Sale Well Received; To Aid Kindergarten

Final reports on receipts from the Civic League sponsored Fall Rummage Sale, held Friday and Saturday, are still being compiled, but with gross receipts exceeding $300, league officers are well satisfied of its success.

Civic League members spent Monday evening at the Tri-Co Equipment building attending to the final cleaning and straightening of the space utilized for the sale. Unsold rummage items were donated to local church organizations to be given to needy families and missions.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to help support and buy needed equipment and supplies for the local kindergarten program.

Church Women Aid In Help to Missions

The Mission Society of the Church of the Nazarene held an all-day meeting October 19, resuming its monthly meetings for the year.

Members met to pack clothing to be sent to the mission field in Okinawa. Five boxes of clothing were mended and packed, with the remainder of the time spent making bandages for the mission.

Members and guests present were Mrs. Jack Weller, Mrs. Ralph Crum, Mrs. James Wilhelm, Mrs. Warren Crowley, Mrs. Douglas Steen, Mrs. Wayne Wilson and Mrs. James Hilderbrand.

Conference Officers Meet With Heppner Legion and Auxiliary

Some 90 Legionnaires and Auxiliary members were present Saturday evening at the Legion hall when Heppner Post No. 87 hosted a District 6 conference attended by several state and district department officers. Legion officers here for the meeting were Ray Wilson, department commander; Jack Plato, department vice-commander; Maurice Druhl, department adjutant; and Glenn Howe, department service officer; all of Portland, and Frank Reyberg, District 6 commander from Pendleton.

Auxiliary heads attending were Mrs. Pearl Funk, department president, Athena; Mrs. Colleen Goger, department vice-president, The Dalles; Mrs. Nota Francis, department secretary, Portland; Mrs. Myrtle Reyberg, District 6 president, Pendleton; and Mrs. Hazel Hamlin, District 6 vice-president from Heppner.

Delegates representing 13 of eastern Oregon district units were on hand for the convocation that got underway early in the evening with a delicious potluck dinner, followed by separate meetings of the Legion and Auxiliary that were opened and adjourned by Heppner Post No. 87 and Auxiliary presidents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson. Principle items of the business meetings were reports by department heads on the national convention held in Dallas, Tex., late in September.

Poppies, significant flowers for Legionnaires, were arranged in vases throughout the hall by Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman and Mrs. Riley Munkers. Co-chairmen for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Don Munkers and Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman.

Auxiliary Sponsors Public Card Party

After being once postponed, followed by misunderstanding on a rescheduled date, the American Legion Auxiliary public card party was held Monday with a pleasant crowd enjoying an evening of bridge and pinocle.

Prize for tallying high pinocle score went to Riley Munkers with Mrs. Bob Buschke holding second high. The pinocle door prize went to Mrs. Martha Van Schoiack. The evening's high bridge score prize was won by Mrs. Jim Driscoll followed by Mrs. Frank Hamlin with second high. Winning the door prize for the bridge play was Mrs. Nora Rasmus.

Card enthusiasts were served delicious angelfood cake, topped with a pineapple whip on card tables decorated with arrangements of bronze chrysanthemums.

Chairman of the event, Mrs. Don Munkers, was assisted with the many arrangements by Mrs. Bill Heath, Mrs. Riley Munkers, Mrs. Arnie Hedman and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren.

Visiting over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Thompson, son Brian and daughter Linda, of Portland.

Menu Uses Extension Theme for October In Home Luncheon

"Exploring the Spice Rack," was the interesting project for the initial fall meeting of the Heppner Extension Unit, held last Tuesday at the Joe Wright home. The project theme was carried out in a delicious, spice enhanced dinner of meatballs smothered in mushroom sauce and carried shrimp served over toast, prepared by project leaders, Mrs. R. G. Watkins and Mrs. Bud Peck. Members also enjoyed tasty orange drop cookies, baked by Mrs. Wright.

Main item of business discussed at the meeting was the project lesson planning for this extension year. Miss Donna Gordon, county home extension agent, will lead the unit in the November project lesson, "The True Cost of Credit," to be held at the home of Mrs. R. G. Watkins.

Six new members were present at the well attended meeting. They included Mrs. David Eckman, Mrs. Hilda Steen, Mrs. Wayne Wilson, Mrs. Jack Weller, Mrs. Gayle Arbogast and Mrs. James Hilderbrand.

The informative unit sessions for the coming year are open to anyone wishing to attend, for further information one may contact Mrs. Watkins or Miss Gordon at the extension office.

Club Hears Reports Of District Meeting

Reports of delegates of the Soroptimist club of Heppner who had attended the 11th District Meeting of the Northwestern Region in Ontario on September 26 and 27 were heard at the weekly luncheon meeting last Thursday. Those who attended were Mrs. Fred Parrish, Mrs. Leta Thomas, Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mrs. Ed Gonty and Mrs. Roice Fullerton.

Presiding at the two-day meeting at the Moore Hotel was Miss Bernadine Batters of Vancouver, Wn., district director. Representatives were present from 26 of the 28 clubs in the district to hear an outstanding program of speakers, participate in buzz-sessions and social activities arranged by the district officers and the host club, assisted by members of the Baker club. A tour of the ORE-IDA Frozen Food plant was also a part of the program.

The meeting last week opened with a short candlelight ceremony, honoring the founding of the first Soroptimist club in Oakland, Calif., on October 3, 1921. A brief history was read by Mrs. Sherman, president.

Sorority Sponsors October Activities

IONE — Mrs. Gene Rietmann was hostess for the October meeting of Beta Omega Sorority at her country home, Mrs. Ralph Kincaid was assisting hostess.

Plans were made for serving the banquet for the Mid-Columbia Association at the Grange hall last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Donald Peterson was chairman of this event.

Assisting the American Legion in maintaining the Legion hall was adopted as the philanthropic service for the coming year.

Mrs. Bill Rietmann, chairman of social events, announced a "hard times" dance at the old Morgan schoolhouse on Saturday evening, October 24. Members, their husbands, and invited guests will attend.

Sunday guests at the Archie Padberg home were Edwin Tucker and son, Danny of Salem, Mary Evelyn Tucker also of Salem and Gordon Ross of Woodburn. The group took a short hunting trip during the day but were unsuccessful.

Guests Welcomed To Degree of Honor Annual Observance

Guest night was observed by the Degree of Honor Protective Association at its last meeting, October 13, at the First Christian church. Thirteen guests, including three from Magnolia Lodge, Pendleton, were present.

President Lucille Parrish welcomed the guests. All were presented gifts of homemade jelly in an original skit by two Lexington members, Ardith Hunt and Freda Majeske, who, appropriately dressed as witches, produced the jelly from an old iron pot in Halloween atmosphere.

Miss Doris Robison had charge of the guest book and the pinning of identification tags.

The president gave a resume of the year's social activities and the past state president gave an informative address on protection offered by the association.

Corsages, made by Mrs. Earl Soward and Mrs. Pete McMurtry, were presented the past state president, the local president and visiting president, Mrs. Eileen Hockensmith of Pendleton. She was also presented a gift.

Hostesses for the evening, Mary Bryant and Theta Stratton, were given gifts of appreciation. The serving table and social room were beautifully decorated with fall foliage, where the group of about 40 were served a
