Schwarz Elected As Mason Master

Members of Heppner lodge No. 69, AF & AM, Tuesday night elected Len Roy Schwarz to serve as master for 1965. Other officers elected are: Marion Green, senior warden; Howard Bryant, junior warden; John Pfeiffer, treasurer; and Don Turner, secretary.

Master-elect Schwarz appointed Herman Winter senior deacon, Hubert Wilson junior deacon, Tom Hughes senior steward, Don Gilliam junior steward, John Venard tiler, Clarence Baker chaplain, and Paul Jones marshal, all to serve under him for 1965.

Claude Graham was elected to a 3-year term on the Masonic building committee.

Newly elected officers of Royal Arch Masons, No. 26, Heppner, include Miles McKay, high priest; Don Turner, king; Joe Hayes, scribe; C. J. D. Bauman, treasurer; and Larry Cook, secretary.

Joint installation will be at the Masonic Hall on Saturday, December 12, at 8 p.m. The installation will be public but a dinner at 6:30 for Masons and their wives will precede the installation. Mrs. Charles Stout, worthy matron of Ruth chapter No. 32, and her committee will be in charge of the dinner.

Invitation Extended To Wedding Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg announce the forthcoming marriage of Mrs. Padberg's daughter, Mary Evelyn Tucker, to Gordon Lee Boss of Woodburn, on Wednesday, December 23, at 8 p.m., in the Trinity Methodist church, 590 Elma Ave., S. E., Salem.

A reception will be held for the couple on Saturday, January 2, at the Heppner Methodist church, beginning at 8 p.m. The couple cordially invites all friends and relatives to attend the wedding and reception.

Thanksgiving Observed Many Ways by Families in Local Area

Thanksgiving was observed by many family groups in the area with traditional dinners and visiting. It provided an opportunity for many to come home from distances to be with relatives and friends, some to get a last fling at hunting, and others to brave the traffic and visit elsewhere. For many it was a day just to stay home, keep warm and get a good rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey of Gig Harbor, Wn., arrived here last Tuesday, in order that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bailey, could accompany them to Olympia, Wn., where they were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stout. Thanksgiving was spent in Winlock, Wn., where the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dempsey was the scene of a large Bailey family get-together. Mr. Dempsey is a grand daughter of the N. D. Baileys.

Thanksgiving Day guests at the Elmer Berry home were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Berry, and his brother and sister-in-law and three children, the Lawrence Berrys, all of Echo.

Elmer Berry is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital where he is recovering from a fractured right leg, suffered in a logging accident three weeks ago. He expects to be released to go home this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Loyd and Tim arrived home Sunday from spending the Thanksgiving Day week-end in John Day at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. E. Loyd, and in LaGrande with Mrs. Loyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Trowbridge.

California visitors last week at the Jim Phegley home were Mrs. Phegley's parents from

Heppner Unit Plans Christmas Observance At December Meeting

The Riley Munkers home will be the scene of the Heppner Extension Unit's December meeting, beginning at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, December 8. There will be a potluck dinner at noon.

A holiday atmosphere will be enhanced with a gift exchange of gifts costing no more than one dollar each.

December is also the month the unit remembers patients at the State hospital in Pendleton with gifts that may be chosen from a multitude of welcome articles. Mrs. R. G. Watkins, unit chairman, has a list of gift suggestions for anyone wishing to contact her. It is requested that the gifts not be wrapped as they only have to be unwrapped for inspection at the hospital, although one may include gift wrapping supplies if they so desire.

Members attending the meeting will be presented a candle making demonstration by Mrs. Ray Drake.

Annual Bazaar Offers Luncheon, Gift Items To Public Saturday

Sponsored by the Episcopal Church Women the annual Episcopal Church Bazaar will open its doors to the public on Saturday, December 5, at the church parish hall, with a luncheon being served from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Charge for the luncheon will be $1.00 for adults and $.50 for children, with merchants and families extended a special invitation.

Many tables will be attractively laden with a multitude of handcrafted needlework items, homemade candy and baked foods, priced reasonably for ideal Christmas giving. The booths will be open from 11:30 a.m. until late in the afternoon.

Committee workers in charge of the arrangements and preparations of the annual event include the names of Mrs. Elmer Berry, Mrs. Paul Brown, Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Clarence Rosewell, Mrs. Jim Norene, Mrs. Merrit Gray, Mrs. Gordon Pratt, Mrs. Bob Abrams, Mrs. Lavern Van Marter, Jr., Mrs. Don Turner and Mrs. Clint McQuarrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott and their three children were Thanksgiving Day guests in Kurus at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck.

Visiting friends and relatives here for four days last week were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bryant of Portland where he is a student at Multnomah Junior College.

Dr. Francis Nickerson, associate Dean of Students at the University of Oregon, his son and daughter, Eric and Alice, spent Thanksgiving here at the home of his mother, Mrs. Grace Nickerson. Accompanying them from Eugene was a high school exchange student from Thailand, who is presently making her home with the Nickersons. While here she was thrilled with a trip into the mountains where she experienced her first ice skating and play in the snow.

HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES, Thursday, December 3, 1964

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Daley and their two youngsters, Colette and Heidi, arrived here Friday from Portland to spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. Daley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Laird.

A welcomed guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gunderson and family for the Thanksgiving holidays was Mrs. Lucille Troedson of Wilsonville, mother of Mr. Gunderson. She had recently returned from a vacation trip to Hawaii, bringing with her native leis to members of the Gunderson household.

Enjoying a family get-together in Richland, Wn., on Thanksgiving Day were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles and Mrs. Gloria Ruggles. They motored to the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pastabend and family, returning late the same day. The Ruggles also enjoyed a recent visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Sayrs of Moro, who came to Heppner to share with the Ruggles in the wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson and son John, former residents and now living in Eugene, were among those motoring to Heppner to enjoy Thanksgiving vacation with friends. They were holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Agee and family, returning to Eugene on Sunday.

Coming from Pendleton to enjoy Thanksgiving Day at the Wilbur Worden home were Mr. and Mrs. Doss Knighten and children, Jeri, Greg and Sue.
