Monument News

By MARTHA MATTESON

Verne Wiese was ordained here Sunday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert P. Rogers, Lentine; Rev. Raymond L. Riess, Pilot Rock; Rev. Robert G. Hall, Ukiah; and Elders Cecil Rew, Pilot Rock, and Robert Humphreys of Dayville.

Rev. and Mrs. Wiese and their children have moved to Mt. Vernon as they prepare to travel to Germany in August. They will be away for a year as the reverend will be studying on a scholarship while there. They hope to return to Monument at the end of the year stay in Europe.

The new student pastor, Richard George, is to arrive here soon, it was recently reported. The church has recently taken on a new appearance as new curtains have been hung and the wall behind the platform is bedecked with large red hangers. Also included in the re-decoration are new covers for the pulpit and tables.

The red hangers were donated by Mrs. Maynard Hamilton and the sewing was done by Ethel Leathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harpham will spend the summer in Idaho.

Richard Cox of the Izee Mill, spent the week-end at the ranch with his wife, Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lippert of Mt. Vernon spent Sunday visiting here with their son, Harold, and his family.

Mr. Wayne (Buzzy) Leathers, Jr., is home from Chico State College, Chico, Calif. Returning home with him were his two nieces, daughters of Abe Gates, who plan to spend the summer with their grandparents, Wayne and Ethel Leathers.

Maynard Hamilton spent four days last week at the Bud Engles ranch installing new plumbing.

Mrs. Freda Wheeler of Pendleton, spent a few days visiting friends and relatives here last week.

Red Foster, who recently rented the Slim Owings home, brought his household goods from Alturas, Calif. Another trip to Alturas started Friday as he returned to pick up his family and his office equipment used in connection with the Quarter Horse Association.

Mrs. Harold Lippert and her three sons drove to Cherry Creek Friday to visit with her husband.

John Simas of La Grande is visiting friends and relatives here and in Long Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bieakman made a business trip to Pendleton Thursday.

Mrs. Milton Morgan is in California visiting relatives. She recently was called to the bedside of her brother, who is very ill. Billy Neal left Thursday for the valley to pick up his mother, Mrs. Lewis Neal, who has been visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Bill Neal.

Mr. Willard Croker of Oakland, Calif., is visiting his brother, Jim Croker and his family who reside here.

Ray Davis, Jr., left Sunday for training camp with the Army. Mrs. Linda Roberts and her two daughters, spent the week-end visiting with her mother, Mrs. Gene Vaughn.

The Everett Rust family who moved here in the spring from Tillamook, moved once again Friday to Canyonville, in Douglas County near the coast. Rust is employed with the State Forestry Service.

A lovely baby shower was held Thursday afternoon at the Legion hall honoring Mrs. Elaine (Reynolds) Dulaney. Elaine is the daughter of Stella McCarty. Tables for the affair were covered in pale green and iris, violets, red shamrocks and columbine adorns the setting. Many nice gifts were presented to Elaine's mother as Elaine resides in Armona, Calif. and was unable to attend the party. Hostesses for the shower were: Mrs. Bill Neal, Mrs. Floyd Vaughn and Mrs. Elmer Matteson. Strawberry shortcake, coffee and cool aid were served.

Evie Vaughn had a house guest last week as her mother, Mrs. Zornes of Chelan, Wn. visited.

College Offering Nursing Program

Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, is offering a 12-month nursing educational program designed to prepare qualified persons for careers in practical nursing. The course consists of such subjects as body structure and functions, medical-surgical nursing, nutrition and maternal and child health. The student's clinical experience is received in two of the most modern hospitals in Oregon—St. Anthony's hospital and Pendleton Community Memorial hospital.

To qualify for this course, an applicant must be 17 years of age, a high school graduate or possess a certificate of high school equivalency, and be in good physical and emotional health. Further information may be obtained from the office of Blue Mountain Community college, telephone 276-1260, or by calling Miss Hazel Hale, R. N., instructor at St. Anthony's hospital, 276-5121. Classes will start September 28, 1964.

Application should be made as soon as possible because a limited number of persons are accepted.
