Barbara Blake Seated New Worthy Advisor Of Rainbow Assembly

Barbara Blake used blue and white as the colors for her installation as worthy advisor to the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Ruth Assembly No. 50, last Monday evening in the Masonic hall, when she and 14 other young ladies were seated in offices for the summer term.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake, chose as her watchword, "I'll Walk With God." Mrs. Gordon Pratt accompanied Mrs. Gerald Jonasson at the piano as Mrs. Jonasson sang the song requested by Barbara, also entitled, "I'll Walk With God."

The new worthy advisor's installing officers were Rogenia Wilson, installing chaplain; Teresa Munkers, installing marshal; Brenda Young, past worthy advisor and installing recorder; and Kathy Melby, installing musician.

The slate of new officers seated were Barbara Blake, worthy advisor; Kitty O'Hara, charity; Jean Slewert, hope; Shirley Erwin, faith; Janine Hunt, love; Pam Hughes, religion; Jill Padberg, nature; Linda Orwick, immortality; Mary Pierce, fidelity; Christine Munkers, patriotism; Cynthia Smith, service; Lynn Key, outer observer; Judy Nyman, confidential observer; Jenny Blake, musician; and Kathy Melby, choir director.

Crowning ceremonies followed the installation as Barbara's twin sisters, Karen and Kathy presented her with her crown.

The new worthy advisor then introduced members of her family, that included her parents and her sisters and her grandmothers, Mrs. Snoda Blake and Mrs. Lucille Wilson. She also introduced Mrs. Paul Heinrichs, Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mrs. Bob Jones, Ray Williamson, worshipful master of the Heppner Masonic lodge; Mrs. Lowell Gribble, worthy matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern Star; Rainbow board members; Mrs. Marjorie Worden, Mrs. Tom Hughes and Mrs. Clarence Baker.

Assisting in the kitchen and at the tea table were Mrs. Snoda Blake, Mrs. Lucille Wilson, Mrs. Marjorie Worden, Mrs. Paul Heinrichs, Mrs. Joe Wright and Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland.

Blue iris arranged in milk glass vases along with blue tapers in milk glass candleholders graced the tea table that was covered with a white lace tablecloth over a blue linen cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sargnet of Salem were house guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warren, Dennis, Diane and Linda, left Sunday for a week of clam digging in the Seaside, Depoe Bay area.

Van Schoiack-Fenton Wedding Set June 20

The marriage of Miss Libby Van Schoiack, Heppner, and Stephen Fenton, Salem, will be solemnized at a nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church on Saturday, June 20. The ceremony will start at 11:00 a.m., with a reception following in the church parish hall.

The couple and parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Van Schoiack, take this means of extending a cordial invitation to all friends and relatives in the area to attend the wedding and reception.

Both young people plan to re-enter Oregon State University next fall, where Mr. Fenton will complete his senior year in business administration and Miss Van Schoiack will continue as a junior in her major in home economics.

Friends Compliment New Bride at Shower Party at Warren Home

Classmates who graduated in 1956 with Mrs. Charles (Betty Rose) Bailey honored her with a bridal shower last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clarence Warren.

A gay parasol along with a beautiful bride doll graced the gift table that was laden with many lovely gifts.

The hostess, Mrs. Jim Devine, served a molded salad with coffee and punch to the guests that included Mrs. Lynda Dunlap, Mrs. Larry Simmons, Mrs. Roger Palmer, Mrs. Ray Bailey, Mrs. Ethel Rose, Diane and Linda Warren.

The Bailey wedding was an event of May 9, at the Methodist church in The Dalles. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ethel Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bailey are the parents of the groom. The couple is at home in Heppner.

Three New Members Initiated Into OES

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Abrams and Ray Williamson were initiated Monday evening into the Order of Eastern Star, Ruth Chapter No. 32, at the Masonic hall. Mrs. Lowell Gribble, worthy matron, presided at the meeting and the initiation.

Men officers of the order prepared and served strawberry shortcake to those present. In charge of the refreshments were Don Turner, worthy patron; Oliver Creswick, associate worthy patron, and Lowell Gribble, sentinel.

Guests over Decoration Day week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hayden were close friends, Mrs. Margaret Phelps of Zenith, Wn., and Mrs. Vivian Ball of Portland.

Many Win Prizes At Annual Episcopal Birthday Card Party

The Episcopal parish hall was the scene Saturday afternoon, of the annual All Saints' Episcopal birthday card party, when some 40 women enjoyed an afternoon of bridge and pinocle play.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael won first prize for the highest bridge score and Mrs. Ted Smith was second high. Mrs. Bob Dobbs tallied the high pinocle score with Mrs. Tom Huston holding second. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Grace Nickerson and Mrs. Bob Buschke.

Two large arrangements of peonies and iris graced the hall for the annual affair. Dainty spring flowers in bud vases decorated each of the card tables. Lemon chiffon cake with a lemon filling and topped with meringue was served with coffee and tea.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Bernard Damon, Mrs. Elmer Berry and Mrs. Herman Winter. The kitchen committee consisted of Mrs. Winn Crist, Mrs. Bob Mahoney, Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine and Mrs. Jim Myers.

Many Enjoy Outdoor Barbecue on Sunday Honoring D. Greenup

Approximately 90 people gathered at the fairgrounds Sunday afternoon to honor Don Greenup, recently named "Father of the Year" winner for Morrow county by the Morrow County Cow-Belles and Livestock Growers association.

Although a bit windy, steaks and hamburgers were cooked in record time at the outdoor "Do-It-Yourself" barbecue by the many young and old cooks, with everyone eating at the tables in the fair annex by 6 p.m.

Dinner was followed by the presenting of a hand stamped belt to the honored guest by Mrs. Ron Currin, CowBelle president, and the presentation of a banner, made by Mrs. Larry Lindsay, to the sponsoring 4-H club. The banner with the name, "Hoof and Horn Livestock Club" will be used by the club at fairs and shows, starting with the Wheat League Show at The Dalles.

Also as part of the program, a film from the Union Pacific Railroad on cattle production and processing from the range to the super-market was shown.

Circus Theme Used At Birthday Party

Three-year-old Barbara Beth Devine and her two-year-old brother, Coleman Joe, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Devine, were honored with a joint birthday party at their home on Tuesday morning.

The toddlers and their little guests enjoyed their cake and ice cream amid decorations carrying out a circus theme. Mrs. Devine served a merry-go-round cake to Mrs. Delbert Piper, Mark and Janette; Mrs. Ralph Marlatt, Steve and Joedy; Mrs. Bernard Damon, John and Mark, and Troy Simmons.

Annual Co-op Picnic Planned for Tuesday

Members of the Lexington Co-op Auxiliary will attend the annual Pendleton Grain Growers Auxiliary picnic at the home of Mrs. Jack Sacerson near Pilot Rock on Tuesday, June 16. It is expected that all auxiliaries in this area will be represented and will combine to put on a display and demonstration of craft arts which they have had as projects through the year.

A potluck picnic will be served at noon, and door prizes will be given.

Mrs. Ewing Hynd, chairman, may be contacted to answer questions members may have in regard to attending the picnic.

Group Entertained At Pinocle Party

Mrs. Jim Devine entertained with a pinocle party in her home last Thursday evening. The score tallies revealed that Mrs. Pat Cutsforth held high score. Mrs. Elmer Berry, second high, and low score went to Mrs. Doyle Key. Mrs. Delmer Buschke won the traveling pinocle prize.

Mrs. Devine served frozen strawberry fluff with coffee and tea to her guests. They were, in addition to those already mentioned, Mrs. Ralph Marlatt, Mrs. Larry Simmons, Mrs. Darrell McLachlan, Mrs. Chuck Phegley, Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, Mrs. Delbert Piper and Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz.

Out-of-town Guests Visit Mrs. Parker

Overnight guests Saturday at the home of Mrs. Loyal R. Parker were Mr. and Mrs. John G. Clouston of Portland. On Sunday they visited with relatives in Athena and Stanfield, and also attended the 50th anniversary reception in Hermiston for Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott. Mrs. Scott is a cousin of Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Clouston.

Other recent visitors at the Parker home were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Heyden, Stanfield; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Devlin, Condon; Mrs. George McDonald and children, Leann and Cameron of Omaha, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. George Hanel of Mt. Hood.

The Wayne Harsin family returned Monday from a week-end trip to Baker and La Grande, where they visited friends and relatives and attended the wedding of Mr. Harsin's nephew, Ron Harsin, and Miss Judy Ramsey, both of La Grande.

Invitation Extended To Furlong Reception

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong will be observed at a public reception at the Episcopal parish hall Sunday, June 14, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Arrangements are being made by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Matthews.

All friends and relatives are invited to come and extend their greetings to the honored couple, who have lived all their married years in this area and will be happy to renew old acquaintances.

Suzanne O'Donnell Has Birthday Party

Suzanne O'Donnell, daughter of Mrs. Ila O'Donnell, was honored on her fourth birthday at a party at her home last Wednesday. Friends and their mothers were present, including Mrs. Colleen Snow, Sheila and Troy; Mrs. Gladys Kamberg and Todd; Tana Berry; Wanda Boyer; Robin Boyer; and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Britt.

Suzanne received some nice gifts and all the children enjoyed her birthday cake, ice cream and punch.

Grandsons Graduate; Mrs. Gertson Attends

Mrs. Clara Gertson attended graduation exercises for two grandsons during the past week. On Thursday, June 4, she was present when her grandson, Michael Anhorn, received his diploma from Crater High school at Central Point.

She was also in Corvallis Sunday when her oldest grandson, William George Anhorn, received his engineering degree from Oregon State University.

Both young men are sons of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. (Irene Beamer) Anhorn of Central Point. The family has two other sons and one daughter.

Member is Honored With Stork Shower

A pink and blue shower in honor of Mrs. James Hilderbrand was held last Wednesday evening at the Methodist church, following a regular monthly meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

A stork hovering over a bassinet, along with an arrangement of pink columbine and pink tapers, decorated the gift table.

Mrs. Mary Bryant and Mrs. Madge Bryant served coffee and cookies to the 17 women present for the occasion.
