Grange Has Memorial Service, Terminating Meetings Until Fall

The date of Sunday, August 9, was set for the annual picnic for members and families of the Ione Willows Grange. Plans were discussed at the Grange meeting Saturday evening, June 20. It will be held in the Ione City Park.

It was also decided to suspend regular meetings during the harvest months, convening again in September.

Of interest was the report by the insurance agent that members of Willows Grange have received $871.26 as rebate on the 5-year revolving fund. Over the state, a refund of $544,964.10 was realized.

In the memory of Oscar Lundell, it was voted that the Grange will have a drinking fountain placed in the city park, to be dedicated at a later date.

An impressive Memorial ceremony was held during the program, opening with a tableau, "The Old Rugged Cross." Participating were Marilyn Childers kneeling before the cross; Mary Ann Palmer, soloist; Berl Akers, attending the curtains, and Wate Crawford, attending the lights.

In the march, candle bearers were Geneva Palmer, Mabel Ring, Dot Halvorsen and Eulenna Corley. Flower girls were Margaret Akers, Beulah Sherer, Mary Lindsay and Cheryl Corley. Chaplain was Mrs. Wate Crawford.

Miss Evelyn Jepsen, well known Ione girl and a senior student from Christian College at Eugene, was guest speaker. Miss Jepsen gave a comforting and inspiring talk, concluding with an appropriate poem and prayer.

The Home Ec Club picnic was announced for Sunday, June 28, at the mountain home of Mrs. Vida Heliker. The group will leave Ione shortly after church.

Two birthdays were combined with a going-away dinner on Sunday at the Frank Hamlin cabin at Parker's Mill, to honor members of the Jack Bedford family, who will be moving to Portland in the near future.

The birthdays involved were those of Bedford's and his mother's, Mrs. Beatrice Bedford, both celebrating their birthdays on June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson were co-hosts for the informal get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Harris returned last Sunday from a variety filled vacation trip, taken with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill of Coos Bay. Harris caught a Chinook salmon while on a deep sea fishing excursion off the Oregon coast. They traveled from there to Lakeview; to Winnemucca, Nev., and Boise, Ida., where they attended the wedding of their grandson, Renne Harris. On their return trip they stopped in Ontario and enjoyed some thoroughbred horse racing.

Invitation Extended To Coxen Anniversary

The Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen will be observed at a public reception on Sunday, June 28, planned by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoyt, and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Coxen.

The reception will be held at the Civic Recreation Center in Hermiston. Friends and relatives are invited through the press to call between 2 and 5 p.m. The honored couple request there be no gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Coxen were married June 24, 1914, in Heppner, and now live at 706 41st Place, N. E. Salem.

A slate of 14 new officers were seated Friday evening when the American Legion Post 87, held a joint installation of Legion and Auxiliary officers at the Legion hall.

Installing officer for the auxiliary, Mrs. Lois Rogers, District 6, Legion Auxiliary president, from La Grande, installed Mrs. Hubert Wilson as the new president. Others were Mrs. Arnie Hedman, first vice-president; Mrs. Richard (Sib) Wells, second vice-president; Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, secretary; Mrs. Earl Soward, treasurer; Mrs. Glen Ward, historian; and Mrs. Etta Parker, chaplain.

District 6 Commander Frank Reyberg, Pendleton, installed the ensuing year's Legion officers. Seated were Hubert Wilson as commander; Bill Blake, adjutant; Arnie Hedman, first vice-president; Elmer Heath, second vice-president; Don Munkers, finance officer; The Rev. Earl Soward, chaplain, and C. J. D. Bauman, service officer.

A social evening of refreshments, games, sandwiches, snacks and coffee followed the installation ceremonies.

Good Crowd Present For Padberg Reunion

The annual Padberg Reunion picnic, held for several years on Father's Day Sunday at the Ione City Park, was the occasion for about 50 friends and relatives getting together Sunday, June 21.

Although many were direct descendants of the Henry Padberg pioneer family, friends of the relation were also welcomed.

Due to conflicts, many family members were unable to come on Father's Day. Next year the date will be changed to the second Sunday in June.

A bountiful potluck dinner was enjoyed, with a busy afternoon of games and visiting following.

Visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman were Mrs. Bauman's son, his wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holt, Sherry Lee, Doug, Tracy, Jackie and Kimberly. The Hols returned to their home in Drain on Wednesday.

MRS. RENNE HARRIS

Renne Harris Weds Idaho Girl June 13 In Boise Ceremony

In a setting of royal blue and white, Margaret Elizabeth Foote of Boise, Ida., became the bride of Renne L. Harris at a nuptial mass, celebrated Saturday, June 13 in Saint Michael's Cathedral in Boise.

The Rev. and Mrs. Norman L. Foote are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling of Heppner.

The new matron was escorted to the altar on the arm of her brother, Roy Foote, Boise, for the double ring ceremony that was performed by her father. He was assisted by the Very Rev. William Spofford, Dean Robinson, nephew of the groom, served as acolyte.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor-length gown of embroidered white crystal peau de soie. A waist-length veil of silk illusion was held in place with a small pearl accented crown. Her only attendant, Mrs. James Davis of Boise, wore a street-length dress of royal blue peau de soie. Both carried white prayer books; the bride's was graced with a white orchid.

Best man was J. Michael Healy of Portland. Ushers included William Johnson, Jr. and Daniel Spofford, both of Boise; William E. Scelongo of Chicago, and Kingston W. Swayne, brother of the bride's mother, of Rangoon, Burma.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Foote wore an aqua dress of silk shantung, accented with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The groom's mother chose bone and white accessories to go with her blue dress. She wore a corsage of deep coral rosebuds.

Wedding guests were greeted at a reception, held in the Bishop Tuttle House, following the morning ceremony. A lovely three-tiered white wedding cake, decorated with yellow roses, centered the serving table. Pouring at the reception were Mrs. J. Michael Healy, Portland; Mrs. Charles A. Wilson, Helena, Mont.; Mrs. W. L. Fitzsimmons, also of Helena; Miss Jean Fitzsimmons, Boise, and Mrs. Don Hevener, the groom's sister, of Portland.

The newlyweds are graduates of Willamette University and will make their home in Greencastle, Indiana, where the groom is a graduate student in organic chemistry at DePauw University.
