Diana Fulleton Weds Archie Ball, Jr. In Impressive Fall Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Diana Marie Fulleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roice R. Fulleton, to Archie C. Ball, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball, Sr., all of Heppner, was solemnized at an impressive morning ceremony Saturday, September 5, at the First Christian church, Heppner. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Len B. Fishback.

Vows were exchanged before an all-white background of white standards holding white gladioli accented with white bows, and flanked by white tapers in candleabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a traditional white floor length gown of white nylon, with lace trimming the neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her waist length illusion veil fell from a tiara crown of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses entwined by trailing ivy. Maid of honor was Miss Virginia Moore, school classmate. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Shannon Mahoney, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Bruce Moyer, both of Heppner.

The attendants wore matching street-length gowns of lavender brocade satin with net bodice and lavender headdresses held in place by small white chrysanthemums. They carried matching arm bouquets of white spider chrysanthemums.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Ruby and Becky Fulleton, sisters of the bride. Their dresses were of lavender taffeta, fashioned similar to the other attendants.

Flower girl was Rene Flack, niece of the groom, wearing a full skirted dress in light lavender taffeta. Lonnie Fulleton, of Vale and cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Attending as best man was Robert Mahoney, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Bruce Moyer, Gary Van Blokland, classmates of the groom, and Nat Webb of Walla Walla.

Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. Virginia Turner, who also accompanied Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr., when she sang the numbers,

"Through the Years," and "Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fulleton chose to wear a beige suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Ball, mother of the groom, appeared in an autumn gold dress with green accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple greeted their many friends and relatives at a reception immediately following in the church parlors. Decorations on the bride's table and about the room carried out the lavender and white color scheme chosen for the wedding.

A beautifully decorated 3-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom in front of a heart of lace, centered the serving table. After the traditional cutting of the first piece by the bride and groom, it was cut and served by Mrs. La Verne Van Marter, Jr., and Mrs. Roger Steinger, Portland, both sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Mick Fulleton, Vale, aunt of the bride.

Pouring were Mrs. James Hawley, Vale, and Mrs. Penny Fulleton, Quincy, Wn., both aunts of the bride.

Attending the gift table were Mrs. Gene Hall, Lexington, and Karen and Barbara Fulleton, Vale, cousins of the bride. Judy Fulleton, Vale, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book. Passing the wheat bags, tied with dark lavender ribbon, and the small groom's cakes were Ruby and Becky Fulleton.

For going-away the bride's ensemble was a dark grey wool suit with white accessories and white rosebud corsage. They left immediately for a wedding trip to Canada.

Both of the newlyweds will enroll at Blue Mountain Community college with the start of the fall term, and will be at home at 119 N. W. 6th in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Creswick, now of Portland, were visiting Heppner friends Monday and Tuesday. During the next two weeks they will be in Silverton taking care of a mortuary while the owners are on vacation.

Golden Anniversary Of Raymond Drakes Marked at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Drake celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday, September 6, with a family dinner in their back yard and a reception at the Rhea Creek Grange hall.

Raymond Keith Drake and Emma Catherine Wright were married November 25, 1914, at high noon in Salem, Oregon, at the bride's home. Present 50 years ago for the wedding and also at this family dinner and reception were Mrs. T. E. Given, and S. E. Wright, Spokane, Wn., sister and brother of Mrs. Drake; Mrs. Joe Wright, Vancouver, Wn., sister-in-law of Mrs. Drake, and Mr. Drake's twin brothers, Cleo Drake of Ione, and Leo Drake of Hood River.

Over 50 members of the family were present to eat picnic style dinner in the Drake's back yard. A beautiful sunny day and a yard of lovely seasonal flowers made the perfect setting for the occasion that was attended by the five Drake children and 19 of the 22 grandchildren. They are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Drake, Jr., Keith, Kenny and Marah, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Drake, Kevin, Jon and Kelly, Stockton, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Drake, Claudia, Judy, Dennis, Charlotte and Joyce, Kennewick, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Drake, Susan, Alfred, Gwendolyn and Ricky; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warren, Mike, Steve, Matt and Joan, all of Heppner.

Other relatives attending from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Claussen, Salem; Mrs. J. B. Wheir, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mohr, Dick and Jay, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furno, Susan and Janet, and Mrs. Frank Sikes, all from Vancouver, Wn., and Mrs. Tom Brittain of Kennewick, Wn.

A public reception honoring the goldenweds was given by members of the Rhea Creek Grange at the Grange hall following the dinner.

A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped with gold bells and decorated with pink and white icing was cut by Mr. and Mrs. Drake. A color scheme of gold, pink and white was carried out in the table decorations, tapers and flowers throughout the room. Serving the cake were Mrs. Paul Warren and Mrs. T. E. Given with Mrs. Raymond Drake, Jr. and Mrs. Douglas Drake pouring the punch, tea and coffee. Others presiding at the refreshment table during the afternoon were Mrs. Donald Drake, Mrs. Claude Drake, Mrs. Charles Furno, Mrs. Frank Sikes, Mrs. S. E. Wright, Mrs. Ted Mohr, Mrs. Walter Claussen, Mrs. Tom Brittain, Mrs. Floyd Bull and Mrs. Cleo Drake. Susan, Claudia and Judy Drake were in charge of the guest book.

Miss Theresa Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker of Ione, sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Somewhere A Voice Is Calling," songs that were sung at the wedding 50 years ago. Also during the short program the Drake children and their families were introduced and asked to stand.

For this occasion Mrs. Drake chose to wear an off-white silk dress detailed with a jacket and pink accessories. She and her daughter, Mrs. Paul Warren, wore identical pink rosebud corsages.

The reception room was decorated with many beautiful plants and cut flowers from friends and relatives.

Friends attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bull, Milton-Freewater; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, Condon; Mrs. Fay George, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scribner and Diane, all of Portland, and Mrs. Bob Runion of Boise, Idaho.

Couple Repeats Vows In Idaho Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer, Lexington, announce the recent marriage of their son, Joe, to Miss Elanie Gaarsland of Ione on Friday, August 21, at Weiser, Idaho. The new Mrs. Palmer is the daughter of Mrs. Ray Smith, Baker, and Joe Gaarsland of Ione.

Attending the wedding were the parents of the groom, and his brother, Mike, also the mother of the bride and her brother, John, of Baker.

The young people are now living in Heppner where Palmer is employed at the Kinzua mill. Palmer was a graduate of Ione High school in the class of 1962.

Fulleton Relatives Here for Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Roice Fulleton and family had several out-of-town relatives as guests over the Labor Day week-end, coming to attend the wedding of Diana Fulleton and Archie Ball, Jr., on Saturday, September 5.

Coming from a distance were Mrs. Frank Fulleton, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James Hawley and Mr. and Mrs. Mick Fulleton and family, all of Vale; Mrs. Penny Fulleton, Pat, Jim and Joe, Quincy, Wn., and G. O. Barager, grandfather of the bride, of Los Angeles.

Elder Glen Mecham, branch president of the LDS church in Heppner attended a church quarterly conference in Richland on Saturday and Sunday. He was accompanied by Loren Bade of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Watkins, Gary and Christy, spent several days over Labor Day week-end boating and visiting Mrs. Watkins' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wisley, at Lake Chelan, Wn.

Houghton Entertains County School Heads

Putting aside business which usually occupies the regular meetings of the Morrow county school board, an informal get-acquainted party was enjoyed by the group at the A. C. Houghton school in Irrigon last Thursday evening.

All county board members and administrators of the county schools were present for a watermelon feed, combined with visiting and the opportunity to become better acquainted. Making arrangements for the affair were Ron Daniels, Riverside principal, and Michael Tolar, principal at A. C. Houghton.

Mrs. Nickerson Gives Historical Review Since Club's Charter

Tracing the past history of the Sceptimist club of Heppner proved both interesting and nostalgic to old and new members at their luncheon meeting last Thursday.

Mrs. Grace Nickerson, charter and life member of the club, reviewed outstanding events, beginning with the club's first installation and charter dinner on Saturday, April 10, 1948, in the American Legion hall. There were 22 charter members initiated under the sponsorship of the Sceptimist club of Baker, with several still holding active, life or sustaining memberships. A wide variety of civic and youth projects were reviewed, bringing back pleasant memories and verifying years of active club membership. Many youth projects have become traditional.

Discussion was held on transporting the club's float to Pendleton for the Dress-Up parade Saturday night as a public service, in response to participation of so many Pendleton and outside entries in our own parade. Overseeing the transporting were Mrs. Jim Hager and Mrs. Leta Thomas. The float was judged first among service organizations entered and the club will receive a trophy as an award.

Mrs. Wes Sherman, president encouraged a number of members to attend the annual District 2 meeting of the Northwestern Region in Ontario on September 26 and 27, to be held at the Moore Hotel.

Plans are underway for the club to be a sponsoring organization for the second Dale Carnegie Course in Heppner, to start sometime in October under the leadership of Bob Marsh. A course was successfully completed in the spring with 25 graduates. Some who were unable to attend the first session have expressed a desire for a second course. Contacts will be made with people of the community to attend an initial demonstration meeting, and anyone wishing information may contact Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Matt Hughes, Mrs. Roice Fulleton, Mrs. Bill Collins or Mrs. Ed Gonty.
