THE HEPPNER
GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, September 3, 1964 Sec. 2 – 4 pages

Schools Start at Ione With Faculties Complete

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Grade school classes began Monday with a full compliment of teachers returning. L. N. Herrick is principal and eighth grade teacher, Eugene Dockter, seventh grade, coach and P.E. instructor; Les Matthews, seventh and eighth grades; Jack Loyd, sixth grade; William Spohn, fifth grade; Mrs. Franklin Ely, fourth grade; Mrs. L. N. Herrick, third grade; Mrs. Herbert Hynd, second grade; and Mrs. Harry Ash has the first grade.

Total enrollment for the grade school reached 146 with more children expected this week.

Enrollment on the first day of school in the Ione High school was 59, but due to school starting so early more students are expected later.

The high school faculty includes Everett Holstein, principal; Mrs. Annabel Damon, english, journalism, girls' P.E. and health; James Deeney, science and mathematics; Gordon Meyers, social studies, football coach and assistant basketball coach; and returning from last year are Carol Miller, music, band, and social studies; Eugene Dockter, biology, boys' P.E. and health, baseball and basketball coach, and assistant football coach; Gil Lujan, business and Spanish I and II classes; and Jack Loyd, grade and high school shop.

New students in the high school are David Carpenter, Bruce Miller, Dixie and Joyce Peck and Stanley, Wesley and Sandra Holstein.

Custodians of the school are Ray Barnett and Wallace Matthews and the cooks for the hot lunch program are Mrs. Ida Coleman and Mrs. Harvey Ring.

Bus routes are relatively unchanged from a year ago with eight drivers bringing the students to school. Pete Cannon is on the Willow Creek route; Mrs. E. W. Christopherson, Gooseberry and lower Rhea Creek; Bryce Keene, upper Rhea Creek to Pettyjohn ranch; Mrs. Robert Davidson, Lexington bus; Lindsay Kincaid, Gooseberry route; Earl McCabe, Ione to Proudfoot ranch; Wallace Matthews, Base Line to Ione and Eldon Tucker, Davidson ranch to Ione.

Miss Lila Ash has been hired as grade and high school secretary.

Mrs. Annabel Damon is residing in Heppner and teaching in the Ione High school.

PTA will begin the school year with a short meeting on Wednesday, September 9 at 8:00 p.m., followed by a program and reception for the teachers.

Jane, Clint, and Skye Krebs flew home from Browning, Mont., on Sunday to start school on Monday. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs remained in Montana with their youngest son, Glen, who has been seriously ill for over a week in a hospital in Great Falls. At this writing he is slightly improved and was conscious. Mrs. Henry R. Krebs of Arlington is staying with her grandchildren at Cecil until the parents come home.

Mrs. John R. Clerf and children are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, from her home in Kittitas, Wn.

Dick Hynd drove to Battle Creek, Wn., on Sunday to take home Steve Murphy, who has been spending the summer at the Hynd ranch.

Ione High school will play its first football game of the season at Ione against Dufur on Saturday, September 12.

Morgans Motor To Denver

Milton Morgan, Oregon Wheat Growers' League president, returned on Friday from a trip to Denver, Colo., where he attended an executive committee meeting of the National Association of Wheat Growers. Farm policies were discussed and plans were formulated for the national convention to be held in Portland from January 4-8. Also going from Oregon were Allen Tom of The Dalles, vice-president of NAWG, and John Welbes of Pendleton, Wheat League executive vice-president. Accompanying Mr. Morgan were Mrs. Morgan and son Gary. They drove through Boise and Salt Lake City on the way to Denver and returned by way of the Air Force Academy, which they visited, Manitou Springs and Reno. They repeated just three miles of their trip, from Jordan to Ione.

Ernest Drake left on Wednesday for Fairfield, Calif., where he will coach and teach sciences at the Armijo High school in the city. He has been here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and family drove home Wednesday from the coast, where they had enjoyed a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Miller and family spent the week-end moving into the house on Second Street owned by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely.

Spending the week-end here visiting friends and attending the Rodeo was Lynn Benson of Estacada, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom White have purchased the Ernest McCabe house on Main Street and will move in soon. Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Childers, who have been occupying the house are moving to the Charles Carlson ranch south of Ione, where Mr. Childers is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershal Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree left for East Lake on Thursday, where they will vacation for a week.

Teresa Stefani came home on Friday from a visit with her friend Kathy Shockley at Vancouver, Wn. She went down last Sunday with the Shockleys from The Dalles, where they were attending a swim meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and son Jim and Mr. Swanson's mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson, returned home Thursday evening from an outing spent on the coast south of Seaside. They met Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swanson and family of Portland there and the men went deep sea fishing, while the families enjoyed the beach together.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and daughters, Lee and Terri, had an enjoyable trip to Vancouver Island last week. They visited Victoria and other points of interest on the island and then took the ferry on up to Vancouver, B. C., returning to Ione on Friday.

Church To Resume Schedule

The Ione United Church of Christ will return to the winter schedule on September 13 with church school beginning at 9:45 a.m. and the morning worship service at 11:00 a.m.

The Topic club will resume meetings with the September meeting on Friday afternoon, September 11, at the home of Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom.

Connie Christopherson came home on Friday evening from Donald, where she had been spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Christopherson, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan spent Saturday in Pendleton, where they called on Roy Martin of Lexington, who is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Mr. Martin is recovering from a serious back operation.

Ray Boyce drove to Portland Sunday taking Mrs. Boyce down to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Hubbard. Mr. Hubbard, who has been quite ill is in the city for medical attention.

Melvin Melena moved on Thursday to his new home in Ontario. He will manage an apartment house there.

Norman Nelson, Milton Morgan and Donald Peterson departed Monday morning for Ilwaco, where they will go deep sea fishing.

Howton Weds La Grande Girl

John Howton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton, formerly of Ione, and now of Hermiston was married to Cheryl Sue Hand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Hand of La Grande at a one o'clock ceremony on Saturday, August 29 at St. Peter's Episcopal church in La Grande. The reception was held in the Catholic church parish hall. Going from Ione to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea, Mr. and Mrs. Leland McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jacobs, and Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and girls arrived home Sunday from a vacation spent visiting relatives at Hood River and in Portland.

Rodeo week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray were Mr. Murray's mother and his aunt, Mrs. F. L. Shook and Mrs. Ray Shook of Newberg, his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Haines and three children of Wallowa, and his brother and family, Mr. nd Mrs. Sherman Murray and four children of La Grande.

Fishing at Salmon Lake in Canada last week were Donald Bristow, Harold and Wayne Rietmann. They encountered chilly and rainy weather, which rather spoiled the fishing.

Chris Lovgren is spending the week with the Lewis Halvorsen family, while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lovgren are in Portland. Mr. Lovgren, who has been having trouble with his back, is in Portland consulting specialists.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake are their daughter, Mrs. Ray Turner and sons of Eugene. Mr. Turner brought them to Ione last week-end and then returned to his work on Sunday, but the family remained for a longer visit.

Sue Townsend left Thursday for Portland, where she will enroll at Northwestern School of Commerce on September 14. Sue is living with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Portschy, who recently moved to Portland from Pilot Rock. Mr. Portschy is attending barber college.

Jerry Stefani has enrolled in high school in Pendleton. He will stay with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grabill, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn returned on Sunday from a vacation which took them to Seattle and Victoria, B. C. They enjoyed a tour of the Butchart Gardens and the evening summer theater show playing there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford spent a week at Yellowstone Park on their vacation arriving home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osibov and family of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. Mrakham Baker at their trailer at the McNary Yacht club.

Adolph Marick went to Walla Walla on Sunday to visit with his brother, Frank, who has had surgery and is a patient in the Veteran's hospital there. Al Winkleman drove him over.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell this week were her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Breshears of Lexington and her sister, Mrs. Roger Brandhagen and baby daughter of Pendleton, who spent from Thursday to Monday here. Another guest on Wednesday was Mrs. Malcom Richelderfer and son of The Dalles, who is Mrs. Crowell's aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bartalamay and Beth of Odessa, Wn. spent the week-end with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherer.

Mrs. Ray Heimbigner, Tom and Linda, went to Portland on Friday and to Eugene on Saturday, where Tom took some tests prepatory to his entering University of Oregon this fall.

Howard Crowell was taken to the hospital by Mrs. Crowell on Thursday, where he is in traction for his back.

Katherine Rea, who is a student at Phagan's Beauty school in Pendleton, came home from the hospital on Sunday. She will convalesce at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea, for several weeks due to surgery on her knee.

Arriving home Sunday night from a vacation spent visiting relatives was Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and family. They visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tews at Seattle and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman May at Albany.

Recent guests at the Dick McElligott and Don McElligott homes were the men's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry O'Leary of Sumner Lake, Ore. and their brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McElligott and five children of Minot, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Meyers and child have moved into the Arnie Hedman house on Fourth Street. He will teach social studies and coach football in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Deeney moved into the A. A. Stefani house on Third Street last Wednesday. He will also teach in the high school this year in the science and math department.

Church Youth Join For Special Program

Approximately 57 young people from churches in Ione, Lexington and Heppner enjoyed a special program, "Hootenanny for Christ," sponsored by the high school group of First Christian church Sunday evening, August 30, in the church basement.

Rev. Ken Robinson, pastor of Hope Lutheran church, led the group in singing, which was followed by a film, "Am I a Phony?" An inspiring message for devotions was given by Phillip Atkins of Dufur. Mothers of the host group were in charge of refreshments at the close of the evening.

QUEEN AND COURT (left to right) Princess Deacy Joynes, Queen Jan Ordway and Princess Vivian Stirewalt, all of Spray, will reign over four big days of the Wheeler county fair and rodeo at Fossil September 3 through 7. Included will be exhibits, circus, hole-in-one contest, international porcupine races and rodeo.

Mrs. Osmin Improved, Visited by Relatives

Mrs. A. L. Osmin is at home now, and much improved, after spending the past 10 days at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton, where she underwent extensive deep therapy treatment.

Mrs. Cloy Dykstra of Basalt, Ney., has been a guest at the A. L. Osmin home for the past week. She plans to stay on until her sister, Mrs. Osmin, is definitely improved, then she will return home. Also a guest at the Osmin home is Mrs. Osmin's mother, Mrs. Bessie Nutten of Salem.

Mrs. Van Winkle's Mother Dies Here

Mrs. Lillie Ruth Martin, 58, mother of Mrs. Jack Van Winkle of Heppner, died in Pioneer Memorial hospital Monday, August 31. She had been in poor health for some time and had come to Heppner only about six months ago to be with her daughter.

Graveside services were Wednesday, September 2, at 3 p.m. at Hillcrest cemetery, Weiser, Idaho. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Martin was born December 23, 1905, in Council, Idaho. She is survived by her husband, Fred Martin of Weiser; her father, Bill Huston of Payette, Idaho; the daughter, Mrs. Ruth Van Winkle of Heppner; two sons, Emmett Martin of Heppner and Bill Hannaman, Fairbanks, Alaska; a stepdaughter, Louise Shelly of Spokane; two stepsons, Lovell Martin of Ellensburg, Wn., and Larry Martin of Elgin; and six grandchildren.

Let's Go!
WHEELER COUNTY FAIR
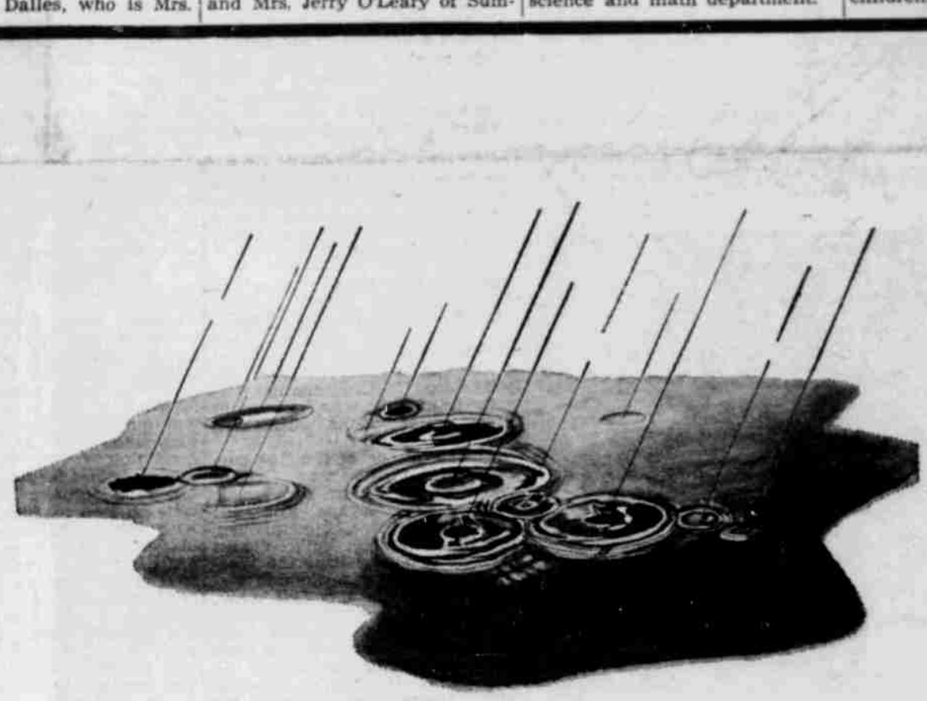
FOSSIL, OREGON
September 3 thru 7

NRA Approved Rodeo
Porcupine Races
Hole-In-One Contest

DOLLY JACOBS CIRCUS	BUCKAROO Breakfast	DANCING	Stockhorse Judging Contest
7 P.M. FRIDAY, SATURDAY MAIN ARENA	LEGION HALL FOLLOWING DANCES	SATURDAY, 10 P.M. SUNDAY, 10 P.M. SHAMROCK CLUB Music by STORY BROS.	SATURDAY SEPT. 5 9:30 A.M.

Grand Parade Sunday, 12:30 p.m.
FUN--PRIZES--THRILLS--ENTERTAINMENT!



When It Rains . . .
It's Dry

With low cost electric power, you can forget about sudden wash-day showers, wind blown dirt and never ending trips to your clothes line.

For your electric clothes dryer makes its own sunny weather. Moreover, it's close at hand, easy to operate and actually dries clothes softer and fluffier than any other drying method.

So don't wait for a rainy day. Visit your electric appliance store today and select the dryer that fits your particular needs. You'll find a wide selection of sizes, styles and colors (with matching washers).

Do it better, for LESS . . . Electrically

© NRECA

Columbia Basin Electric Co-op
Serving Morrow, Wheeler and Gilliam Counties