

Ceremony Unites Couple; Makes The Dalles Home

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Miss Dorothy Eileen Rash became the bride of William J. Getz of The Dalles at an 8 p.m. double ring ceremony in Portland at the Grace Brethren church August 21. The candle light ceremony was performed by the Rev. Don Beattie. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Jack Getz of The Dalles and Carol Getz of Boardman.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of cotton brocade fashioned with a scoop neckline, long sleeves and a bell shaped skirt. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis, and wore a heart-shaped necklace centered with a pearl, a gift from the groom.

Miss Eileen Ely of Boardman was maid of honor and wore a two piece blue cotton suit and blue hat. She carried a spray of white gladioli.

Rodney Flug of Boardman was best man, and Richard Watts was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. After the first piece of the two-tiered cake, topped by bridal figurines, was cut by the couple, it was cut by Mrs. Darrel Rash, sister-in-law of the bride, and served by Mrs. Ted Penages, sister of the bride. Pat and Shirley Earwood, and Miller poured the coffee, and Shirley Earwood served the punch. Kathy Getz, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rash wore a dark blue knit suit with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige sheath with green and beige accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias.

The couple will live in The Dalles, where the groom is employed.

Funeral services were held for Luda May Ball, wife of Roy E. Ball, at Burns Mortuary in Hermiston August 20. Mrs. Ball died suddenly at her home August 18. Rev. Herman R. Burg, pastor of Boardman Community church, conducted the services. Mrs. LaVerne Partlow sang "No Night There," and "What A Friend We Have in Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. Harold Baker.

Pallbearers were Zearl Gillespie, Harold Berger, Seth Russell, Harold Kress, Armin Hug and Lloyd Berger.

Concluding services and interment were at the Ione cemetery.

Mrs. Harold Baker was hostess for a miscellaneous shower at her home Tuesday night of last week in honor of Dorothy Rash, bride-elect of Bill Getz. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Dean King, Shirley Earwood, Pat Miller, Eileen Ely, Mrs. Willard Baker, Mrs. Robert Lowe and Mrs. Jerry Peck, the latter from Pendleton. There were 50 persons present.

Guests from out of town included Mrs. Eugene Gott of Portland, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and daughter Sandie, Mrs. Dwight Hulit and Mrs. Ed McMullih, all of Hermiston.

Boardman Garden club met Monday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Messenger, with Mrs. Earl Briggs as co-hostess. Roll call was answered by "see and tell" of objects in the room. Plans were made for the fall flower show and tea held Friday, August 28.

Mrs. Messenger was presented with a gift for perfect attendance last year.

Committees appointed for next year are as follows: hospitality, Mrs. Claud Coats; membership, Mrs. Algy Taylor; publicity, Mrs. Briggs; birds, Mrs. Bishop; cemetery, Mrs. Zearl Gillespie; flower show, Mrs. Carpenter; litterbug, Mrs. Walter Hayes; wild flowers, Mrs. Allen; sunshine, Mrs. Root; garden therapy, Mrs. Wyss; bulbs, Mrs. Earwood; scrapbook, Mrs. Messenger.

Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Gillespie won prizes in a game "Name of the product." Mrs. Earwood received the door prize.

The next meeting will be a potluck dinner at noon in Pendleton at the home of Mrs. Nate Macomber September 21.

Mrs. Roy Partlow and children Pat, Jim, Mike, Ricky and Joan, Mrs. LaVerne Partlow and son Steve, and Mrs. Zoe Billings spent three days last week at Seaside and Portland.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schunk one day last week were Mrs. Schunk's cousins, Cecile "Brownie" Hoyt of Denver, Colo., and Loye DeVore of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe and daughters Tarina, Cindy and Robin spent the week-end at North Powder visiting at the home of Lowe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, and attending a reunion of the Dallman family.

Mrs. Eugene Gott (Toni Taylor) of Portland visited three days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Algy Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil LaCombe visited in Ellensburg, Wn. recently at the home of Mrs. LaCombe's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holderman and son Billie of Corvallis visited overnight last week at the home of Mrs. Holderman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sehafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Medlock of Seattle, Wn. visited several days last week at the home of Mrs. Medlock's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kuhn.

Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kuhn were Mrs. Kuhn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ayling; her uncle, Meredith Ayling, and her sister, Mrs. Marvin Hunt, all of Monterey Park, Calif.

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Donovan were Donovan's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ackels and children Mary Lynn and Jim of Seattle Wn., and Mrs. Donovan's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn of Salem.

Mrs. Armin Hug and Mrs. Emery Lyons went to La Grande one day last week to visit Mrs. Hug's mother, Mrs. Katie Bickford; also Mrs. Margaret Klitz, former resident here.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root and children Maurice and Jane of Wasco visited Root's mother, Mrs. Florence Root, Sunday evening.

Mrs. LaVerne Partlow, Mrs. Zoe Billings, Mrs. Roy Partlow went to Walla Walla, Wn. Sun- and children Ricky and Joan all day to have a picnic at the Pioneer Park with Mr. and Mrs. Sigvald Aase and children Lynae, Sigurd and Eric of Touchet, Wn.

A total of 31 votes were cast all in favor of the new charter for the town of Boardman at the election last Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. Francis Klontz of Starbuck, Wn. were overnight visitors at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Herman Burg Sunday, Rev. Klontz was guest speaker at the Community Church at the evening services. Rev. Burg and daughter Carolyn accompanied the Klontz' to Cannon Beach Monday where they will all attend the senior Youth Conference this week.

Division winners were as follows: junior men: David Lovell, champion, with Ken Wham as runner up. Junior men, first flight: Vic Boyles, winner, with Vic Bowman as runner up. Junior Women: Alana Guin, champion, with Sally Schroeder as runner up. Junior women, first flight: Linda Bird, winner, with Merrill Huck as runner up. Boy's champion, John Wall, with Richard Boyles as runner up. Boys first flight winner, Ronnie Bowman, with Donnie Bird as runner up. Girls champion: Shellie Guinn, with Jannie Chase as runner up. Boy's Pee Wee champion, Kent Bell, with runner up Randy Hulett. Girl's Pee Wee champion, Sara Bowman, with runner up Theresa Hyatt. Trophy awards will be made at the annual "Klitz" party at a later date.

The bi-monthly stag night was held at the golf club on Friday evening and as usual an enthusiastic group was in attendance. Along with the roast turkey buffet served up by Chef Jim Walker, much good golf was played and to climax the league play the "Flubbers" picked up four points to place them in a tie with the Dubbers for first place. Winners for the evening were: low gross, Milt Boring; low net, Don Chase; least putts, Ernie Wall; long drive, Bob Slinkard; closest to the pin, Milt Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Park and family returned to Kinzua last week from Monmouth where Mr. Park had been attending summer school.

Visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorengel were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barber of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mudd and family of Richland, Wn.

Mrs. Jack Eicks and two children of Topogano Canyon, Calif., spent last Saturday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bowman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Williams of Portland came last week to get their sons, Rocky and Ricky, who had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Freeman and with their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Williams of Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palermo of Portland spent last week-end as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cody.

Mrs. Lester Halverson of Omak, Wash., and Mrs. James Walker took their father L. L. Perry of Fossil to Portland last week for a medical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt and Theresa left Friday morning for Portland to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Worlein and to attend the wedding of Janet Worlein to Donald A. Donison of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jellick, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hulett spent the week-end at Welch near Mt. Hood. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt.

Mrs. Lee Hickerson and family of LaGrande visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hatter and family.

Miss Susan Wright went to Portland Wednesday evening to spend the rest of the week visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Luper.

Mrs. Ed Wham and daughters Vicki and Sally Schroeder spent Thursday and Friday in John Day. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Wham were business visitors to Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Bowman and family and David Livell went to Stanfield to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Espinola and to bring home Joe Bowman who had spent several weeks with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Stephens of Wieser, Idaho, are visiting their children here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meadows went to Pendleton Sunday to meet their daughters Belinda and Diane who had been visiting relatives in Grove, Okla., during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodd Hastings returned home Sunday from Heppner where they had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cecil. While there, their grandson Steven had a hernia repaired at the Heppner hospital last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrish will take a vacation to Mt. Adam, September 3 to 8, and his Parrish garage will be closed during that time. Mrs. Parrish, county clerk will be on vacation from her office.

Four Softball Teams Vie in Tournament

By VIRGINIA KESLO

KINZUA—On August 30 there will be a softball tournament play-off in Condon for town teams of Condon, Fossil, Spray and Camp 5.

Order of play is as follows: At 1 p. m. at the high school field Camp 5 will play Condon. At the same time on the grade school field Spray will play Fossil. Winners of these two games will then play each other. Winner of the third game will then play a team from the Condon Air Base.

There will be a potluck picnic after the final game.

Young Golfers Have Tourney

The past week was a busy one for the young members of the Kinzua Golf club as they went about the business of playing their annual "Young Folks" tournament. From Tuesday through Friday 30 young members charged their way around the fairways and ploughed through the rough to determine champions in the different divisions. Two 1963 champions did not participate consequently new champions were crowned in the Junior Mens and Junior Womens divisions.

Eleven "Pee Wees" whacked white pellets through thick and thin with more gusto than any of their elders. Pay off was a tie between two Pee Wee girls, Theresa Hyatt and Sara Bowman, which made a "sudden death" playoff necessary, and was won by Sara on the first hole.

Division winners were as follows: junior men: David Lovell, champion, with Ken Wham as runner up. Junior men, first flight: Vic Boyles, winner, with Vic Bowman as runner up. Junior Women: Alana Guin, champion, with Sally Schroeder as runner up. Junior women, first flight: Linda Bird, winner, with Merrill Huck as runner up. Boy's champion, John Wall, with Richard Boyles as runner up. Boys first flight winner, Ronnie Bowman, with Donnie Bird as runner up. Girls champion: Shellie Guinn, with Jannie Chase as runner up. Boy's Pee Wee champion, Kent Bell, with runner up Randy Hulett. Girl's Pee Wee champion, Sara Bowman, with runner up Theresa Hyatt. Trophy awards will be made at the annual "Klitz" party at a later date.

The bi-monthly stag night was held at the golf club on Friday evening and as usual an enthusiastic group was in attendance. Along with the roast turkey buffet served up by Chef Jim Walker, much good golf was played and to climax the league play the "Flubbers" picked up four points to place them in a tie with the Dubbers for first place. Winners for the evening were: low gross, Milt Boring; low net, Don Chase; least putts, Ernie Wall; long drive, Bob Slinkard; closest to the pin, Milt Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Park and family returned to Kinzua last week from Monmouth where Mr. Park had been attending summer school.

Visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorengel were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barber of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mudd and family of Richland, Wn.

Mrs. Jack Eicks and two children of Topogano Canyon, Calif., spent last Saturday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bowman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Williams of Portland came last week to get their sons, Rocky and Ricky, who had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Freeman and with their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Williams of Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palermo of Portland spent last week-end as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cody.

Mrs. Lester Halverson of Omak, Wash., and Mrs. James Walker took their father L. L. Perry of Fossil to Portland last week for a medical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt and Theresa left Friday morning for Portland to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Worlein and to attend the wedding of Janet Worlein to Donald A. Donison of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jellick, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hulett spent the week-end at Welch near Mt. Hood. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt.

Mrs. Lee Hickerson and family of LaGrande visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hatter and family.

Miss Susan Wright went to Portland Wednesday evening to spend the rest of the week visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Luper.

Mrs. Ed Wham and daughters Vicki and Sally Schroeder spent Thursday and Friday in John Day. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Wham were business visitors to Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Bowman and family and David Livell went to Stanfield to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Espinola and to bring home Joe Bowman who had spent several weeks with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Stephens of Wieser, Idaho, are visiting their children here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meadows went to Pendleton Sunday to meet their daughters Belinda and Diane who had been visiting relatives in Grove, Okla., during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodd Hastings returned home Sunday from Heppner where they had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cecil. While there, their grandson Steven had a hernia repaired at the Heppner hospital last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlet Campbell were in Condon Saturday for dental care.

Anna M. Haggblom of Portland visited last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McRoberts and Miss Joyce Seitz.

Steven Weatherman and Roy Bounds of Prineville spent Saturday afternoon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hollomon. Also at the Hollomons during the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hollomon and daughters of Hermiston.

Mrs. Joe Browning and daughters Joan and Linda spent Monday and Tuesday at LaGrande having medical checkups.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown of Heppner visited friends here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keise Collins and family of Oakridge spent several days here last week visiting friends. The Collins were former Kinzua residents.

Shower Honors Mrs. Sargent

Mrs. Douglas Sargent was guest of honor at a pink and blue shower last Friday evening at Jeffmore Hall. The gift table was attractive with pink and blue umbrellas. Several shower games were played with winners being Mary Woods, Lou Wagner, Carol Norris, and Virginia Mallory. The honor guests opened her many lovely gifts assisted by her mother, Mrs. Georgann House, and her grandmother, Mrs. Adolph Schaefer of Condon.

A jello vegetable salad with assorted crackers were served to the large group present by the hostesses Virginia Sitton, Louisa Fleming, Maxine Thleme, Betty Benson, Beverly Hatter, and Thelma Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Gerard and son of Lone Pine spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sitton and family. Mr. Gerard will teach the upper four grades at the Lone Pine school this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hollomon returned last week-end from their vacation trip to Kelowna, British Columbia. They had gone to Kelowna with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harper of Pendleton and while there attended the 58th Annual International Kelowna Regatta.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Hubbell and family went to The Dalles Saturday to get their daughter Sharon who had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cate.

Mrs. Archie Cox and daughter Norma returned last week from Sedgwick, Kansas where they had been visiting relatives for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Samples of Jacksonville arrived early Saturday to spend several days visiting the Gerald Samples and O. L. Adams families.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Slinkard were business visitors to The Dalles and Hood River on Saturday.

Mrs. Opal Sutherland of Boise, Idaho was a recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wright. While she was here she and Mrs. Wright spent several days in Portland.

Spending last week-end with Mrs. Bert Hoover was Mrs. J. S. Frost of Beaverton and her daughter Mrs. Richard Endsley of Berkeley, California.

Mathews Welcome New Son

Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Mathews of Seattle became the parents of a son, Eric W., Jr., on August 19. He weighed 6 lbs. This new member of the family is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Mathews of Fossil and Mr. and Mrs. James Zehner of Redmond, formerly of Kinzua.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Rhodes and daughter spent several days here last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rhodes. They went on to Spokane to visit other relatives accompanied by his mother.

The Doubledeck club met at Jeffmore Hall Tuesday evening with Mrs. Marilyn Bailey as hostess to the group. High was won by Rita Bowman, low by Bonnie Campbell and Marj Boring. Those present were the winners and Rosie Graham, Ada Schell, Margie Ball, Vonnie Browning, Virginia Sitton, Kathryn Flack, Vi Slinkard, and Margaret McConnell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pack and Mrs. Joe Browning were Heppner visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bastian returned Friday afternoon from a weeks vacation trip. They spent part of the time in The Dalles for wait to have medical attention and then in Portland where they visited Dolores Bastian.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Meritt and Mike Medlock went to Baker last Friday where they did the annual assessment work on the De Meritt mine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle and family spent last week-end in Madras on business, shopping and visiting the Boyd Browns.

Mr. and Mrs. Slim Rhoton went to Prineville Saturday where they met Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waldvogel of Silver Lake and went fishing at the Prineville Dam and Reservoir.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mortimer and family went to Scout Lake last Sunday to attend a Stephens family reunion.

Mrs. Walter Bastian and daughter Karen, Mrs. David Sitton, and Miss Rita Sitton spent Wednesday in Heppner on business and doing some shopping.

FOR Fun IN CALIFORNIA VISIT DISNEYLAND

Attractive accommodations just minutes from Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm. All units have free TV, air-conditioning and heat. Spacious grounds with heated pool, play and recreational area.

Excellent restaurants and shopping centers nearby. Credit cards honored.

POLYNESIAN Motel
841 S. Brookhurst ANAHEIM, CAL.

FREE!

Write for literature and new TRAVEL GUIDE. Listing fine motels from coast to coast, inspected and approved by Congress of Motor Hotels.

State Fair Bills Top Entertainers September 4-12

An all-star cast of ten top entertainers, plus three of the funniest monkeys in the world, the Hathaway Chimps, will be supporting the headline of the Oregon State Fair revue, Johnny Desmond, during the nine-day attraction September 4-12 in Salem.

Heading the list of talented showpeople are the kings of the fast-paced bluegrass music world, the Dillard, Born and raised in the Ozark Mountains, the Dillard brothers have appeared in nightclubs from Kansas City to San Francisco and most recently on the Andy Griffith television show.

Another TV celebrity booked for the State Fair revue is Pat Woodell or Bobby Jo of the "Peticoat Junction" series. Miss Woodell began her career at the age of 16 as a singer and has appeared on other TV shows including "Cheyenne" and a motion picture by Warner Brothers called "Freedom and You".

A nobleman, called Baron Buika, a violin virtuoso and Columbia recording artist, will present his "Comedy in Music" as part of the grand revue.

A brother-sister act, Tommy Collier and his seven-year old sister Mindy, will sing, dance and delight all-ages at the Fair's revue. Tommy, a product of the Lawrence Welk Band, plays the marimbas as part of his routine and his night club entertaining experience stretches from coast to coast.

Two other entertainers, Rudi Berg and Bettina, will perform in high wire antics during the Fair. Berg, a world-famous West German aerialist, will entertain during the revue and Bettina will do outside on the fairgrounds atop a high pole.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, daughter Mrs. Gary Linton and granddaughter, Lori, returned Friday night from taking another daughter, Mrs. Mike Rogers, to Provo, Utah, where she and her husband will make their home following his discharge from service in September.

They visited Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Rogers in Pleasant Grove, and with former Heppner residents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prussing at Ogden, who have been employed in the forest service there for the past four years. They also attended the National Ram Sale at the Golden Spike in Ogden.

On Sunday the Lintons returned to Portland, where Mr. Linton has been attending summer school prior to teaching this year in Bandon.

The daughters have been home the past two weeks helping in arrangements for the 25th wedding anniversary open house at the Anderson home Sunday, August 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrish will take a vacation to Mt. Adam, September 3 to 8, and his Parrish garage will be closed during that time. Mrs. Parrish, county clerk will be on vacation from her office.

You'll See The West at its Best at the

Morrow County

RODEO

Saturday and Sunday, August 29 & 30

Rodeo Grounds, Heppner

- Tops in Thrilling Entertainment
- Featuring the Northwest's Best Cowboys
- Spiced with Home Talent
- Using the Best of Rodeo Stock
- Dramatic, Colorful

THREE GREAT SHOWS: Saturday at 1:15 and 8 p.m., Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

DON'T MISS THESE EVENTS:

- Morrow County Horse Show, Friday
- Episcopal Church Barbecue, Saturday
- Rhea Creek Grange Fair Dinner Tonight (Thurs.)
- Street Parade, 10 A. M., Saturday
- Wrangler Cowboy Breakfast, 7-10 A. M., Sunday

Columbia Basin Electric Co-op

Serving Morrow, Wheeler and Gilliam Counties