advantage of offsetting "100 defensive editorials" in city newspapers. Outlining the activities of the Portland 8th grade tour, he presented a picture album brochure which tells the story of agriculture which will be presented to the 35 boys and girls who spent the week-end of April 24-26 in Morrow county.

Bernard Doherty, chairman of the Youth Activities committee, reported a successful Junior Livestock show, sponsored by the Oregon Wheat Growers League, at The Dailies recently. He urged that the association favor this activity in teaching the youth of the state the value of wheat as a livestock feed.

Chairman Paul Tewes presided. He called upon Dick Wilkinson, president, Morrow County Livestock Growers association, stating that it is necessary that the wheat growers association work closely with livestock groups. Wilkinson pointed out that the present cattle situation is not good and that foreign imports are not only providing a lot of competition for American grown meat, but are taking away a market for 20 billion pounds of feed grain annually. He further emphasized that beef shipments from Australia during the past few years have increased 32 thousand percent, while New Zealand shipments have increased 16 hundred percent.

Juvenile Cases Involve Eleven

Eleven juveniles are involved in two separate incidents being acted upon in Morrow county juvenile court, County Judge Oscar Peterson states.

Six were in custody following a recent party at Lone. Beer was involved and Buddy Dwain Taylor, an adult, was charged with giving alcohol liquor to persons under 21. He was sentenced to six months in jail when he pleaded guilty in justice court of Oliver Creswick.

One of the six was remanded to the parents and the driver's permit of another was taken from him. The judge assigned the juveniles to a work detail in Lone under the supervision of Police Chief Eldon Tucker and to writing of essays on the subject, "Why are Alcoholic Liquors Prohibited to Juveniles."

Five others are to appear in juvenile court in connection with another incident. They are accused of breaking into Jack Van Winkle's mountain cabin and beer allegedly was involved. Myron Huston was charged with giving alcoholic liquor to persons under 21 years of age in connection with this case and was fined $250 on June 23 after pleading guilty in justice court of Oliver Creswick.

Cancer Crusade Tops 1964 Goal

Morrow county has surpassed its 1964 Cancer Crusade goal, the Rev. Ken Robinson, county chairman, reports.

Goal, set by the Cancer Society, was $300. At the present time, $1,289 has been received, he said.

"A fine job was done by all Crusade volunteers in the April campaign in their house-to-house visits," he said. "It is hoped that the literature given with regard to the Seven Danger signals will help save someone's life."

Condon Invites Public to Attend 4th Celebration

It won't be necessary for Morrow county residents to take to the crowded highways this Fourth of July. There will be a big celebration nearby, safely accessible by highway 206 to Condon.

It is Condon's annual slambang Independence Day celebration, an event so popular more than 3000 visitors attended the Gilliam county seat last year. Condon Commercial club, sponsors of the fiesta, expect an even greater crowd this year.

This year's theme will be "Recreations Unlimited," according to Jerry Schreiner, chairman of the businessmen's committee making arrangements. The idea is to show visitors how much variety there is in the Mid-Columbia area in sports. All organizations entering floats in the big parade on Saturday are asked to use one of the outdoor sports as a theme for decoration. Heppner organizations are cordially invited to enter floats and otherwise take part in the fete, said Schreiner.

A rodeo, sponsored by the Gilliam-Wheeler Bit and Spur Club, will be featured this year. Events will be held at Gilliam county fairgrounds on Saturday and Sunday, July 4-5.

A full day of events has been scheduled for Saturday, the Fourth. It will begin at 7:00 a.m.
