Medicare Tax? No ☐
Health Care for the Elderly? Yes ☑

Let's look at the facts about the proposed Medicare Tax...and a medical care program for the aged that already exists!

What's the hurry here? The supporters of the proposed Medicare Tax would have you believe that passage of this controversial bill is urgent... that persons over 65 are deprived of needed medical care because they can't pay for it.

Nothing could be further from the truth. The Kerr-Mills Law, passed by Congress in 1960—and other state and local programs—enable individual states to guarantee to every elderly person who needs help the health care he or she requires.

We call this health program...Health Opportunity Program for the Elderly. Thousands of people every day are being helped by its generous benefits. And, unlike Medicare, which would substantially increase your Social Security Tax payroll deductions, this Health Program is already being paid for by a part of your present tax dollar!

Medicare Tax? No. Health Care for the Elderly? Yes! For more information on this program, ask your doctor or call the number listed below.

Campaign at Peak As Election Date Twelve Days Away

the rest of the ballot, Justice Kenneth J. O'Connell runs unopposed for position two on the state Supreme Court, and Justice Gordon Sloan is unopposed for position three. For position seven, however, Judge Ralph Holman of Oregon City and Judge Edward H. Howell of John Day, the two high vote getters in the primary election, oppose each other.

For justice of the peace in the Heppner district, upon which all voters in the county cast ballots except those in Boardman and Irrigon, William J. (Jim) Devine and Earl Seward, two top candidates in the primary election, are in competition.

In the Irrigon area, there will be a special separate ballot on the question of forming an Irrigon community park and recreation district. Three directors are to be selected if the measure is approved. On the ballot are five candidates: Orville Buchanan, Wilma Elgin, Billy Griffin, James Keith, and Coy M. Reed.

Additional interest in the November 3 election comes from city races. Both Ione and Heppner have contests for some positions. Heppner will have competition in the positions of mayor, treasurer and recorder, while Ione will have races for councilmen.
