

Couple Repeats June Wedding Vows At Nuptial Mass in Eugene Church

MR. AND MRS. JOHN W. BROSNAN

St. Mary's Catholic church, Eugene, was the scene of a pretty summer wedding Saturday, June 20, that united in marriage, Miss Charlotte A. Schnorenberg daughter of Mrs. Henry Schnorenberg of Eugene, and John W. Brosnan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brosnan of Heppner.

Vows of the double ring ceremony were exchanged at an 11:00 a. m. nuptial high mass. Decorating the altar were standards holding yellow and white gladioli and ivy. Celebrant was the Msgr. E. J. Murnane of St. Mary's church.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Charles A. Schnorenberg of Roseburg, the bride wore a full-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta. It was fashioned with scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves edged in bands of Venice lace, fitted bodice, bell-shaped skirt with overskirt of organza in redingote style which extended into a chapel length train, edged in matching Venice lace. Her veil of silk illusion net was held by a cap of silk and lace petals, trimmed in pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of rosebuds, white stephanotis, and ivy.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Sharon Falleur of Warrenton. Her street-length gown was of pastel green nylon organza over taffeta, styled with fitted bodice, elbow length sleeves and bell-shaped skirt, with self-material rose and sash accenting the back. She wore a matching headdress of nylon net and carried a cascade bouquet of feathered yellow carnations and ivy.

Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Bohman of Hermiston; Mrs. Ron Ricketts of Astoria, and Mrs. Richard Robison, Heppner, sister of the groom. They wore street-length dresses of pastel yellow, made in matching style with the maid of honor, and carried cascade bouquets of feathered white carnations with ivy.

Altar boys were John Hoffstead and John Hubert. Serving as best man was Richard Robison, brother-in-law of the groom, of Heppner. Ushers were Ron Curran, Heppner, cousin of the groom; Donald Johnson, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride; and Jay Parker of Portland.

Nuptial high mass music was sung by St. Mary's choir, directed by Dale Cooley, with Mrs. Cooley at the organ.

The couple greeted their guests at a wedding reception in the King Cole Room at the Eugene Hotel. The yellow and white wedding colors were carried out in decorations, and the wedding cake, which centered the bride's table, was encircled with yellow rosebuds and ivy.

Cutting and serving cake were Mrs. Charles Schnorenberg, Roseburg, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Victor Laine, Portland, aunt of the bride. Pouring coffee were Mrs. William Potter and Mrs. William Johnson, both of Eugene, and aunts of the bride. Serving punch were Miss Liz O'Brien of Salem and Miss Jeannie O'Neill of Portland. In charge of gifts were Miss Karen Tate, Eugene, and Miss Sherron Laine, Portland, cousin of the bride. Passing the guest book was Mrs. John E. Bloomquist, Eugene. Official hostesses were Mrs. William Schnorenberg, Eugene, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Joseph Tate, Eugene.

Following the reception, a buffet luncheon for relatives, close friends and out-of-town guests was served at the home of the bride's mother in Eugene.

For going-away, the new matron wore a blue and white dress with white coat, hat and accessories. Following her college tradition, the bride took her bouquet to Maryhurst College Chapel, Portland, where she had been a student, and left it at
