Officers Installed To Serve 50th Year For Locust Chapter

IONE — Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halverson were seated as Worthy Matron and Patron of Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star, at installation ceremonies on Tuesday evening, July 14 at the Masonic hall.

Installing officer was Mrs. E. M. Baker, past matron, assisted by Mrs. E. R. Schaffer as installing marshal. Mrs. E. R. Lundell as installing chaplain, and Mrs. Cleo Drake as installing organist.

Other officers elected and appointed to serve in this the 50th year of Locust Chapter are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, associate patron and matron respectively; Mrs. Omar Rietmann, secretary; Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, treasurer; Mrs. James Lindsay, conductress; and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Sr., associate conductress. Mrs. Walter Jacobs is marshal; Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, chaplain; and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, organist. The five star points serving are: Adah, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne; Ruth, Mrs. John Proudfoot; Esther, Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom Jr.; Martha, Mrs. Eulena Corley; and Electa, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse. Warden and sentinel are Mrs. Millard Nolan and Herbert Ekstrom, Sr., and Bible bearer is Mrs. Ida Esteb.

Teresa Tucker was soloist, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Drake. She sang, "Wishing on a Star" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Mrs. Halverson chose the sheath of wheat as her symbol for the year and green and gold as her colors. Her watchwords are pride, faith, and luck. The dining room and tea table were tastefully decorated in green and gold. The tea table was centered with a lovely cake decorated with the Eastern Star emblem. Pouring were Mrs. Schaffer and Mrs. Baker.

Honored guests present were Mrs. J. R. Huffman, member of the appeals and grievances committee of Grand Chapter, Mrs. Lindstrom, member of the Credentials Committee, and Mrs. Charles Stout, Worthy Matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Heppner.

Little League Picnic Follows Condon Game

The Willow Creek Little League All Stars, along with their parents, brothers and sisters, enjoyed a potluck style picnic on the courthouse lawn Sunday, following the afternoon baseball game with Condon.

Family Gathering Welcomes Visitors

Visits in Heppner of out-of-town relatives was the occasion for a reunion of the McDaniel descendants on Sunday, July 12, at the courthouse park. The family picnic reunion was attended by about 70 persons.

Welcomed by those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henry, son Hank and 7-month-old daughter, Joyce, who had spent the preceding week here visiting Mrs. Henry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Hastings. They returned last Wednesday to their home in Port Lavaca, Tex., after their first visit here in four years.

Mrs. Nelson Queen Over 65th Pioneer Association Picnic

KINZUA—The 65th annual picnic of the Eastern Oregon Pioneer Association was held Sunday, July 19, at the Julia A. Henderson Pioneer Park, south of Shelton Park in Wheeler county.

Chosen queen for this year was Mrs. Lola Nelson, 76, of Fossil. Mrs. Nelson, or better known by all as Lola, came to this part of the country in 1910 settling at Mayville. She is well known as a marvelous cook and her restaurant, known as Lola's Cafe in Fossil, keeps her busy as she still does the cooking and operates the restaurant.

Mrs. Nelson has four children, Mrs. Grace Bowers of Portland, Mrs. Mary Miller of Fossil, Charles Butler of Portland and Earl Butler of Mayville. There are numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

This pioneer group was organized in 1899 with W. H. Wheeler of Mitchell as its first president. The purpose of the group is to help preserve the pioneer history of this area. Officers of the association are Earl Butler, president; Ferner E. Plank, vice president; and Milo Prindle, secretary-treasurer.

Friends are Invited To Observe Birthday

Dale Munkers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Munkers, invited several friends to his home recently to help him celebrate his eighth birthday by enjoying an afternoon of games and refreshments.

On hand for the occasion were Cyde Marie and David Alistott, Doren and Donna Flack, Kenon Scrivner, Johnny Healy, Debbie Hamilton and Kay Munkers.

Bleakman Reunion Set

A reunion outing of the Pioneer Bleakman family has been announced for Sunday afternoon, July 26, at Bull Prairie reservoir park. A potluck picnic will be served at 12:30 p.m. with recreation and visiting following. All relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend.

Friends Compliment Miss Morgan Saturday With Bridal Shower

IONE — Miss Marilyn Morgan was honored at a lovely bridal shower in the social rooms of the United Church of Christ on Saturday afternoon, July 18. Assisting Marilyn with the many gifts were Arleta McCabe and Judy Merchant of Portland. Cheryl Lundell made nosegays of the bows and ribbons from the packages.

Blue and white, the colors Marilyn has chosen for her wedding to Keith Peck on August 8 at the United Church of Christ, were used by the hostesses to decorate the room.

The tea table was covered with a blue cloth covered with white tulle and was centered with a beautiful arrangement of white gladioli and blue delphinium.

Pouring coffee was Mrs. Milton Morgan, Marilyn's mother, and Mrs. W. C. Crawford, her grandmother. Serving the cake were her aunts, Mrs. Tad Miller of Lexington and Mrs. John Voorhees of Portland, and Miss Peggy Voorhees of Portland poured punch. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mrs. Earl McCabe, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, Mrs. E. W. Bristow, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Ray Heimburger, Mrs. Paul Pettijohn, Sr., Mrs. Fred Nelson, Mrs. Med Morgan, Mrs. Jodie K. Morrison, and Mrs. Roy Martin.

Out of town guests here for the shower were Mrs. Vernon Crawford and Mrs. Arthur Crawford of Helix, Mrs. Butch Eatch, Mrs. Voorhees and daughter Peggy of Portland, Mrs. Delmer Crawford and daughters of Hermiston, and several from Lexington.

Summer Activities Planned at Monthly Honor Degree Meet

Several items of business were discussed at the Degree of Honor Protective Association meeting Tuesday, July 14, at the Degree of Honor hall, with Mrs. Lucille Parrish presiding.

Presentations were made by Mrs. Ron Haguewood to Mrs. Parrish and Mrs. C. R. McDowell for first and second awards of achievement, and memorizing ritualistic charges. Reports were heard on the recent potluck and barbecue at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant, with everyone reporting lots to eat except Bill Farra, who was called away on fire duty at mealtime.

Mrs. Carl King reported on the supper served at the Fair and Rodeo Kick-off dance. Another will be served Saturday, July 25, for the princess dance, with Mrs. Lincoln Nash as chairman. The resignation of Mrs. Don Townsend as assistant usher was read, as her family is moving to Spray. Mrs. Robert Riddle will fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Barbara Ware of Corvallis, who is making an extended visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. King, was a guest. Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, state director, was also present.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Bryant.

The annual family summer picnic and barbecue is planned for August 11 at the lodge hall with all members, their families and friends urged to be present.

Open House to Honor Mrs. Bartholomew On 90th Anniversary

In honor of the 90th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Phebe Bartholomew, native resident of the Butter Creek area, family members are arranging an open house at the Jasper Myers ranch, Butter Creek, on Sunday afternoon, August 2.

Friends are asked to come and extend their greetings to Mrs. Bartholomew between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m., and that no gifts be brought.

Mrs. Bartholomew, the former Phebe Thomson, was born and raised on the ranch home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Thomson, who settled on a homestead on Butter Creek in September, 1863. She has led a very active life and continues to be in excellent health, endeavoring herself through the years to many friends in Morrow county.

Planning to be present and helping her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers, with the open house are two other daughters, Mrs. Truman Sether, Seattle, and Mrs. Marion Finch, Hermiston; and one son, O. F. Bartholomew, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Kinzua Little League Wins Championship

KINZUA — The Kinzua Little League baseball team captured the Gilliam-Wheeler league championship with a 22-2 shellacking of Condon in the final game played at Condon on Saturday, July 18. Kinzua broke a 2-2 tie game wide open in the fourth inning with a barrage of base hits featuring home runs by Bonnie Bowman, Mike Craig and Mike O'Brien which helped account for a 19 run outburst. Condon threatened for a short rally in the same inning, loading the bases with one out but an alert double play by the Kinzua infield choked the threat and set them down with no score.

Left-hander, Donnie Bird, went all the way on the mound for Kinzua, keeping the Condon hitters well controlled and the base hits scattered. In an abbreviated game the Kinzua "Pee-Wees" downed the Condon "Pee-Wees" by a score of 9-1.

In a Little League contest played at Kinzua last Thursday evening the local team downed the Arlington Little Leaguers by a score of 8-3. The Kinzua hitters lost no time in scoring, by jumping onto the Arlington pitcher for five runs in the first inning, featured by a two run, long homer by Mike Craig. Curt Robinson was the winning pitcher for Kinzua with Cimmiotti suffering the Arlington loss.

Weatherford Girl To Take Boat Trip

Karla Weatherford, 11-year-old daughter of Bill Weatherford, has been anxiously awaiting the time when she was to leave on a boat trip to Alaska. She had been invited to accompany some close friends of the Weatherford family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bitzer of Marshfield, Wis., on the boat excursion, traveling round trip by inland water route to southern ports of Alaska.

Weatherford will take his daughter to Seattle this week where she will meet the Bitzers and they will board the excursion boat for a week's trip north.
