

Many Here Attend Wedding On Sunday

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Miss Judy Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, and Gerald Allen Davidson, both of Ione, exchanged marriage vows at St. Williams Catholic church in Ione Sunday afternoon, June 21, at 4 p.m. A reception at the American Legion hall followed.

Among out of town guests were Mrs. Mattie Morgan of Ashland, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders, Portland, cousins; an aunt, and Mrs. Russel Cox, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cox of Pasco.

Miss Marilyn Morgan and her cousin, Peggy Voorhies, of Portland, arrived at the home of Marilyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, on Saturday for a visit. They accompanied Keith Teck, who visited his family in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell of Milwaukie spent the week-end here with her in-laws, Mrs. C. W. Swanson, and attended the wedding of her niece, Miss Judy Morgan.

He Is Injured In Accident

Lee Hams, who has been here on a 30-day leave, was critically injured Sunday afternoon in a one-car accident near the Marion Palmer place on Willow Creek highway and is in Pioneer Memorial hospital at Heppner. He is stationed on the USS Hornet and had just returned from a Far East cruise. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin returned Sunday evening from Corvallis. They took their daughter Jean there to begin her term at summer school. In the fall Jean will go to Newport to do practice teaching as part of her training. The Martins attended a wedding in Eugene and visited their son Ralph in West Linn. In Portland they called on Mrs. Walter B. Crossell at Emanuel hospital where she had undergone surgery.

Charles Kirk, who has been a patient at the hospital in Heppner, returned to his home here the first of the week.

The Olden family held its annual reunion at Emigrant Park last Sunday with 52 members of the family present. Some of the family went to the park Saturday night, camped out overnight and others joined them on Sunday. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McCabe, Doris and Christine, Mr. and Mrs. George Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snider and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Pettyjohn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leland McKinney and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingals of Adams, Darrel Place of Milton-Freewater, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson and family of Alce, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Henderson and family of Summerville, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe and family of Colfax, Wn., Mrs. Alice McCabe and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCabe and family of Heppner.

Melvin Melena is on a business trip to Pullman, Wn. and Baker.

Mrs. Bert Mason, Sr., has been a guest at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom and family. She arrived Monday afternoon on a return trip from Spokane. She drove on to her home in Portland on Wednesday.

Walter Jacobs, accompanied by Roy W. Lindstrom, Kenneth Turner and Harvey E. Miller, Jr., of Lexington, spent Thursday at Pendleton, where they enjoyed going on the Field Day at the John Storie ranch. Mr. Storie was winner of the Soil Conservation Man of the Year title and the tour was sponsored by the Oregon Wheat League. Misses Michelle and Merrie Jo Morrison left on Monday for San Francisco and nearby areas to visit relatives and friends for about three weeks.

Gary Brenner, who received a bachelor of science degree from the University of Oregon last week, is here to spend the summer at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner.

Masonic Lodge No. 120 AF&AM observed St. John's Day Sunday by attending the United Church of Christ in a group. Following church, Masons, Eastern Star members and their families enjoyed a potluck dinner and fresh strawberries and ice cream desserts.

Karen and Keith Nelson, Deniece and Berniece Matthews, Susan Lindstrom, Arleta McCabe, and Tim Tullis arrived home on Saturday from the 49th annual 4-H summer school at Corvallis. Cheryl Smouse, who also went, spent Saturday night at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Richard Baker, and on Sunday went back to the Oregon State University campus to attend Grand Assembly of Rainbow for Girls.

Shower Honors Mrs. Pertschy
Mrs. George Pertschy and small son Brent of Pilot Rock were honored at a shower given at the Grange hall on Thursday afternoon. Miss Linda Heimbigger and Mrs. Pat Hammond of Hermiston assisted Mrs. Pertschy, who is the former Brenda Kay Townsend, with her gifts. Her sister, Sue Townsend, also assisted about the rooms. Delicious chicken salad, crackers, and coffee were served to the guests by the hostesses, Mrs. Ray Heimbigger, Mrs. Delbert Emert, Mrs. Berl Akers, Mrs. Van Hubbard and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen.

Mrs. Adon Hamlett and children left on Friday for their home in Fruitland, Idaho, after a ten-day visit here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson, and other relatives.

Becky Eubanks has been spending this week visiting her mother, Mrs. Bonnie Eubanks and family in Portland.

Mrs. Doris Gollyhorn is recuperating at her home after surgery on her throat. Although getting along satisfactorily, it will be a while before she can return to work at Hick's Market.

Linda Heimbigger left on Friday for Eugene, where she will enroll in a summer course at the University of Oregon.

Girls at Grand Assembly
Several members of Ione Assembly No. 89, Rainbow for Girls, left on Sunday morning for Corvallis, where they will attend Grand Assembly on the OSU campus Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, accompanied the following girls: Karen Hams, worthy advisor; Susan Lindstrom, Bonnie Hynd, Mary Nichols, Elaine Gaarsland, Sue Townsend, Judy Eubanks, Cheryl Corley, Shirley Hicks, and Shirley Irwin of Heppner. Cheryln Smouse and Mrs. Omar Rietmann will also attend.

Debbie and Cindy Barnett of The Dalles are here visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett, and their father, David Barnett. Debbie left on Sunday to return home, but her sister remained for a while.

Mrs. Tom White and children have been vacationing in Central Oregon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Moe of Portland. They ended the trip with a visit in Portland and then came to Ione on Saturday with Mrs. Gordon White, who spent the week-end visiting here.

Harrymans Leave for South
Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harryman

Salem (Capitol Bldg.) — Governor Mark O. Hatfield receives a friendly warning from Smokey Bear to urge all citizens to use extreme care with matches, cigarettes, debris and camp fires.

4-H Camp Set At Herrin Creek

Four days of "roughing" it are scheduled for Morrow county's 4-H Summer Camp. The annual camping outing is to be held at Herrin Creek Park from June 28 through July 1.

The camp is for 4-H'ers between the ages of 9 and 13. Between 50 and 60 young people from all areas of Morrow county will be attending. An important aspect of camp is the opportunity provided those attending to get to know and work with 4-H'ers from other parts of the county.

Campers will assemble at the Heppner fair grounds at 2:00 p.m. Sunday where they will be transported to camp by trucks. Campers will also return to Heppner on Wednesday afternoon by truck. They will arrive at Heppner between 2:00 and 2:30 p.m.

Educational activities will include sessions on plant life, outdoor skills, wildlife and forestry. Available to the campers for recreation will be volleyball, badminton, soft ball, tether ball, box hockey, four-square, crafts, fishing and hiking. Evening campfires, and of course, KP duties will add to the campers full daily schedule.

Older 4-H members from Morrow county will be acting as counselors and staff members. Those participating are: Jean Stockard, Joan Stockard, Arleta McCabe, Barbara Bloodsworth, Shirley Jackson, Cheryllyn Smouse, Sheridan Wyma, Maureen Doherty, Martha Doherty, Tony Doherty, Tim Tullis and Dale Van Blokland.

Local persons assisting with the summer camp will be Mrs. Larry Cook, Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Mrs. Keithley Blake and David Anderson.

Representing various State agencies and attending camp will be: Ray Williamson, U.S. and family left with their household goods on Sunday for Amarilla, Tex. After taking care of business in Texas, they were going to Fairview, Okla., to visit relatives this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner drove to Portland on Friday and returned on Saturday, bringing Mrs. Brenner's mother, Mrs. Vela Eubanks home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom and family went to Portland on Friday. Donna and Darle Rea, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, went back to their home in Portland with them. Mrs. Lindstrom planned to attend the 10th reunion of her high school graduating class.

Gary Morgan returned last Tuesday from Portland, where he visited his sister, Miss Marilyn Morgan, and attended the Rose Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and Jim left on Friday afternoon for Kelona, B. C. They were to be joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt, cousins of Mr. Swanson's, for a trip to Saskatchewan, the former home of Mrs. Swanson.

Mrs. Gottfried Hermann entertained some friends on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Cecil Thorne on her birthday. Mrs. Thorne recently moved to Hermiston and is enjoying her new home very much.

Returning from Beaver Boys' State at Corvallis on Saturday were Joe Halvorsen, vice-president of the Ione student body next year and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, and Robert Emert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phill Emert.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell drove to Salem last Monday, taking their daughter, Cheryl Lundell and Connie Christopherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, Jr., to Girl's State, which is held on the Willamette University campus. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson brought the girls home this Sunday.

Game Commission; Carl McDaniel, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service; and Martin Zimmerman, Cooperative Extension Service.

Camp directors for this year's 4-H Summer Camp will be N. C. Anderson, Morrow county agent, and Mrs. Frank Dyer, acting Morrow county extension agent.

RUBBER STAMPS made to order, also STAMPING PADS in black, red or green. For business or personal use. Orders filled promptly at the Gazette-Times office.

Grange, Lodge Plan Activities

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Mrs. George Hermann and Mrs. Roger Campbell were hostesses last week to a lovely cradle shower honoring Mrs. William P. Klinger at the IOOF hall. Games were played and after the honoree opened her many gifts, refreshments were served to the 35 guests attending.

Lee Colly of Casa Grande, Ariz., is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colly. Bayless and Linda Colly will return to their home with their father after visiting several weeks with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and son are visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Bertha Hunt. Donald is going to teach in Beaverton this coming year. They have been living in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and son Kenneth were Sunday visitors at the George Irvin home in Rufus.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Jones of Portland visited several days last week at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Mrs. Alonzo Henderson and daughter Betty visited over the week-end with her son Larry Henderson, in Hood River.

Grange Schedules Picnic
HEC of the Lexington Grange met at the home of Mrs. Norman Nelson last Thursday afternoon. Plans were discussed concerning a Grange picnic and the date of July 19 was set, with the Wright Park to be the place. Cards were sent to the sick members and friends. Following the meeting, refreshments were served to Mrs. Armin Whilon, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Fred Nelson, Mrs. Ola Ruggles, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mrs. Nora Turner and the hostess, Mrs. Norman Nelson. The next meeting is a social meeting planned for the C. C. Jones home.

Lodge Plans Sidewalk Booth
Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday night at the hall for their regular meeting with Noble Grande Edna Fetsch in the chair. The ladies expressed their appreciation and approval of the linoleum on the floor recently laid by the Odd Fellows and the painting of the stations by Sister, Mrs. Ed Hunt. An appreciation gift was given the out-going District Deputy, Altha Kirk of Heppner San Souci Lodge. Mrs. Kirk makes her home in Hermiston. She was accompanied to Lexington by Mrs. Earl Eskelson of Hermiston. Following the regular meeting a special meeting was held of the Three Links club. At this time, plans for the booth at the Merchant's Day in Heppner were discussed and Mrs. Frank Robinson was appointed chairman. It was announced that club will meet at the C. C. Jones home instead of the Robinson home in July and at Robinson's home in August. Refreshments were served both the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in the dining room.

The cafeteria and strawberry supper and card party scheduled for Saturday night at the IOOF hall was well attended. This was the last meeting on Thursday night and the last social until lodge meets again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Van Winkle left on Tuesday for Eugene where they will attend the funeral services of a brother, George Van Winkle, who has been in a nursing home there for some time. He was 90 years old at the time of his death.

Keith Peck of Portland visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peck, over the week-end.

Mrs. Armin Whilon left for Redmond on Monday, where she will be employed for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth and children and Joyce Peck were the Dalles visitors over the week-end where Mrs. Cutsforth attended a class reunion of her graduating class and visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Denslinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colly and grandchildren visited at Hat Rock on Sunday.

A. F. Majeske, who has been a patient in the Community hospital in Pendleton has returned to his home. Mrs. Jack Mounts and Mrs. Harvey Wright returned to their homes on Friday after spending some time in Lexington to be near their father.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunt spent the week-end in Spokane.

Women's Fellowship group of the church will meet at the William C. Van Winkle home Tuesday, June 30, instead of this Tuesday, as they were called away to a funeral.

Lexington folk are reminded of the Church picnic planned for next Sunday following church, at the Ione City Park. All members and friends are cordially invited. A potluck dinner is planned for 1 p.m., with an afternoon of games and swimming.

Dalzell's Attend Grange Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dalzell of Ione attended the Oregon State Grange convention in Eugene from June 14 to 19. They were the only ones present from Morrow county.

On the trip they visited Mrs. Dalzell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tress McClintock, formerly of Heppner, at Monmouth, and also visited a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crawford, and family in Portland. Returning with them were two of their grandchildren, Tommy and Terry Crawford.

I WILL PAY YOU $1.50 EA.

FOR THE FOLLOWING U.S. COINS IN VERY GOOD OR BETTER CONDITION

Pennies	Nickels	Dimes	Quarters	Half Dollars
1908S 1915S	1913S	1916D	1916 (standing)	1916 (standing)
1909S 1922D	1913D	1921D	1919S	1921S
1910S 1922	1914D	1921	1919D	1921D
1911S 1924D	1921S	Mercury	1921	1938D
1912S 1926S	1928S	Only	1923S
1913S 1931S	1938S		1932S
1914D 1931D	1939D		1932D
1914S 1933D	1950D

KEEP THIS AD — Many other coins wanted

"Oregon Mint" P. O. Box 422, Ione, Ore.

IONE LEGION PRESENTS

FIREWORKS

Ione Memorial Field
9:00 p. m.

DANCE

IONE LEGION HALL
10 a. m. to 1 a. m.

Adm. — $1 Per Person
Supper Served

JULY 3

IONE, OREGON

This Ad Sponsored By:

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OREGON

HEPPNER BRANCH

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OREGON, PORTLAND • MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

WE'LL DELIVER THIS SUMMER'S

SUN-LIKE WARMTH TO YOU ...

NEXT WINTER

Completely automatic, your electric heating system brings you warmth, next in comfort only to Nature's own Sun.

It's clean and safe. No fumes, dust, drafts ... nothing to burn or explode. Nothing to store. You are served dependably ... day and night, workdays, weekends and holidays the year around.

No storage tanks or bins to get empty for you get your heat by wire, not by truck.

Best of all, installation and upkeep costs of electric heating are far lower than for any other type of heating system.

Our engineer will plan the ideal heating system for your home FREE ... and then estimate what your annual heating costs will be.

So come in or call today.

Columbia Basin Electric Co-op

Serving Morrow, Wheeler and Gilliam Counties