

County OEA Has Richard Barss As Guest Speaker

By MARY LEE MARLOW
BOARDMAN — Richard Barss, publications and ethics advisor of the OEA, of Portland, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Morrow County OEA here last week. His subject was "Teaching ethics and the need for written policies in such."
 Committee meetings were held from 4:30 to 5 p.m.
 In the future the executive committee will meet once a month to conduct the business of the OEA. Gordon Pratt of Heppner is president.
 The dinner was furnished by the Mother's club of Boardman Grade school.

St. Mary's Altar Society met Tuesday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Lester Leroux. Various ways of making money were discussed, and it was decided that several of the members would knit an afghan to be raffled off in December. Mrs. Peter Matz will be in charge of the project. The group will also have religious Christmas cards to sell, with Mrs. Bob Thornhill in charge.
 Mrs. Delmer Hug and Mrs. Thornhill will be in charge of the church for November.
 The travel prize was won by Mrs. Hug.
 The next meeting will be a dinner meeting in Pendleton November 17. The place will be decided later.
