Soroptimists Host Court and Mothers At Luncheon Meeting

"A most wonderful and exciting summer" were the words which most generally expressed the feeling of the Morrow county fair and rodeo court as each spoke of her summer experiences before members of the Soroptimist club last Thursday noon. The queen, her four princesses, their mothers and their official chaperone were welcomed as guests of the club. Marking each place were miniature horses in outdoor setting glued to place cards. After each girl told of an appearance the court had made during the summer, she introduced her mother, and was then asked to open her ball of fortune. Each read a slip containing a comic prediction of her future. Small horses and bouquets of summer flowers added decoration to the luncheon tables. Arranging the program and decorations were Mrs. Charles Starks, Mrs. Jim Hager, program committee, and Mrs. Wes Sherman, president.

Present were Queen Shannon and her mother, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney; Princess Dewena and her mother, Mrs. Dewey West of Boardman; Princess Martha and her mother, Mrs. Bernard Doherty of Lexington; Princess Judy and her mother, Mrs. Harold Sherer of Lone; Princess Terry and her mother, Mrs. Don Greenup of Lena, and their chaperone, Mrs. Archie (Dimple) Munkers, Lexington.

Work nights were announced by Mrs. Leta Thomas, float chairman, for Monday and Tuesday nights, as well as during the noon hour on Thursday. A special board meeting was announced for Tuesday noon, September 1, at the Wagon Wheel.
