Marriage Date Set For Vos-Cox Wedding

The engagement and coming marriage of Miss Gretchen Claire Vos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harold Vos of Eugene, and David Larry Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Cox of Heppner, was recently announced at a family dinner party.

Miss Vos attended University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority, and Emanuel hospital School of Nursing. She is now employed at the Emanuel hospital, Portland.

Mr. Cox, a graduate of Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, and a former OSU student, is now employed by Zellerbach Paper Co. in Portland.

Their wedding is planned for July 11 at Augustana Lutheran church, Portland.

Club Meets Friday At Beckett Home

Mrs. Walter Beckett was hostess May 15, when the Friday afternoon pinochle club met at her home for their weekly session of cards.

High score went to Mrs. Ed Brandenburg, who was filling in for Mrs. Max Harris, and low score went to Miss Esther Bergstrom, substituting for Mrs. Art Watkins. The hostess, Mrs. Beckett, teamed with Mrs. Fred Mankin to win the pinochle.

Others playing were Mrs. Charlie Beckett, Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. Hannah Anderson and Mrs. Toussent Dubuque.

Soroptimists Host Annual Senior Tea For Girls, Mothers

Senior girls and their mothers enjoyed a pleasant afternoon Sunday when they were guests of the Heppner Soroptimist club at a Senior Tea at the home of Mrs. Jim Hager. Also invited were women faculty members, wives of faculty men and administrators.

Greeted at the door by Mrs. Harold Laird and Mrs. Wes Sherman, the seniors were pinned with carnation corsages. The girls and mothers posed for poloid pictures on the patio, and were given to them as keepsakes. Photographer for the afternoon was Jan Hager.

A centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums, the class flower, and white snapdragons flanked by white tapers centered the attractive tea table. Food and other decorations carried out the yellow and white class colors. Serving cranberry punch was Mrs. Grace Nickerson, and presiding at the tea service was Mrs. Loyal Parker. Both Mrs. Nickerson and Mrs. Parker are life members of the local club.

Serving on the hostess committee for the afternoon were Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. Jim Thomson, Mrs. Bill Collins, Mrs. Ed Gonty, Mrs. Charles Starks, Mrs. Emil Groshens, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Nickerson and Mrs. Parker. Mrs. Hager, who had been ill during the week, was able to spend only a limited time meeting guests.

Garden Club Views Corsage Making

The lone Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Gottfried Hermann on Tuesday, May 12. Mrs. William Spohn was assisting hostess. Members answered roll call by quoting verses about flowers. Violets were especially mentioned, honoring Mrs. Violet Goss, the National Garden Club president, as well as representing the spring season.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Edith Nicholson, program leaders, taught how to make corsages of ribbon, which included the selection of suitable ribbons, wiring flowers to aid in arranging and holding, and tying bows. Mrs. Rietmann also demonstrated making beautiful roses and buds from 1/4 inch ribbon.

Officers elected for the coming year are Mrs. O. Lundell, president; Mrs. Ralph Crum, vice-president; Mrs. Phill Emert, secretary, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, treasurer.

The next meeting will be held at the summer cabin of Mrs. E. C. Heliker and will be an all-day affair with a potluck dinner at noon. Mrs. Elmer Griffith will install the new officers and Alaskan pictures will be featured on the program.

Students are Heard In Public Recital

Piano pupils of Miss Marti Dixon were heard in public recital at the Methodist church parsonage Monday evening, May 25, at 7:30 p.m. Guest pianist for the program was Mrs. Virginia Turner. A piano duet "Invitation to the Dance" by Miss Dixon and Mrs. Turner closed the recital program.

Students who participated in the recital were Juanita Wilson, Luke Padberg, Lance Williamson, Cathy Cannon, D-Anne Barnett, Carley Bergstrom, Barbara Boyce and Kristine Peterson.

Friends and relatives are asked to come and greet them at All Saints' Episcopal parish hall, June 14, between the hours of 2 and 4:00 p.m.

The golden-weds were married June 14, 1914, in Heppner, and have lived all their married years in and around this area.

Week-end guests at the Archie Padberg home were their daughter, Miss Mary Evelyn Tucker, a student at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, and Gordon L. Ross of Woodburn. They all enjoyed a day of fishing Saturday at Bull Prairie, with Mary Evelyn and Gordon sharing a joint birthday cake at the picnic dinner. They returned to the valley Sunday afternoon.

Spring Antics Used By League as Clever Theme to Entertain

Painted with pinafores little girls, and boys decked out in overalls, amid scenery characteristic of the season, carried the theme of this year's annual Girls' League Tea, held Friday in the high school multipurpose room, "Antics of Spring." The theme was derived from the title of a one-act comedy play, "Antics of Spring," acted out to the enjoyment of all by a group of girls, under the direction of Mrs. Janet Groves.

Over 200 women and girls attended the afternoon program that began with a social hour. Mrs. Ed Dick and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier poured coffee and punch at a lace covered serving table that was graced with an arrangement of spring flowers. Guests enjoyed special Scandinavian delicacies prepared by the Home Economics girls with the assistance of Mrs. Ken Robinson and Mrs. George Luciani. Mrs. Ann Hildebrand supervised the Home Ec. girls in the absence of Mrs. Grace Schmidt, who was ill and confined to her home. Susan Drake was in charge of the food planning.

On one wall of the room, artistically entwined in a vine of red roses, were pictures of each senior class student. On another wall were large, gaily designed letters, spelling out the theme, under which grew a garden of paper daisies. On the committee in charge of the decorations were Erna Winchester, Karen French, Carol Rawlins and Margaret Green.

Seating of the new Girls' League officers followed the social hour. Past-president, Phyllis Nelson, installed Tamara Smith as the new president. Miss Smith, with the assistance of this year's officers, installed the remainder of the new slate. Jean Healy was installed as vice president; Karla Luciani, secretary; and Verina French, treasurer.

Phyllis Nelson was given a
