.

Committee chairman appointed by Mrs. Krebs are: Citizenship, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson; Legislature, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann; hospitality, Mrs. Lee Palmer; Ways and Means, James Barnett; health and safety, Mrs. Paul Tewes; publicity, Mrs. Jack Hynd; recreation and creative and cultural arts, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom; social, Mrs. Norman Nelson; membership and room representatives, Mrs. Donald Peterson; school and home relations, Leonard Herick; High school service, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen; Founder's Day, Mrs. Wallace Matthews; and Budget, Eugene Dockter. The officers were presented lovely ribbon corsages.

During the meeting conducted by Joe Hausler, president, the school picnic planned for Friday, May 29, was canceled. Mrs. Krebs reported on the state convention of the PTA, which she and Mrs. Nelson attended in Portland. It was the largest convention the PTA had ever held in this state and the program was based on the objectives of the association. Twenty-three scholarships for students majoring in education were awarded and 28 renewals were given. Mr. Hausler appointed Gene Harryman, Carol Miller, and D. G. Lujan as the committee to award the local PTA scholarship.

Mrs. Krebs presented Mr. Hausler with a past president's pin in appreciation for his work with the Ione PTA this past year. The social committee for the evening was Mrs. Lujan, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Harryman, and Mrs. Dockter. The tables were decorated with bouquets of spring flowers.

Baccalaureate services will be held in the school cafeteria at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 24. Rev. Charles Knox of the First Christian church in Heppner will be guest speaker.

80th Birthday is Observed

Thursday afternoon, May 14, Mrs. Mary Swanson was honored on her 80th birthday with an open house held at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson. Over 100 friends and relatives called during the afternoon to greet Mrs. Swanson and to enjoy birthday cake and coffee. Hosts for the affair, besides Mr. and Mrs. Swanson, were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swanson of Portland, Mrs. Adon Hamlett of Fruitland, Idaho, and Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem, all children of Mrs. Swanson.

She received many lovely gifts as well as a money tree from her friends. The tea table was decorated with a bouquet in shades of pink with pink candles and spring flowers about the rooms. Norman Swanson had brought lovely rhododendrons from his garden.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen over the week-end were his sister, Miss Evelyn Jepsen, and Miss Frances Jones, who are students at Northwest Christian college at Eugene. Miss Jepsen delivered the sermon and Miss Jones sang at the Lexington Christian church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Portland on business. They also attended the Ice Follies while there.

Mrs. Carol Miller and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom went to Helix on Saturday evening to attend the 50th anniversary of McKenzie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star of Athena. The reception, which was held in the Masonic hall in Helix, also honored Daphna Simpson, Grand Representative to Maryland in Oregon. Many members of Grand Chapter were present.

Party Honors Mrs. Prock

Mrs. Larry Prock of Pendleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen of Ione, was honored guest at a pink and blue shower held in the Grange hall on Monday afternoon, May 18. A large number of guests was present. Assisting Mrs. Prock at the gift table were her cousin, Mrs. William Gelinus of Portland, and Mrs. Wayne Hams. The refreshment table was centered with a lovely cake designed in the shape of two booties, one frosted in pink and one in blue, made by Mrs. Ronald Haguwood of Heppner. Mrs. Halvorsen poured the coffee and Mrs. Prock's mother-in-law, Mrs. Faye Prock of Heppner, poured the punch. Out of towners here to enjoy the party were Mrs. Marion Green, Mrs. Pat Cutsforth and Mrs. Prock of Heppner, and Mrs. Michael Chase and Mrs. Dallas Rea of Pendleton.

Mrs. Beulah Lundell accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swanson to Ione on Wednesday and returned with them on Friday to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe and Arleta spent the week-end in Portland and while there attended the Ice Follies.

Michelle Morrison, a sophomore at Oregon State, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jodie K. Morrison, over the week-end.

Mrs. Adon Hamlett and son Tommy returned to their home in Fruitland, Idaho, on Sunday after spending several days here. Elmo McMillan of Salem drove up this week-end to get Mrs. McMillan, who had been spending a week here visiting relatives. Her mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson, returned with her for a couple of weeks.

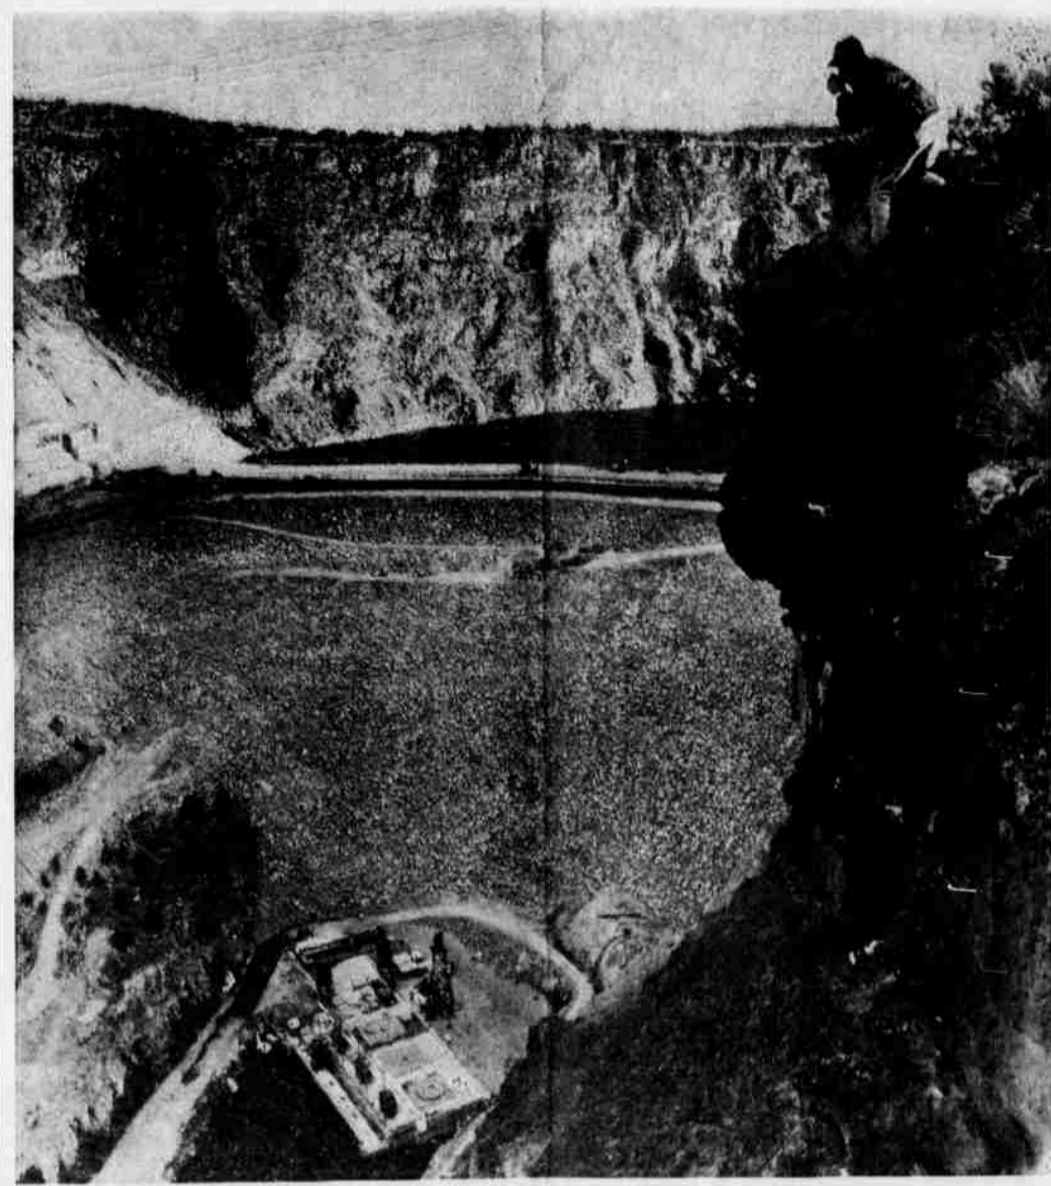

Postmaster Mrs. Charles O'Connor, states that the John F. Kennedy commemorative stamp will go on sale at the Ione office on May 29. There are also several other special stamps on sale at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree drove to Portland Sunday and brought back their daughter, Mrs. William Gelinus and son,

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, May 21, 1964

Sec. 2 - 8 Pages

PHOTOGRAPHER (upper right) takes perilous stance to shoot Portland General Electric company's giant Round Butte dam now nearing completion on the Deschutes river near Madras. Larger than the Great Pyramid, when Round Butte goes to work late this summer it will be capable of generating one billion kilowatt-hours of electricity annually. Rock-fill, 440-foot-high project will cost $60 million.

who will spend two weeks here visiting, while her husband is spending two weeks with the Air Force Reserve.

Robert Drake, Rollo Crawford, and Gerald Bergstrom spent Sunday in Portland and attended the Ice Follies. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jacobs also went down for the Ice Follies.

Mrs. Dennis E. Swanson, Mike and Toni arrived in Ione on Wednesday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson. She has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Ingram at Eugene. She will remain in this vicinity until she flies to Germany the first part of June to join her husband.

Auxiliary Collects Clothing

The American Legion Auxiliary would like to have good used men's clothing, except shoes, which they will send to Camp White, a home for veterans who have no home of their own or no one to care for them. The clothes should be mended but the Auxiliary members will clean them if they need it. Please leave at the home of Mrs. Cleo Drake, or call her and she will pick them up before June 1. The Auxiliary members would also like to have men's and women's shoes to go to the State hospital in Pendleton. Mrs. Gottfried Hermann is chairman of this, but they may also be left at the home of Mrs. Drake.

Carol Holtz was surprised on her seventh birthday with a party given by her mother, Mrs. Mary Holtz. After games were played and packages opened the children enjoyed birthday cake and punch. Guests present were Jan and Cindy Ekstrom, Christina Lindstrom, Susan Jane Jensen, Yvonne and Lea White, Teena Stefani, and Carol's sister, Kathy.

(Continued on page 8)

Spring Concert Enjoyed In Ione

A large crowd of parents and friends enjoyed the varied and entertaining program presented on Friday evening, May 15, by the Ione grade and high school bands and choruses directed by Carol I. Miller. The program, held in the school gymnasium, was well received by the audience. The Junior High Band played four numbers and the fifth grade band joined them for two numbers. The high school band showed their proficiency with four numbers, one of which, "Trumpets, Ole!" featured the entire trumpet section. The Hungry Five Plus One featured a novelty group in costume playing "Lichtenstein Polka" and "When My Baby Smiles at Me," which the audience greatly enjoyed. Members of this group are Deniece Matthews, Stephen Lindstrom, Dallas Daizell, Dick Hynd, and Neal Christopherson.

The girls vocal ensemble composed of Connie Christopherson, Cheryl Corley, Delores Emert, Bonnie Hynd, and Susan Lindstrom sang two numbers, "On The Street Where You Live" and "Yankee Doodle Boy."

The High school chorus were crowd pleasers with four more numbers, and the boys vocal ensemble sang "My Lord, What a Mornin'," "Lemon Tree," and "Tom Dooley." Robert Emert, Tom Heimbigner, Stephen Lindstrom and Dick Hynd are members of this group.

A lovely silver tea table was arranged in the cafeteria with cookies, coffee and punch being served. Mrs. Gene Harryman and Mrs. Carol Miller poured.

class of '64

The whole town is proud and we join in, wishing the class of '64 our sincerest congratulations for a job well done.

HUMPHREYS REXALL DRUG

HEPPNER

Now if you're saying to yourself "That's a swell looking car, but I couldn't afford it," we'd like a quiet word with you.

That car is a Pontiac Catalina, lowest priced of the big Pontiacs. Catalina has everything that makes a Pontiac a Pontiac—the superlative style, the extra-careful construction, the big-muscle Trophy V-8 performance, the road-wedded Wide-Track ride. Everything. And, the price is very, very right. It must be. After all, you don't get into third place in sales just by selling cars to rich people. Now, how about having a quiet word with your nearest Pontiac dealer. Wide-Track Pontiac

See your authorized Pontiac dealer for a wide choice of Wide-Tracks and good used cars, too.

FARLEY MOTOR COMPANY

MAY AND CHASE

HEPPNER, OREGON

CONFIDENCE—a feeling you get at First National

Whether it's the carefully-hoarded pennies of a small boy, or hard-earned family dollars, it's important to have confidence in the place you put your savings.

That confidence is born of many things . . . a record of safety, the competence of well-trained and experienced bank people, and an attitude of service that assures careful money handling. You get all these and more at First National.

Save regularly . . . for the secure feeling you have with money in the bank. Save at First National . . . where you get a feeling of confidence that your money is in good hands.

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

The Statewide Bank with Hometown Service