Lone Lions Club Presents Awards At Ladies Night

It was awards night as well as ladies night at the meeting of the Lone Lions club Monday evening at Stefan's Fine Foods banquet room. E. A. Fjelland of Pendleton, international counselor, was present to assist with the ceremonies that saw recognition given to several at the meeting.

Ted Palmateer, president of the club, was master of ceremonies at the dinner meeting, attended by more than 50, including Lions, their wives and guests.

Charles O'Connor, past president, assisted with the presentation of awards.

Paul Pettyjohn was given three awards, one for bringing in new members during the membership month of March, one for doing an outstanding job as membership chairman, and a third for enrolling the most new members (seven) during the drive. He received a pin, a Lions club paper weight, and a set of flags.

Fjelland said that this was the first time he had ever known one man to receive three awards recognized by a district convention.

Mei Melena, now of Ontario, was presented to receive an award as outstanding club secretary in all of district 26-3, and the club immediately voted him as a member at large for the coming year. His award was a medal.

Other awards were given to O'Connor, Jim Barnett and Dave

Baker for enrolling new members in March.

Fjelland told of the fact that Lone Lions had been named second most outstanding club in the district with The Dalles large club as first and LaGrande third.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, publishers of the Gazette-Times, were presented a special award, a framed "Citation of Appreciation," for the contribution made to community service through the Gazette-Times with O'Connor making the presentation.

Herman Winter of Heppner was initiated as a new member of the club with Fjelland conducting the initiation, O'Connor administering the oath and President Palmateer assisting.

Dave Barnett announced plans for the annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest for lone and Heppner and asked the club's cooperation again in assisting with the contest for boys.
