The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta, with bell-shaped skirt, chapel train and long sleeves. The bodice of lace and net was decorated with seed pearls. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a cluster of pearls and crystals and she carried a bridal bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.

Ceradine Morgan was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a street-length dress of deep azalea pink over taffeta, fashioned with bell skirt, and she carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Bonnie Morgan, sister of the bride, and Mrs. William Gelinus of Portland. They wore dresses identical to the maid of honor in cherry pink and also carried nosegays. All the attendants wore short matching veils and each wore a crystal necklace, which were gifts from the bride.

Candlelighters were Michael Davidson, brother of the groom, and Ricky Johnston, Heppner, cousin of the groom, who also served as altar boys.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Morgan wore a blue lace sheath dress and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Wilson chose a navy blue dress with short jacket and also wore an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the American Legion hall. Lovely baskets of early summer flowers were placed about the

After the couple cut the traditional first slice, the cake was served by Mrs. James Johnston, Heppner, and Mrs. James Samate, Umatilla, both aunts of the groom; and Mrs. Cleo Drake and Mrs. John Eubanks, both aunts of the bride. Pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. E. R. Lundell and Mrs. Mattie Morgan, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. Mabel Davidson and Mrs. Mary Johnston of Heppner, grandmothers of the groom. Also assisting was Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., aunt of the bride.

Attending the gift table were Mrs. Wayne Hams and Mrs.

Francis Rea of Heppner. Miss Linda Hams, Umatilla, was in charge of the guest book. Kimmer Lee Pettyjohn, lone, and Sharon Sanders, Portland, small cousins of the bride, passed the rice bags and groom's cake.
