

Tributes Given Mrs. E. L. Lundell at Lone Church

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM
LONE — Services for Mrs. Ernest R. (Lena Pearl) Lundell were held at United Church of Christ on October 1 with the Rev. Kenneth Robinson officiating. Mrs. Paul Tews was organist and soloist was Mrs. Fred Huskins. Interment was at Valby Lutheran church in Gooseberry. Pall bearers were six grandsons of Mrs. Lundell's, Robert Drake, Paul Pettyjohn, Jr., Virgil Morgan, William Lundell, Merle Lundell, and Dick Lundell.

Mrs. Lundell had lived her entire life in the lone community, having cared for her family since the age of 12, when her mother passed away. She was born on December 18, 1894 in lone to James Martin and Sarah (McLeod) Baker and was married to E. R. Lundell on December 25, 1904, at Valby Lutheran church, the second couple to be united in marriage in that country church. They would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary this December.

Always an enthusiastic worker in community activities, Mrs. Lundell was a member of Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of Eastern Star, Bunchgrass, Rebekah Lodge, and Valby Lutheran church.
