

Kinzua Safety Banquet Scheduled For June 9

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA — The regular meeting of the Camp 5 Women's club was held Tuesday night with Eva DeMeritt as hostess to the group. There were nine members present and the meeting was presided over by the club vice president, Shirley Kyle. The ladies discussed the safety banquet which will be held June 19 at 7 p.m. at the Camp 5 Community hall. All employees of the Eastern Oregon Logging Co. and their wives are invited to attend. The dinner is to be cooked and served by the members of the Women's Club with Ann Bastian as chairman. Stanley Day of Spray will be guest speaker and safety movies will be shown. Barbara Mortimore won the door prize and Jean Medlock, Shirley Kyle, Signe Anderson and Joan Michel won prizes.

Mrs. Ernie Shell had the misfortune to break her right leg Monday evening when she was trying to catch a ball at the softball game. She thought at first it was a severe bruise but when she was taken to Heppner Tuesday morning by Mrs. Arlet Campbell, it was found to be fractured and was put into a cast.

Mrs. Rod Hastings and Steve returned home Monday from several days in Portland with Mr. Hastings. Rod was having therapy treatments at Good Samaritan hospital and if these didn't help, he was to have surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Rhodes and daughter Tammy visited here Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rhodes. Rudy had to return to Fort Campbell, Kentucky, but Mrs. Rhodes and daughter will remain in Portland where Kathy will finish her training at a beauty school.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Allen and son Bob went to Portland Friday evening. The trip was to take their grandson Travis Blank home after a week's visit with them. However, they brought Travis and his father Harvey Blank home with them on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ball and family and Mrs. Bob Reavis spent Saturday in The Dalles on business and shopping.

Mrs. Robert Kelso took her daughter Sharon to The Dalles Sunday to leave by bus for Clatsop, Calif., where she will stay with her sister, Mrs. Jeanne Miller while attending summer school.

Mrs. Louis Lorengel and family and Mrs. Troy Carey left Saturday morning for Albany, Georgia to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Benson Jr. and family. They plan to be gone about a month.

Mrs. Ruth Vreeland and daughter Mary left Monday for Long Scraggy Mountain Ranch at Buffalo Creek, Colo., where Mrs. Vreeland will be a camp nurse on a dude ranch for girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rice and family and Mrs. Don Slinkard were business visitors to Pendleton Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Williams of Spray and her grandsons Rocky and Ricky Williams of Portland were Wednesday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Freeman. When they returned to Spray Thursday, Marcia Freeman returned with them for several days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Taggart and family moved over the week-end to Truckee, Calif., where Mr. Taggart will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Gerard and infant son have gone to Kingston, Idaho where Mrs. Gerard and the baby will visit her mother, Mrs. Ida Harvey while Grayson attends summer school. Mr. Gerard will teach this fall at the Lone Pine school near Prineville.

Doug Carey returned home Thursday having been discharged from the Navy because of a bad back.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Browning went to La Grande over the week-end to bring home their daughters Joan and Linda who had visited there the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bird of Prineville were visiting friends here Monday.

Mrs. Ralph James and son David and Mrs. Frank DeMeritt spent Thursday in Heppner on business and shopping.

Mrs. Walter Bastian and daughter Karen and Glenda Shelton went to Portland Friday to spend several days going some shopping and visiting her other daughters, Billie Jean and Dolores.

Irvin Michel became ill on the job Friday and was taken to the Condon Clinic by ambulance. He was released Saturday and he and Mrs. Michel and the children went to The Dalles on business.

Mrs. Richard Mortimore and Mrs. Robert Park spent Saturday in Pendleton on business and shopping and also visited Mrs. Nona Leathers.

Attending the ball game at Spray Sunday were Eusty Medlock and sons, Randy and Mike, Earl and Ken Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Michels and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kyle and family.

Visiting at the Irvin Michels on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. James Nail of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hawk and family of Prineville moved into Camp 5 during the week-end.

Vie Bowman spent the week-end in Bend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy. He went with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Ostrander of Fossil.

The Ladies golf club had a meeting Thursday night and set up their schedule for June. The ladies will serve a ham dinner next Sunday when the Heppner golf club will meet the local club for a day of tournaments.

Mrs. Vi Slinkard entertained the Friendship Club Wednesday night at her home. High was won by Irene Samples, low by Joan Michel and floating by Carol Norris and Jean Ann Adams. Others playing were Ann Bastian, Barbara Mortimore, Rita Conlee, Rosie Graham, Naomi Rice, Marilyn Bailey, and LaVina Conner.

Mrs. Rusty Medlock and sons, Randy and Mike, Mrs. Carol Norris, and Mrs. Ann Bastian spent Tuesday in Heppner on business. Also in Heppner Tuesday, were Mrs. Marie Hulet and Mrs. Marie Rhoton.

Mrs. Frank Ferrel sustained cuts and bruises Tuesday when the pickup she was driving on the Browns Creek road rolled over. She wasn't hurt badly enough to need hospitalization but was unable to go to Portland to attend the graduation of her great niece Rance Eanton.

The Morgan Connor family moved last Thursday from Heppner to Goldendale, Wn., where he will be Standard Oil distributor. Connor formerly was employed by L. E. Dick, Standard distributor here.

OREGON INAUGURATION of Touch-Tone telephone service will take place in Pendleton in mid-December this year. Pacific Northwest Bell's Janet Jones of Pendleton displays one of the push-button phones which will be introduced gradually throughout the state.

Nazarenes Slate International Meet

Services will not be held at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday because of the International Nazarene Conference to be held in Portland at Memorial Coliseum, June 18-25. This conference is held every four years and it is the most important in church administration. Members from all parts of the world will be present at the conference, according to Rev. J. G. Weller, pastor of the local church. Rev. Weller urges all members to attend the meet.

Boyd At Conference

Pastor E. R. Boyd of the Heppner Seventh-day Adventist church is attending the annual Adventist conference which will continue through June 20 on the grounds of Walla Walla College, College Place, Wn. Speakers to address the ten-day convocation, which began June 10, will include Rev. Edward Terry, representing Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State, and F. R. Millard, Washington, D. C., an associate secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Four from Area Graduate at U of O

Four students of this area received bachelor degrees at the University of Oregon commencement Sunday in Eugene.

They are James Thomas Driscoll, bachelor of arts, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Driscoll of Heppner; Dennis Doyle Doherty, bachelor of science, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doherty of Heppner; Robert Louis Huffman, bachelor of science, son of Mrs. R. S. Huffman of Heppner; and Gary Wayne Brenner, bachelor of science, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner of Ione. Driscoll completed requirements for his degree in mid-year.

The 1964 graduating class, including both undergraduate and graduate students, totaled 1,461 candidates. In addition the University conferred degrees to 318 candidates presented at ceremonies of the University of Oregon Medical, Nursing and Dental schools.

At three commencement convocations held earlier in the academic year, the University conferred 808 degrees, bringing the total for the 1963-64 year to 2,587.

Two on BMC Roll

Two Heppner students are included on the Dean's Honor Roll at Blue Mountain College for the last term, averaging 3.00 or above without a failing grade. They are Archie Ball, 3.21, and Stuart Gribble, 3.16. The roll was released by Walter H. Palmberg, director of admissions.

Dixon Attends Meet

Rev. Melvin Dixon, minister of the First Methodist church in Heppner, attended the Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist church at Willamette University in Salem last week. While at the meet, Rev. Dixon was re-appointed minister of the church in Heppner for the coming year. More than 300 delegates, ministers and laymen from Conference Churches attended the conference.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Nellie Anderson this week are her son-in-law, Willis A. Roller and his son Dick of Los Altos Hills, Cal., and a nephew, Paul Roller, also of Los Altos Hills. While here, they are working on some mountain property. They plan to return to California on Thursday.
