Christmas Observed By Special Program Of Lone Garden Club

The Lone Garden Club met December 8 at the home of Mrs. Omar Rietmann for the annual Christmas party. Seventeen members and guests answered roll call with delightful reminiscences of childhood memories as observed in their various homes.

Mrs. Nels Anderson read the booklet "Let's Keep Christmas" by Peter Marshall. It was suggested that if people did not feel the Christmas spirit, they should read the little book, which pointed out that old decorations mean the most and old memories are the loveliest. As a part of the program, the gift exchange packages were judged and first, second, and third most attractive packages were indicated.

During the business meeting, Mrs. F. T. Martin, chairman of the tree committee, reported on a recent board meeting of the Garden Club Federation in Eugene. State and district officers were guests at a Sears Roebuck "brag dinner" at which time Mrs. Martin spoke on the tree planting project in Lone, sponsored by the Garden club and Lion's club.

Following the business meeting, packages were made up to be given persons about town who would probably be alone at Christmas.

A guest, Mrs. Herman Winter of Heppner became a member. Other members from Heppner and Lexington were also present. The next meeting will be January 12 at the home of Mrs. E. C. Heliker with Mrs. Lonnie Henderson of Lexington as co-hostess. Mrs. Ralph Crum will be in charge of the program on "It's For the Birds."

Piano Pupils Give Christmas Program

Music of the Christmas season, presented by the piano pupils of Mrs. D. E. Hudson, was enjoyed by many friends and relatives at an informal Christmas program Monday evening in the Morrow county roller rink.

The Rev. J. G. Weller opened the program with an invocation, followed by the group singing of "Joy to the World." At the conclusion of the musical program and the benediction by the Rev. Weller, Mrs. Hudson presented each of her pupils a gift of sheet music.

More carol singing, with piano accompaniment by Bonnie Akers, preceded roller skating for all and refreshments of cupcakes, coffee and punch were served by Mrs. Hudson and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Hudson.

Students presenting the musical selections were Susan and Judith Weller, Lisa Collins, Terry and Teresa Hughes, Kathy Gordon, Kristi, Kimee, Lu and Kelwayne Hagawood, Jill Scott, Teena and Teresa Stefani, Lisa McCabe, Georgena McDaniel, Karla Weatherford and Bonnie Akers.

Kathy Totum, six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Amanda Totum, entered Shriners' hospital in Portland on Thursday, December 10. She is to have foot surgery in about two weeks.

Large Turnout Views Installation Ceremony Of Masonic Lodges

New officers of Heppner Masonic lodge No. 69, AF&AM, and Royal Arch Masons No. 26, were installed Saturday evening, December 12, at the Heppner Masonic hall.

Len Ray Schwarz was installed master for the coming year; Marion Green, senior warden; Howard Bryant, junior warden; John Pfeiffer, treasurer; Don Turner, secretary; Hubert Wilson, junior deacon; Clarence Baker, chaplain, and Paul Jones, marshal.

Don Turner was installing officer and Paul Jones served as installing marshal.

With Paul Jones as installing officer and Harold Becket as installing marshal, Miles McKay of Arlington was installed in the office of high priest of RAM No. 26. Serving with him will be Don Turner, king; Joe Hayes of Kinzua, scribe; Clarence Baker, captain of hosts; Ken Walters of Arlington, principal sojourner; Marion Green, master of the third veil, and Robert Abrams, sentinel.

Mrs. Virginia C. Turner served as musician for both ceremonies.

Retiring Master Ray Williamson of Prairie City, was presented with a past master's jewel and he, in turn, thanked various brothers for their help during his tenure.

Robert Abrams, retiring high priest, reviewed the progress of Heppner chapter No. 26 during the past year and made suggestions for future activities.

Over 100 Masons, Eastern Star members and their husbands or wives attended the dinner which preceded the installation ceremonies.

Blake-Fitzgerald Wedding Vows Said At November Church Ceremony

St. Hilda's Episcopal church in Monmouth was the scene of a lovely winter wedding on Friday, November 27, that joined in marriage Miss Beverly Lucille Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard A. Blake, and David E. Fitzgerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fitzgerald, all of Monmouth.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 4 p.m. by the Rev. Benjamin Samson, before a formal setting of white chrysanthemums. Organist was Mrs. Edwin Brandt of Monmouth, who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Victor G. Krebs of Salem when she sang, "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, appeared in a floor length gown of white nylon lace, fashioned with scalloped boat neckline, long sleeves extending to a point at the wrist, and a tiered bouffant skirt. Her elbow length veil fell from a pearl tiara head-dress. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Barbara Blake, wearing a blue velvet sheath dress with matching pill-box hat and shadow veil. She carried a single white rose.

Bridesmaids were Terri Fitzgerald, a sister of the groom; and Jennifer, Karen and Kathy Blake, sisters of the bride. They wore identical sheath gowns of blue velvet, carried single white roses and wore matching pill box hats with illusion veils.

Serving as best man was Peter Bagdanoff, brother-in-law of the groom.

Ushers were Larry Harding, Paul Clinton, Perry York and Dennis Herbison.

Immediately following the ceremony, the newlyweds greeted their friends and relatives at a formal reception in the church parish hall.

Cutting the bride's cake was Mrs. Paul Heinrichs, Heppner, and Mrs. James G. Barratt, Corvallis, both aunts of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Coy Cossey, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Peter Bagdanoff, sister of the groom.

Passing the guest book was Brenda Barratt, cousin of the bride, and presiding at the gift table was Mrs. Darrell Blake, aunt of the bride. Passing out rice bags were Janet Barratt and Rebecca Cossey, cousins of the bride and groom.

For going away, the new bride wore a two-piece apricot wool dress made by her mother-in-law, with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the newlywed couple is now at home at Monmouth Mobile Home court, Monmouth. The bride, a graduate of Heppner High school in 1962, is attending school at Oregon College of Education and the groom is employed by Georgia-Pacific.

Since leaving Heppner in August, Mr. and Mrs. Blake, parents of the bride, have made their home at 262 Stadium Drive So., in Monmouth. Mr. Blake is working toward his degree at OCE and working part time at Boise-Cascade Corp., and Mrs. Blake is employed as a secretary at the college.

Attending the wedding from Heppner were Mrs. Kenneth Blake, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinrichs and Paula, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Van Bloklund.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Blake of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parker of Fowler, Calif., grandparents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kantz and son Dean of Kingsburg, Calif., uncle and aunt of the groom.
