

Scotts Observe Golden Anniversary At Hermiston Reception

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Oral M. Scott was observed with a public reception in Hermiston on Sunday, June 7. About 250 guests called during the afternoon to extend congratulations to the native Morrow county couple, who had spent most of their lives near Heppner. Hosts for the observance were Mrs. M. N. Kirk, Mrs. Earl Eskelson and the Columbia Grange ladies.

In the receiving line with the Scotts were their attendants of their 1914 wedding in Heppner, Altha (Devin) Kirk and Ralph Scott, cousin of Mr. Scott. The couple lived in the Blackhorse area for many years where they owned and operated a wheat ranch near the old Blackhorse school house. For the past 15 years, the Scotts have lived in Hermiston.

Table and other decorations carried out the traditional gold and white color scheme. The tiered anniversary cake centered the serving table, on which a golden service set, golden condiments holding white candles and gold and white floral arrangements were effectively used. After the honored couple cut the first piece, the cake was served by Mrs. Don Robinson, Heppner, niece of Mrs. Scott, and Mrs. A. W. McCoy, Hood River, cousin of Mr. Scott. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Melvin Acton, Hermiston, cousin of Mr. Scott, and Mrs. Austin Smith, Portland, niece of Mrs. Scott.

Presiding at the tea service were Mrs. Ralph Scott, Lexington, and Mrs. Ellis Wyland of Pendleton. Serving punch was Mrs. Elmer Tiptley of Condon, cousin of Mr. Scott, and Mrs. Edward Paydell of Nyssa, niece of Mrs. Scott.

A gold jewel decorated guest book was passed by Mrs. Broun, niece of Mrs. Scott, and Mrs. Arnold Pieper, a cousin of Mr. Scott. The many relatives present were pinned with gold colored bells and ribbon.

A card tray held many cards of good wishes and congratulations, and gifts were received and opened by Mrs. R. W. Scheckler and her daughter, Margaret, of Richland, Wn., nieces of Mrs. Scott. A special gift was presented from the Columbia Grange in recognition of their many active years in grange work there and in the Lexington Grange, where Mr. Scott served two years as Master while the present Grange hall was being built and paid for.

John Harmon of Hermiston sang two numbers, "Always" and "Yesteryears", accompanied by Mrs. Harmon. Mrs. Kirk introduced the relatives present, among whom were Mrs. Scott's sisters, Mrs. J. C. (Vella) Walton of Yakima, Wn.; Mrs. Letha Archer of Heppner; Mrs. M. N. (Altha) Kirk of Hermiston, and Mrs. Dessa Hofstetter of Monmouth.

June 7 was also the 16th birthday of Jacklyn Broun of Pendleton, a grand niece of Mrs. Scott. She was surprised with several birthday cakes which were also served at this time. Miss Broun is Queen of the Umatilla Sage Rider's Rodeo Court and her princesses honored her with a skit, as they presented a gift to their Queen.

Other relatives and friends attending from the Heppner and Lexington area were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson, Kirk, Kyle and Kryn, Mrs. Leatha Archer, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith; Mrs. Loyal Parker, her brother-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. John Clouston of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Heyden of Stanfield; Mrs. Austin Devin; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scott; Mrs. Arnold Pieper; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel and daughter Cassie and her friend, Bonnie Kessel; Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom; Carolyn Bergstrom; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans; Mr. and Mrs. William Van Winkle; Mrs. Elva Ruhl; Mrs. Annie Keene, and Miss Teresa Wright.
