Couple Makes Home In Salem After Marriage

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Ann Van Schoelack to Stephen Douglas Fenton was solemnized at a pretty nuptial mass ceremony Saturday, June 20, at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Heppner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Van Schoelack, Heppner, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Agnes Fenton and Willis Fenton, both of Salem.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Father Raymond Beard before an altar decorated with white roses and blue carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace, fashioned by her mother. The shoulder length veil of illusion net fell from a head-dress of pearls, all designed by the bride and a gift to her as winner in a national designing contest. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and carnations, made by her mother, and backed by a lace handkerchief given her by her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Barclay.

Maid of honor was Miss Emilie West of Government Camp. Attending as bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Van Schoelack, sister-in-law of the bride of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Tom Kirk of Dallas, and Miss Julie Pfeiffer, Heppner. The attendants were all gowned in simple basic sheath dresses of blue taffeta with blue chiffon overskirts, matching shoes, and carried bouquets of blue carnations and white roses made by the bride's mother.

Serving as best man was William E. Fry of Salem. Ushers were Michael Van Schoelack, brother of the bride; Stanley Fenton, brother of the groom, and Don Faulhauber. Organist was Miss Marguerite Glavey, who also accompanied Mrs. Harry O'Donnell and Mrs. Bob Brindle when they sang.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Van Schoelack wore a pink lace sheath dress with matching jacket and a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Fenton, mother of the groom, chose a beige knit suit, with a red rosebud corsage.

The couple was greeted at a reception in the parish hall. Their blue and white wedding colors were carried out in reception decorations of blue carnations and white roses. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table. Serving were Mrs. F. M. Tangen, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Merritt Gray. Pouring were Mrs. Joe Bricker, Eugene, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Ray Smith.

Attending the guest book was Susan Wilcox and in charge of the gift table was Miss Doris Miller, Portland.

For going away, the bride's ensemble was a street dress of deep pink, with matching jacket and a pink rosebud corsage.

The newlyweds are now at home in Salem, where the groom is employed for the summer. The couple will return to college at Oregon State University in the fall, where Mr. Fenton will be a senior in business administration, and Mrs. Fenton, a graduate of Heppner High school in 1962, will begin her junior year in home economics.

Couple Makes Home In Dexter Following Rites in Mill City

Wedding vows of Miss Carol Ann Stevens and Robert Eugene Gray, Dexter, were exchanged on Saturday afternoon, June 13, at the Presbyterian church in Mill City. Rev. Richard Cole performed the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stevens, Gates, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eugene Gray, Herrington, and brother of Mrs. L. E. Ruhl, Lexington.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length white brocade gown with a full circular skirt ending in a chapel train, fitted bodice and jacket fashioned with a high rounded neckline and long sleeves. A white nylon petal crown trimmed with pearls held her waist length illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Linda Duffy, Mill City, was maid of honor and wore a shell pink taffeta dress with rounded neckline and full skirt. She carried a single long-stemmed blue carnation tied with blue ribbon. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Dale Walczak and Mrs. Alene Tucker, sisters of the bride, wore similar dresses of light blue and carried pink carnations.

Cindie Tucker, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Craig Stevens, brother of the bride. Otto (Skip) Ruhl, nephew of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Dale Walczak, Mill City, and Arnold Dennis, Gates.

A reception followed in the church parlor. The young couple will make their home in Dexter.

Soroptimists Meet At Home of Member For Club Luncheon

Mrs. W. J. (Leta) Thomas entertained members of the Soroptimist Club at a luncheon meeting last Thursday noon at her Court street home. Assisting with the serving of the buffet was Mrs. Fred Parrish. The social gathering was enjoyed by the 17 members attending. Birthday greetings were extended two members, Mrs. Harold Laird and Mrs. Thomas, and cake prepared by the courtesy chairman, Mrs. Ed Gonty, was served in their honor.

At the July 16 luncheon meeting, Ruby Ann Fullerton was a special guest. She expressed appreciation to the club for giving her the opportunity, through a 4-H scholarship, to attend the annual 4-H Summer School in June on the OSU campus in Corvallis. She recalled experiences of interest through the week's session of classes and shared pictures, programs and other mementos which she brought home with her from the school. Ruby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roice Fullerton, represented a 4-H horse club at the summer school, and is looking forward for another opportunity to attend again at some time during her next four years of high school.

The club is making plans to entertain the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court and their mothers at a luncheon meeting Thursday, August 20. During the business meeting, appreciation was given those who contributed their time in the selling of sno-cones during the sidewalk bazaar. Some discussion was held on ideas for this year's parade float, with Mrs. Thomas serving as chairman.

Mrs. Leonnig Honored At Pink, Blue Party

Mrs. Ronald Leonnig was honored Monday evening with a pink and blue shower given by Mrs. Matt Hughes, Mrs. Herb Hamilton and Mrs. Sammy Johnston at the Hughes home. A lovely arrangement of gladioli, baby breath and sweet peas in colors of pink and blue were centered on the serving table. Guests were served a Jell-O salad with crackers, punch and coffee.

Mrs. Leonnig received many lovely gifts and was assisted at the gift table by her daughter, Mrs. Francis Rea. Also present to honor Mrs. Leonnig were Mrs. Jack Healy, Mrs. Gertrude Applegate, Mrs. Bert Corbin, Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mrs. Albert Connor, Mrs. Tim Moore and Mrs. Ray Tholberg.

Farewell Open House To Honor Bill Blakes

Heppner Post No. 87, American Legion and Auxiliary, will be hosts to a farewell open house Sunday evening, July 26, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake and family. The public is extended an invitation to come to the Legion hall between the hours of 5 and 9 p.m. and join the organizations in honoring the family. Those wishing to contribute toward a money tree as a farewell gift are invited to do so.

The Blakes have been active members and held responsible offices in the Legion the years they have lived in Heppner. At the state convention last week Blake was elected for outstanding work as membership chairman last year. The family will move soon to their new home in Monmouth.

Jones Home is Scene Of Social Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones entertained several friends Saturday evening with a buffet dinner followed by an evening of bridge play.

Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Green, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Creswick, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dick, Dr. L. D. Tibbles and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox. Tallying high score for the women was Mrs. Green, with Bill Cox as high scorer for the men.

Hamlins Entertain Guests from Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlins and two daughters, Nana and Lona, of Honolulu, Hawaii, were overnight guests last Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlins. The two couples were close friends when they were living in the Panama Canal Zone just before the start of World War II. Hamlins, a former captain in the army, was transferred to Hawaii at the time of Pearl Harbor, where he has since made his home. Hamlins was working as an engineer in the Panama area.

The Hamlins family has been on tour of the states and are now visiting friends in Portland before their return home.

Hisler Relatives Are Visitors Here

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hisler during the past week were their daughter, Mrs. Tom Bristow, and three children of Portland, and Mrs. Hisler's niece, Miss Sue Ellen Barrie of Seattle.

Departing for their home in Douglas, Ariz., last week were Mrs. Joe S. Causey and son, Jody, who had been visiting at the Hisler ranch the past three weeks. Mrs. Causey is a sister to Mrs. Hisler, and will be remembered as the former Mary Monahan.

Returning home Saturday from a week of trout fishing at Diamond Lake were Terrell Benge, Ed Bennett and Alva Jones.

Over The Tee Cup

Tee Cup

A good turnout of men was on hand Sunday morning for the Stag Tournament. Don Turner showed his power with his long drive; Lowell Gribble came closest to the pin; Don Turner also held low gross; C. Carmichael, 2nd low gross; Lowell Gribble, 3rd low gross; Phil Mahoney and Jim Norene tied for low net with Phil winning a putter by the flip of a coin; and Ambrose Chapin, 3rd low net.

The turnout for Tuesday morning Ladies' Day was conspicuous by its being so small. Four played the nine holes and it really wasn't too warm. Come on, gals, let's get out on our day. We start at 8:00, which isn't too early to be up, nor does it get too hot by the time we are finished. Helen Schaffitz won the ball this week for the longest drive on No. 8.

Kinzua Golf Club is coming to visit us Sunday, August 9. Breakfast will be served by the Heppner lady golfers, starting

Home from Hospital

Mrs. Gerald Hood returned home Saturday from St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, where she had undergone major surgery. Spending much time with her at the hospital was her mother, Mrs. Edna Gay, who returned to her home in Medford last Wednesday. Helping her at home now is her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen Williamson of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hollis left last Monday for their home in Waukegan, Ill., after spending a week visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gribble. The foursome spent a week-end sightseeing at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and son, Ray, attended a family reunion at Sportsman Park in Yakima, Wn., last Sunday. Also present for the family get-together were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Jones, Holly and Guy of Hood River.

at 7:30 a.m. We are inviting you men to bring your wife out for breakfast and also a guest player. Also women players, bring your non-playing husbands, and a guest player. The women will tee off right after the men start. Kinzua always brings a lot of gals and we would like to give them a good match.

A luncheon is also being served, so plan to come for breakfast and lunch. Let's make this a BIG, BIG Sunday for GOLF.
