Supper and Party Aids Eye Clinic

An unprecedented venture of the local Elks proved highly successful last Wednesday evening when some 140 persons turned out for the benefit supper and card party, with proceeds going to the Elks' Eye Clinic, charitable project of the local lodge.

In charge of the buffet supper arrangements were Mrs. Wallace Wolff, Mrs. Marshall Lovgren and Mrs. Darrell Padberg. Serving were Mrs. Stacey Lovgren and Mrs. Bob Buschke. Mrs. Glen Ward, Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mrs. Hene Wyman and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orwick were in charge of the ticket sales.

Tallying high scores for the many tables of bridge and pinocle in play were: For bridge—Jim Driscoll, Mrs. Jim Driscoll and Harlan McCurdy, Jr. Pinocle winners were Mrs. Ola Ruggles, Miss Carolyn Bergstrom and Mrs. Walter Beckett. Four door prize winners included Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. George Snyder, Mrs. Marjorie Worden and Jim Farley.

Lodge officers' wives handled the card party preparations.

Lutherans Schedule Thanksgiving Meet

Annual traditional Thanksgiving Day worship will be at Valley Lutheran church at 10 a.m. Thursday, the Rev. Kenneth Robinson, pastor, announces. "All are cordially invited to express their gratitude to God for the blessings we have received as individuals and a nation," the Rev. Robinson said.

MISS JOANN MAHON

December Wedding Planned by Couple

Mrs. Maxine Mahon of Elgin recently announced the engagement of her daughter, Joann, to Aaron Stubblefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Stubblefield of Walla Walla. Miss Mahon is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel and of Mrs. Joe Mahon, and the great granddaughter of Mrs. Maude Robinson. She visits frequently with relatives in the Hardman and Heppner area.

A public wedding is planned for Saturday, December 26, at 4 p.m. in the Elgin Church of the Nazarene.

Miss Mahon is a 1963 graduate of Elgin High school and attended a dental assistants' school in Portland. She is employed as dental assistant at the Birch Street Walla Walla clinic. They will make their home near Walla Walla, where Mr. Stubblefield is employed as a correctional officer at the Washington State Prison.

Joint Party Honors Two Raymond Sisters

Friday, the 13th, was a joyful and happy day for Diana and Donna Raymond as they celebrated their ninth and eighth birthdays, respectively, at a joint party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Raymond. Thirteen youngsters gathered after school to play indoor games and wish them "happy birthday." Two cakes, decorated in the shape of Mickey and Minnie Mouse, were served with ice cream by their mother, after the opening of gifts.

Attending were Norene Cecil, Mabelle Mattair, Tony Toll, Lolita Marquardt, Joyce Marquardt, David McLachlan, Bobby Todd, Mary Henry, Phillip James and Susan Raymond, besides the honored guests, Diana and Donna.

PTA Program Shares Talks by Principals With Honor Ceremony

Hillard Brown and Gordon Pratt, Heppner elementary and high school principals, were guest speakers at an informative and well attended meeting of the Heppner PTA last Wednesday evening.

Both discussed the importance of an effective student-teacher relationship, whereby individual student personality and maturity differences may be given special consideration through counseling and separate instruction. Mr. Brown also gave an explanation of how reading is currently being taught in the lower elementary grades.

Nine Heppner high school students were initiated into the National Honor Society, as part of the evening program, in an impressive candlelight ceremony, led by Stuart Dick, local chapter president.

Initiates, who have maintained at least a 3.00 grade average, were Margaret Marks, Shirley Erwin, Erna Winchester, Steve Warren, Mark Murray, Joan Stockard, David Matheny, Jean Siewert and Brenda Young.

Mrs. Paul Brown announced plans for a college accredited beginners' drawing course in the spring. At least 14 persons are needed to complete the extension class and anyone desiring further information may contact Hillard Brown.

Rhea Creek Grange Home Economics Club Reelects Officers

Mrs. Ben Anderson presided at the November meeting of the Rhea Creek Grange Home Economics club, held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Walter Wright, beginning with a potluck luncheon that was followed by a business meeting in the afternoon.

Election of officers on the business agenda was modified through unanimous decision of the club members to retain the present officers, who are Mrs. Ben Anderson, chairman; Mrs. Oran Wright, vice chairman, and Mrs. Walter Wright, secretary-treasurer.

There will be no regular December meeting, but the annual Christmas party is planned for Sunday, December 20, at the Grange hall, beginning at 1 p.m. There will be a potluck dinner followed by a Christmas program and gift exchange. Each family is requested to contribute a number to the program.

Attending this month's meeting were Mrs. Dean Graves, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Barton Clark, Mrs. Ronald Haguewood, Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Tom Huston, Mrs. Oran Wright, Mrs. Ned Clark, Mrs. Ray Drake, Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Evelyn Farness, Miss Marilyn Bergstrom and the hostess, Mrs. Walter Wright. The January meeting will be held Thursday, January 21, at the home of Mrs. Ray Wright.

Stork Shower Party Honors Mrs. Mahoney

Mrs. Bob Mahoney was complimented by friends at the Roice-Fulleton home Friday evening, November 13, with a pink and blue shower party. Assisting Mrs. Fulleton was her daughter, Mrs. Archie Ball, Jr. Pink fall flowers were used in decorating the rooms where guests participated in playing appropriate games, and prizes awarded the winners. Many lovely gifts were opened by the honored guest, after which the hostesses served refreshments of salads and hot rolls.

Those attending were Mrs. Phil Mahoney, mother-in-law of the honoree, Mrs. Clint McQuarrie, Mrs. Lowell Gribble, Mrs. Archie Ball, Sr., Mrs. Pat Brindle, Mrs. Ned Clark, Mrs. J. W. Norene, Mrs. Bob Webb, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Jr., Mrs. Beth Flack, Mrs. Herb Ekstrom, Jr., Mrs. Bernard Damon, Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Mrs. Bob Jones, Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Mrs. Mahoney, Mrs. Ball and Mrs. Fulleton.

Mrs. Abrams Hostess At Bookworm Meet

Mrs. Bob Abrams was hostess to the Bookworms when they convened recently at her home to hear Mrs. Harold Beckett review a humorous novel by Taylor Caldwell entitled, "Grandmother and the Priests." The book, with its setting in England, recounted the experiences of 11 priests who related them to an elderly lady at dinner parties in her home at different times.

The hostess served lemon chiffon pie to those attending. Mrs. Beckett, Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. Lucy Peterson, Mrs. Harold Erwin and Mrs. Ted Smith.

Lodge Dinner Brings Out Large Gathering

Kate J. Young Lodge No. 29 of the Degree of Honor Protective Association held its annual Thanksgiving dinner Saturday evening at the First Christian church. Approximately 75 members, their families and guests enjoyed the bountiful meal and pleasant evening.

Mrs. Lucille Parrish, president, welcomed those present and introduced the after dinner speakers. Mrs. Clara B. Gertson spoke on her travels and experiences as president of Oregon Fraternal Congress and Mrs. Bill Farra, past state president and present secretary of the local lodge, spoke on activities of the past year.

Ministers of the area, representing the various church affiliations of the members, were among invited guests. Present were Father Bruce Spencer, who gave the invocation; Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon; Rev. and Mrs. Len Fishback and Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward.

Entertainment was furnished by Robert Lowe who showed films of his recent trip to England.

Hostesses were Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Prudy Casebeer and Mrs. Parrish. Decorations were by Mrs. Soward, and preparing the turkey and trimmings were Mrs. Ed Gonty, Theta Stratton and Mrs. Alice McCabe.
