MR. AND MRS. ROBERT E. KLENKE (Carlene Ann Rhea)

Carlene Rhea Weds Eugene Man June 20

Carlene Ann Rhea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea, Lexington, was given in marriage by her father to Robert E. Klenke, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Klenke, Eugene, on Saturday, June 20. St. Anthony's Catholic church, Forest Grove, was the setting for this morning ceremony, performed by the Rev. Father John O'Callaghan.

The bride was gowned in white peau de soie and lace. The dress, featuring a short train, was made by the bride. A pearl crown, borrowed from the bride's sister, held a veil of tulle; and a cascade of white gardenias completed the bridal ensemble.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Harry Kelley, Corvallis, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joan Cline, Golden, Colo.; Mrs. Ken Stinger, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Raymond Glansante, Forest Grove.

They were gowned in two-piece, street length dresses of white lace over pink. Pink organza bows for headpieces, short white gloves, pink satin shoes, and cascade bouquets of pink rosebuds completed the attendants' ensemble.

Flower girl and sister of the bride, Lori Rhea, was dressed in the same pink and white and carried a basket of petite pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Best man was Donald Klenke, Eugene, brother of the groom. Ushers were Raymond Glansante, Forest Grove; Harry Kelley, Corvallis, brother-in-law of the bride, and Martin Klenke, Eugene, brother of the groom. Black continental tuxedos were the men's attire.

Judith Scott, Walter Hall, Pacific University, was the scene for the wedding reception. The three-tiered, pink trimmed white wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Carl Rhea, Portland, great aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Dan Blume, Eugene, sister of the groom. Pouring were Mrs. Merl Phelps, Hermiston, grandmother of the bride, and Miss Johanna Klenke, Hayward, Calif., aunt of the groom. The guest book and gift table were attended by Miss Rhea Leisegang, Echo.

After a brief visit with families and friends, the couple sailed for Europe on July 8, where they will reside for a year.

Upon their return to Forest Grove, where they are on leave of absence for a year, both will resume teaching in the Forest Grove High school. The new Mrs. Klenke is a graduate of Oregon State University and her husband received his degree from the University of Oregon.
