Rhea Grange Families Gather for Annual Christmas Festivities

In spite of the extreme weather and ice slickened roads some 50 persons attended the annual Rhea Creek Grange Christmas party, held Sunday afternoon in the Grange hall.

A family program of readings, tap dancing and ballet dancing, carols, several Yuletide piano selections and a gift exchange followed a delicious turkey potluck dinner, served from tables gaily decorated with Christmas candles and greenery.

Much to the enjoyment of the youngsters, Santa was there to make note of their Christmas wishes.

Miss Marilyn Bergstrom and Mrs. Orian Wright handled many of the arrangements for the festive afternoon.

Service Work of Club Includes Gift Sharing During Yule Season

Christmas was observed at the regular luncheon meeting of the Scroptimist club last Thursday noon. A report was heard from Mrs. Fred Parrish, service objectives chairman, on the sending of a Christmas box of toys and gifts to a needy mother and her family in the Boardman area. Donations were made to the State Hospital Christmas fund, and Christmas dinners will be provided by the club for some of the local single men. She also reported sending the book "Oregon Desert" to the sister club in Tamworth, England, as a Christmas gift.

Emphasis on the importance of keeping the old-fashioned spirit of Christmas in the home was brought to the attention of members by Mrs. Loyal Parker as she read the booklet by Peter Marshall, "Let's Keep Christmas." Those present then told of a favorite family custom that they enjoyed in their homes in early years or continue to observe.

A box of small cactus plants, received by the club from one of its members, Mrs. Leta Thomas now in Arizona, was opened and distributed as gifts to those present.

The regular meeting of this week was cancelled, but will resume at noon next Thursday, December 31.

Two senior guests from Heppner High school present for the December 10 meeting were Misses Kathy Ray and Jill Cline.

Aids Memorial Fund

The Busy Needles 4-H club had a meeting December 8 at Mrs. Spohn's home. Mrs. Holtz took us out. We decided to put three dollars into the Esther Kirnis Memorial fund. We were to meet again December 15.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson spent last week-end in Astoria visiting with her mother, Mrs. Frank Spittle, who was very seriously ill in the hospital there. A short time after returning home, Mrs. Peterson received word that her mother had passed away on Friday.

Reception at Portland Home of George Krebs Honors Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs of Portland, were honored Sunday, December 13, with an open house reception at their home in observance of their 45th wedding anniversary.

Some 100 friends and relatives were on hand to compliment the Krebs at the reception given for them by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Harman, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Krebs, Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Evans of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Krebs were married in Heppner 45 years ago and ranched in Ceell until moving to Portland in 1946. They, however, retain interests in the vicinity.

Wedding bells highlighted the lovely decorations on the large sheet cake that was served with coffee and punch to guests by a sister-in-law of Mr. Krebs, Mrs. Henry Krebs of Arlington. Pouring were two sisters of Krebs, Mrs. Roy Hurst, Arlington, and Mrs. Lena Sommerfeldt of Portland. Attending the guest book was the honored couple's granddaughter, Mrs. Joe Eddington of Walla Walla.

Arrangements of pink carnations and silver leaves were centered, along with pink tapers, on the lace covered serving table.
