

Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

Would you believe me when I tell you that on Tuesday there were more beginning golfers than "old timers"? Well, we were blessed with several guests, too.

Phyllis Hutchens brought Gordon's mother, who is visiting here, and she was a welcomed addition to our group. I brought my Barb and my daughter-in-law, Carol, who played her very first game, and says she had a "ball."

Vi Lanham planned our play and Helen Schaffitz and Cora Mae Ferguson served the coffee to 19 gals. Golf balls for beginners went to one having the most trouble on No. 2 hole, and turned out to be Gena Leonard. The old timer that had the most trouble on No. 3 was Corkie Norene, and after such a good week-end, too.

Others out for play, and we're so glad to welcome them back, were Inez Huffman, Sue Jones, Faye Pierce, Mary Malcolm, Marie McQuarrie, Hazel Mahoney, Kay Anderson, Juanita Carmichael, Lois Hunt and Dee. Speaking of Juanita, this is the second time she's been involved with a car accident, in pursuit of golf lessons—and both times up Hinton Creek. Makes the game expensive, but we're so glad she's not hurt.

New tee-off time until hot weather will be 9 o'clock, with lunch after the play.

DON'T FORGET the date with Kinzua — June 21.
