Harman to Report On TB Case Findings At Tuesday Meeting

Don Harman, case finding director from the Oregon TB and Health Association, will be guest speaker at a joint meeting of Morrow County TB and Health Association officers and directors and members of the Board of Pioneer Memorial hospital at the county courthouse Tuesday evening, January 12, according to Mrs. Marcel Jones, county president. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Mr. Harman will review what is being found currently in case findings and is expected to evaluate the county's present X-Ray program.

All county association officers and directors and hospital board members are urged to be present.

Altar Society Plans For Coming Activities

Several items of business were discussed at the meeting of the Altar Society of St. Patrick's Catholic church in the parish hall Tuesday evening.

New officers presided, which include Mrs. E. E. Gonty, president; Mrs. Larry Najjar, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Laughlin, secretary, and Mrs. Dick Robinson, treasurer.

Plans were discussed for the serving of the Holy Name breakfast for the men on Sunday, January 10. Serving on the breakfast committee are Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Mrs. M. G. Stephens and Mrs. Jim Healy.

The sponsoring of a food sale before Valentine's Day was planned, with place and date to be announced.

Joint Installation Planned by Lodges

Officers of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 and IOOF Lodge No. 66 will be installed at a joint installation ceremony Saturday evening, January 9, at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be preceded by a dinner at 6:30, with families and friends invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty and sons Thomas and Doug, motored to Portland Sunday to attend the appliance open house of Lou Johnson Co. where they saw many of the new 1965 radio and TV models. They also had a short visit with Mrs. Gonty's mother, Mrs. C. F. Hemrich in Beaverton.

Nelsons Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Delwin O. Nelson of Lexington have recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Jean, to Robert P. Kroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kroll of Corvallis. A late summer wedding is planned.

Miss Nelson, a graduate of Heppner High School in 1964, is enrolled as a freshman at Linfield College, McMinnville. Mr. Kroll is a junior student at Linfield, where he is an English major. He was graduated from Corvallis High School.

Church Reception Compliments Couple Following Wedding

A large gathering of relatives and friends was present Saturday evening at the First Methodist church for a wedding reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Ross, whose marriage was an event of December 23 in Salem. Mrs. Ross is the former Mary Evelyn Tucker, daughter of Mrs. Archie Padberg, Sr., and grew up in the Heppner community, where she was very active in church and school affairs.

Members of the Womens Society of Christian Service of the church were hostesses for the evening. Many beautiful gifts were presented the couple, with Mrs. Dean Connor attending the gift table, assisted by Teresa and Nana Tucker, nieces of the bride.

During the social hour, entertainment included a solo by Teresa Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker of Jone. She sang "O Promise Me" accompanied by Mrs. C. M. Wagner.

Guests were served from a beautifully appointed table which carried out a pink and white color theme. Serving the cake was Mrs. Ervin Anderson, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Dixon, Mrs. Roy Kirk, poured punch and Mrs. Eldon Tucker, sister-in-law of the bride, poured coffee and tea. Mrs. Michael Gray was in charge of the guest book.

A special decorative note was an arrangement of hibiscus flowers sent from a friend in Hawaii especially for the reception.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Tucker of Hermiston; Lois H. Wickersham of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker and family of Jone, and Miss Janet Cecil of Spray.

The newlywed couple returned to Salem on Sunday, where they make their home at 1320 Nebraska St., N. E.

Extension to Study New Unit on Ironing

"New Wrinkles in Ironing" will be the January project lesson of the Heppner Home Extension Unit at a regular unit meeting scheduled for Tuesday, January 12, at the Bud Peck home, beginning at 10:30 a.m. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon.

Project leaders for this month's lesson will be Mrs. Alice McCabe and Mrs. Keithley Blake.

Bob Kroll of Corvallis was houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Nelson and Phyllis for several days during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Kroll and Phyllis are both students of Linfield college. The Nelsons went to McMinnville December 17 to bring their daughter home from college and got caught in the snowstorm near Rooster Rock on the trip home. They turned back and stayed in Portland until Sunday before they could get through, but made it prior to the flood. Nelson described the snowstorm in the gorge as "terrible."

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schroeder left Monday for their home in Tillamook after spending the New Year week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holloman.

New Year's visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cox of Corvallis, and their daughter, Mrs. George Holden of Project City, Wn. Like many other family groups their visits, previously planned for Christmas, were delayed because of impossible traveling conditions.

For Your Protection Turner, Van Marter and Bryant Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: I would like to learn if this extended coverage insurance which I understand pays for windstorm damage is sold by itself or if I can have it added to some other insurance I already have.

ANSWER: Extended coverage is an almost standard addition to a regular fire insurance policy. There are several forms of this coverage however so you'd better see a good insurance agent about the form you want.

This public service is our way of advertising. Your insurance questions will be answered without charge or obligation if you'll send or bring them to

Creswicks Move

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Creswick have moved from Portland to Woodburn where he is now working for the Ringo-Cornwell Funeral Chapel, according to a letter received Tuesday. Their new address is 390 N. 2nd St., Woodburn, and they asked that the paper notify their friends of the new location. "We have been following the flood situation in Eastern Oregon very closely, of course," Creswick writes. "This should be another boost for Willow Creek dam." The Creswicks formerly owned the mortuary here and he also served as justice of the peace in Heppner.

Has Operation

Amanda Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Smith, underwent an operation to her knee Monday at the Shrine hospital in Portland. She entered the hospital last Thursday, and this was the second operation to the knee which was injured some time ago while she was delivering papers on a paper route. Amanda, a freshman in Jone High school, is expected to be hospitalized for some time. Reports indicate that she is recovering satisfactorily from the operation.

Hanna Has Emergency Appendix Operation

David Hanna, teenage son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna, was listed in serious condition in St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton, after undergoing emergency surgery early Monday for a ruptured appendix.

Hanna, who had not been feeling well for several days, was taken to Pendleton by car late Sunday and, according to word received here from his parents as late as Tuesday, would not be released from the hospital for at least another week.

Infant Breeding Baby Succumbs Tuesday

Graveside services for infant William Paul Breeding, day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breeding of Heppner, were held today (Thursday) at 11:00 a.m. at the Heppner Masonic cemetery. The Rev. Melvin Dixon officiated over the service.

The baby was born Monday, January 4, several weeks prematurely, and died the following day, January 5, from a respiratory weakness.

Surviving besides his parents, are a two-year old sister, Debbie; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ott of Heppner, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lola Breeding of Lexington.
