

Homecoming Game, Dance Saturday

BY KATHERINE LINDSTROM

Homecoming festivities will be Saturday, October 31, at Ione High school. A football game against Wheeler county school will be played in the afternoon, and a dance in the cafeteria with the "Avanties" playing, will begin at 8 p.m.

Candidates for Homecoming Queen are Betty Hausler, freshmen; Karen Nelson, sophomores; Susan Lindstrom, juniors; and Sandra Holstein, seniors. The queen will be crowned at half-time during the afternoon game.

Masonic Lodge Entertains Youth, Men at Banquet

Masonic Lodge No. 120, A.F. & A.M., entertained the high school boys and the male faculty members of the grade and high school with a banquet at the Masonic hall last Wednesday evening.

Charles O'Connor was master of ceremonies for the dinner. After several introductions, Don Turner of Heppner gave a short speech, after which the boys saw some films of water skiing.

Serving on the dinner committee were Mrs. Walter Jacobs, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Jr., and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom. Members of the Eastern Star also decorated the tables in the autumn theme. About sixty were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crow of Cascade, B. C. have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keene for several weeks. Mrs. Keene and Mrs. Crow are sisters. They have also been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell in Lexington.

Mrs. Dale Ray is spending some time in The Dalles to be near Mr. Ray, who is a patient in The Dalles General hospital.

Sue Townsend and her friend, Deana Day of Mulino, spent the week-end here visiting Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Townsend. Both the girls are students at Northwestern School of Commerce.

Mrs. C. C. Brenner took her mother, Mrs. Vela Eubanks, to the hospital in Heppner last Thursday following a heart attack she suffered at the home of Mrs. Clara Kincaid, where she is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimblinger spent several days the last of the week visiting relatives at Odessa, Wn.

Mrs. Walter Dohyns of Eugene is visiting friends and relatives here. She spent last week with her nephews, Robert and Herbert Peterson and families, and is visiting this week with Mrs. Edith Nicholson. Mrs. Nicholson entertained with a coffee hour in her honor on Tuesday.

Mrs. Elmer Griffith is spending the week at Lake Oswego with her three granddaughters. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Haugen, are spending the week in Washington, D. C., and will also visit in New York City before returning home. Mr. Haugen recently was appointed special assistant to Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, to act as coordinator of all the Oregon agencies engaged in the new poverty program, which includes education of the illiterate, gainful employment for those displaced by automation, and school dropouts, training camps, welfare programs and many other agencies. He will meet in Washington with Sargeant Shriver and representatives from other states.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schaffer returned on Friday from a three weeks trip which took them down the Oregon coast to California. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Orville Preston at Oceanlake and with F. M. McClintock, who formerly operated the store at Cecil. He now owns and operates a trailer court at Idleyle Park on the Diamond Lake road going out of Roseburg. They spent most of their vacation with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schaffer and family at Concord, Calif. While there they were entertained with a dinner in honor of their 30th wedding anniversary.

D-Ann Barnett celebrated her ninth birthday with a party at her home given by her mother, Mrs. James Barnett, last Friday afternoon. Guests included all the girls from the fourth grade: Cindy Ekstrom, Melissa and Kathleen McElligott, Christina Lindstrom, Ann Hoskins, Carol Wiley, Nancy Ashurst, Debby Youcum, Ginger Nedry, Karen Crowell, Helen Byrne, Shelley Scarborough, and Jeanette Lujan. The girls played games and enjoyed birthday cake and ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hynd, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs and family, and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schaffer at dinner on Sunday at their home near Cecil.

Noel Dohyns of Florence and Mrs. Juanita Guile of Medford were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen.

Mrs. Bill Rietmann was hostess for the Amica Club last Wednesday afternoon at her home. Co-hostess was Mrs. Ray Boyce. Members played "Charge Account," after the meeting, and prizes were won by Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid, high; Mrs. Robert Rietmann, second high; Mrs. Ed Patton, low; and Mrs. Pete Cannon won floor prize.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Miller and family were Mr. and Mrs. James Arment and family of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, and Mrs. Archie Munkers of Lexington attended the funeral of a cousin, LeRoy Miller, at Hermiston on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker spent Saturday night in Hermiston, with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Baker. Their granddaughter, Sheila, was celebrating her birthday.

Mrs. Roland Bergstrom and Mrs. Walter Jacobs were shopping in Portland on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Townsend spent Monday at Hermiston visiting Mrs. Harold Townsend, who is critically ill in the hospital there.

Arleta McCabe, a student at EOCE at La Grande, spent the week-end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe. She was accompanied by her roommate, Sharon Maki.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews and Berniece and Deniece and Mrs. Berl Akers and Bonnie spent Saturday in Portland shopping.

Mrs. Thomas Harrison of Cascade Locks was here over the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison and son.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen this week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen of Medford.

Mrs. Gordon White, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles White and son, Chandler of Portland, spent the week-end with Gordon White and other relatives.

Joe Dixon of The Dalles is spending some time here painting at the Victor Rietmann home. Mrs. Dixon came on Tuesday and is visiting at the home of Mrs. Oscar Lundell.

Stephen Lindstrom, a student at Pacific Lutheran University
