

Current Year Closes With Officer Election

New officers for the coming year were elected at business meetings following a combined American Legion and Auxiliary potluck dinner Monday evening at the Legion hall. This was the last regular meeting of the organizations until the fall term, however plans were discussed for a family picnic outing at Anson Wright Park near Hardman sometime in July.

Mrs. Hubert Wilson was elected president of the Legion Auxiliary for the coming year, replacing Mrs. Frank Hamlin. Serving with her will be Mrs. Arnie Hedman, first vice president; Mrs. Sib Wells, second vice president; Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, secretary; Mrs. Earl Soward, treasurer, and Mrs. Glen Ward, historian.

Installation of the above officers will be held in September.

Inspection Slated

Degree of Honor meeting and state inspection will be Tuesday, June 9, at 8 p.m. in the Christian church. Mrs. Clara Gertson is state director.

Mrs. Connor Honored At Surprise Farewell

Mrs. Morgan Connor was honored Tuesday evening with a surprise farewell party at the home of Mrs. Clyde Allstott. The Connors will be moving this week end to Goldendale, Wn., where he will be the distributor for Standard Oil products.

Co-hostesses for the surprise party were Mrs. Allstott, Mrs. Elmer Berry and Mrs. Don Munkers. Three tables of pinocle were played with Mrs. Doyle Key winning high, Mrs. Delmer Buschke second high, and Mrs. Connor the traveling pinocle prize. Mrs. Key highlighted the card play by melding 1500 trump.

Other guests included Mrs. Ivan McDaniel, Mrs. Chuck Phegley, Mrs. Dick Dunlap, Mrs. Kenny Cutsforth, Mrs. Vern Keithley and Mrs. Gerald Rood. While dessert was being served, Mrs. Connor was presented with a money tree, a going-away gift from her friends.

Allstott Home Scene Of Memorial Reunion

A family reunion was held over the Memorial Day weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott. Mrs. Dolly Allstott, Gresham, enjoyed visiting with all six of her children and their families at the get-together.

Coming from Pendleton were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Allstott, Jr., Chris, Terry, Steve, Peggy, and Cindy; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allstott, Ricky, Robert, Nancy, and Susie. Accompanying her mother from Gresham were Mrs. Wilbur Jackson, Gary and Annette.

Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Butler, Mickey and Shelby, Mayville; Mr. and Mrs. Lyke Peck, Dennis, Allen, Debbie, Steven, and Teresa, Rufus; and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lutkin, Ione.

Brides Given Advice

Bob Albrecht, field representative for the Social Security Administration in Morrow county, reminds all June brides and other new wives that they should drop in to the Social Security office or the post office and ask for the form used to change the name on their Social Security card to their new married names.

KAREN HAMS

Karen Hams Installed Lone Worthy Advisor For Summer Term

IONE — Miss Karen Hams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams, was installed as Worthy Advisor of Rainbow Assembly No. 89 at a lovely ceremony at the lone Masonic hall on Sunday afternoon, May 24. Installing officer was Susan Kay Lindstrom, junior past worthy advisor. She was assisted by Sue Townsend, installing marshal; Cathy Hausler, installing recorder; Terri O'Connor, installing musician; and Cheryl Corley, installing chaplain.

Other officers installed for the spring term are: Elaine Gaarsland, worthy associate advisor; Bonnie Hynd, charity; Mary Nichols, hope; Shirley Hicks, faith; Linda Nichols, chaplain; and Cheryl Smouse, drill leader. Appointed to fill the color stations are Bonnie Morgan, love; Teresa Stefani, religion; Linda Williams, nature; Elaine Savage, immortality; Connie Emert, fidelity; Bonnie Akers, patriotism; and Gerri Krebs, service. Terri O'Connor will serve as confidential observer, and Judy Eubanks as outer observer. Musician is Linda Rowell and choir director is Dixie Peck, with Merrie Jo Morrison, Cheryl Corley, Sue Townsend, Lee O'Connor, Susan Lindstrom, Teresa Tucker and Betty Hausler as members of the choir. Joyce Peck and Cathy Hausler are serving for a year as recorder and treasurer, respectively, and were installed in January.

The crowning ceremony was performed by Wayne Hams, Karen's brother, followed by the song, "The Bible Tells Me So," sung by Bonnie Hynd and Cathy Hausler with the Assembly joining them in the second chorus. Karen presented a corsage of yellow roses to her mother, and Mrs. Hams presented Karen with a gavel. Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor of the Assembly, congratulated the assembly on their fine work and presented Susan with her Past Worthy Advisor's pin. Mrs. Harold Becket, Heppner, Grand Deputy of Rainbow for Girls in Oregon, was present and spoke to the girls. Karen chose Faith, Hope, and Charity for her watchwords and yellow and white for her colors. Cheryl Hams, Karen's sister, and Helen Byrne passed out the programs. Elaine Gaarsland had charge of the guest book.

The reception was held in the dining room appropriately decorated with spring bouquets of yellow and white. The table was centered with a bouquet of yellow spider chrysanthemums and white stock, with yellow candles. Mrs. Wayne Hams poured punch and Mrs. Wes Marlatt of Heppner, aunt of Karen's, poured coffee. Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom served the cake.
