Girls Tell of Travel In Hawaiian Islands To Soroptimist Club

A tour of the 50th state, Hawaii, was shared with members and guests of the Soroptimist Club of Heppner at the luncheon meeting last Thursday by three Heppner girls who had traveled in Hawaii this summer. They were introduced by Mrs. Charles Starks, program chairman.

Dressed in summer mums of the islands, Jan Hager and Jennie Smith showed many souvenirs they had brought home of jewelry and crafts made by islanders, also the picture postcards of famous places, flowers and wildlife on the islands, and told of their travels there. The girls accompanied Jennie's father, Orville Smith of Seattle, to Hawaii in June.

Visiting Hawaii at the same time, the middle of June, was Diana Fullerton. She traveled in company with her grandmother, Mrs. G. O. Barager of Los Angeles, Calif., on an 11-day guided vacation tour. Diana showed many colored photos taken on her travels of several of the islands and spoke of highlights of her trip.

Two club members, Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson and Mrs. Clara Gertson, were also tourists in the islands this summer and spoke incidentally of their favorite impressions.

Short discussion was held by the club on materials needed for decorating this year's float. Decision was made recently to make basic improvements to the float bed, under direction of the float committee.

Honor roll cards have been given each member for 100% club participation in meeting its quota of $400 the past year for the National Endowment Fund drive. Recognition was given by Mrs. Wes Sherman, president, to last year's president, Mrs. Jim Hager, and last year's treasurer and ways and means chairman, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, for their leadership in attaining the honor roll status. Two of the $100 endowment fund payments were made as memorials, one to a deceased charter member, Mrs. Pearl Devine, and the other to William J. Thomas, deceased husband of another charter member, Mrs. Thomas.

Couple Wed in Reno Service Last Week

Miss Patricia Mahon, daughter of Mrs. Alice McCabe, Heppner, became the bride of Don Eubanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks of Ione, at an informal ceremony in Reno, Nev., on Thursday, August 13.

After a short wedding trip, the couple is now at home in Ione. The groom is employed at the Morgan Elevator.

Wedding Colors Used At Bridal Shower

Miss Judy Schmidt was feted earlier this month with a bridal shower given in her honor in the Hope Lutheran church basement, the hostesses being Mrs. Orval Matheny, Mrs. Harold Laird, Mrs. Neils Anderson, Mrs. Don Evans and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr.

The green and white color scheme chosen by the bride-elect for her wedding was carried out in flower arrangements and the refreshments.

More than twenty women were present to see Miss Schmidt open her many lovely gifts. She was assisted at the gift table by Miss Bonnie Belama and Miss Ann Jones.

Pouring punch and coffee were Mrs. Elmer Schmidt and Mrs. Jim Driscoll.

Many Travel Here As Wedding Guests

Many persons from out of town were here Saturday for the wedding ceremony which united Miss Judy Schmidt and Tom Driscoll at Hope Lutheran church.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, Hermiston; Miss Karen Nelson, Hereford; Miss Bonnie Rogers, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Les Belden and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snell and family, all of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Murray, Mrs. Bob Spike and daughters, and Mrs. Mike Ramos, all of Echo; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Bruning, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clare, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortner and family, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Atkinson and family, Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fortner, Boardman; Mrs. Isabelle Davis, Condon; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lindsay and family, Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pointer and family, Corvallis, and Francis Nickerson of Eugene.

Good Wishes Given Cox Couple on Golden Anniversary Sunday

LEXINGTON — A large number of guests greeted Mr. and Mrs. Dee Cox, Jr., at the reception honoring their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday, August 16, at the Lexington IOOF hall. Making the arrangements for their parents' reception were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cox of Springfield, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox were married August 16, 1914, in Heppner and have lived in Morrow county since. They have spent their entire married life in the wheat raising business, living for many years on their farm near Lexington where their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox now live, but for the last several years have been on a farm in the Blackhorse Canyon district.

The reception hall was artistically decorated in the colors of the day, gold, white and green. Decorations featured the use of golden wheat. An arrangement of gladioli on the piano was accented by the wheat and flanked with orange candles.

The serving table was centered with a three-tiered cake of pure white, accented with sprays of golden wheat tied with green ribbon. The top, especially designed for the day, was a spray of miniature roses and golden wheat, over which an arch topped with gold satin bows held streamers to which were tied two gold rings. Flanking the cake were two lighted golden tapers.

Punch was served from a milk glass service by Mrs. Elva Ruhl, assisted by Mrs. Edna Munkers, while coffee and tea were served from a golden service by Mrs. William C. Van Winkle, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Jackson of Hermiston. The cake was served by Mrs. Roy Campbell, assisted by Mrs. Earl Eskelson of Hermiston.

Cards of congratulations were left the couple in a wicker flower basket adorned with a large golden ribbon. Mrs. Earl Warner passed the guest book, signed by about 80 guests.

On the stage of the hall was a large golden wishing well which centered a beautiful lace tablecloth brought by Mrs. Bertha Hunt from Scotland. In charge of the reception were

Driscoll Home Scene Of Dinner Preceding Wedding Rehearsal

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Clare, Portland, when they entertained at a wedding rehearsal dinner on the evening prior to the Saturday wedding of their son, Tom, to Miss Judy Schmidt daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Schmidt.

The baked ham dinner was served buffet style amid an arrangement of calla lilies and green tapers which centered the buffet table. Green tapers and a miniature bride and groom decorated a side table.

Members of the wedding party greeted at the dinner were the Rev. and Mrs. Ken Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Matheny and daughter, Sally, Dennis Doherty, John Natt of Longview, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Creswick, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jonasson, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, David and Jill, Miss Bonnie Belama, and Miss Jean Atkinson of Pilot Rock.

The ladies of Holly Rebekah Lodge.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. Cox's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Pederson of Victoria, B. C. Others came from Portland, Canby, Hermiston, Pilot Rock, Hood River, Tacoma, Wn., and Springfield, Utah.

MISS JEAN MARTIN
Martins Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick T. Martin of Ione are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Jean Marie, to Al R. Brazell, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Brazell of Jacksonville Beach Fla.

The bride-elect is a senior at Oregon State University, majoring in Home Economics education, and this fall will be doing her student teaching at Newport Junior high school. She will graduate in June.

Mr. Brazell is a junior at OSU.

Queen is Hostess To Luncheon Party Honoring Her Court

Queen Shannon Mahoney entertained a lovely luncheon party Friday noon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, for princesses of this year's fair and rodeo court and other guests.

Also invited were mothers of the princesses and the court's official chaperone for the year.

studying for a major in Forestry. A June wedding is being planned.

Mrs. Archie (Dimple) Munkers. Also present were Mrs. Tad Miller and Mrs. Floyd Jones, representing the rodeo board. Unable to be present were Princess Dewena West and her mother, Mrs. Dewey West of Boardman. Assisting Queen Shannon and her mother with arrangements was the queen's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Mahoney.

Each princess was presented a beaded coin purse as a token of appreciation from the queen and the court's gift to their chaperone, Mrs. Munkers, was an engraved belt buckle.

The court will represent Morrow county in the Umatilla Fair parade in Hermiston this week-end.
