HO! HO! HO!

I Can See
Morrow County Folks Have
Converted To Electric Heat 'Cause
There's Snow on Their Chimneys Tonight!

That's a mighty sound deduction, Santa. Yes, many have switched to ELECTRIC HEAT and for six good reasons. . . .

1. It's More Comfortable
... No drafts . . . no hot and cold blasts . . . uniform temperature
2. It's More Convenient
No pipes, ducts, radiators, chim- neys, nor furnaces . . . change any room's temperature as desired . . . no filters to clean
3. It's Cleaner
No flame, no soot, no ashes, no dirt . . . no air blowing through dusty pipes
4. It's Safer
No explosive gases . . . no fumes . . . no fire hazard . . . no pilot light to go out . . . safe as the light you read by
5. It's Healthier
... Oxygen is not consumed by a flame . . . air always clean and fresh . . . no hot spots nor chilling drafts
6. It's Economical
Low installation cost . . . low de- preciation . . . low maintenance . . . no wasted heat in unused rooms or up a chimney . . . no aux- iliary motors

Santa, Don't You Wish Everyone Had ELECTRIC HEAT? We'll Bet Mrs. Claus Does!
