

THANKSGIVING LOCALS

Thanksgiving week-end was an occasion for a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman. Coming November 29 for several week's stay was Mrs. H. A. Sherman, Sr. of Forest Grove, mother of Mr. Sherman; home from University of Oregon was a son, Bill and arriving late Friday were a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherman of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt inured from their home in Salem to be Thanksgiving guests of Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon. Mr. Schmidt, a cousin of Rev. Dixon, was guest soloist at the Community Thanksgiving service last Wednesday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Schmidt, who is church organist at First Methodist church in Salem.

Among college students coming home for the Thanksgiving holidays were Miss Martha Peterson and Miss Gail Hoskins, both in school in Portland. They rode home in company with Mrs. George Griffith.

Coming from Salem to enjoy some hunting and visiting with relatives at the Archie Padberg home on Thanksgiving was Edwin Tucker. Accompanying him was Mary Evelyn Tucker, who is teaching in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg, Jr., and family, were week-end guests.

A family dinner Thursday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty included the presence of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gonty, and four children of Seattle, Wn. and their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Terry Blevins and Patti of Ukiah.

Frank Turner motored to Portland last week to enjoy several days at the home of his daughter and granddaughters, Mrs. Anabel Allison, Jo and Jan. While there he was honored with a dinner in observance of his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Connor and daughter Lori, of Hillsboro spent the Thanksgiving holiday visiting friends and relatives here. They were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Connor.

Mrs. Kay Corbin of LaGrande visited with relatives here the past week-end, including her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Leonnig, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Corbin.
