

School Schedules Start after Layoff

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM
IONE — Classes were held on schedule in both the grade and high schools Monday morning. Buses made their regular runs with some difficulty with dirt and rocks on the roads, but experienced no major trouble.

Leonard Herrick, principal of the grade school, announced the Christmas program planned for December 22 had been cancelled. The children exchanged the gifts Tuesday afternoon which they had brought to school before the flood, with no special parties planned.

Ione Grade school basketball teams will host Arlington on Friday afternoon in the local gym at 2:00 p.m.

Ransier Services Held Tuesday
 Friends here received word this week of the death of John Ransier of Innaha. Mr. Ransier, who formerly lived near Ione on the Franklin Ely ranch, died of a heart attack on Thursday, December 31. Services were held at Garfield, Wn., on Tuesday, January 5. Survivors include his wife, Clara of Innaha; son, Gene of Tucson, Ariz., and his mother.

Milton Morgan, president of the Oregon Wheat Growers League, and Mrs. Morgan left on Sunday morning for Portland, where they will spend most of the week attending the National Association of Wheat Growers being held at the Sheraton Motor Hotel.

Topic Club will meet at the home of Mrs. R. L. Brewster on Friday afternoon. Hostesses are Mrs. Verner Troedson, Mrs. David Baker, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner drove to Portland over the weekend to bring home her mother, Mrs. Vela Eubanks, and grand-daughter, Judy Eubanks, who had been spending the week visiting relatives in the city.

Relatives here have heard that Mrs. Sam Holmes, the former Ellen Ritchie, is recovering from a heart attack suffered on December 9 at Beaverton. She is a patient at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Skating at Spout Springs last week were several families from Ione. Included in the sports enthusiasts were Mr. and Mrs. Garry Tullis and family, Frank Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Peterson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and family.

Gary Brenner, a student at University of Oregon, spent the week-end at the home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopher and family have moved to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Conley Lanham, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. G. Heppner.

Mrs. E. W. Reistow has been seriously ill at her home. Her son, Tom Bristow of Portland spent Sunday here visiting her. Pvt. Harold Rietmann left Saturday night by plane from Pendleton for Fort Sill, Okla., after spending Christmas vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann. Miss Julie Rietmann, who has also been spending the holidays at her parent's home, returned to her teaching position at Newport Beach, Calif., on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Kardtke of Portland spent from Thursday to Saturday with her brother and sister-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Crowell.

The annual Rietmann family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann on Sunday with a potluck dinner at noon. Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rietmann and Chris, Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann and Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. William Melena, Walter Rietmann, Larry Rietmann, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Rietmann and Marie and Tommy of Condon.

Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Oscar Lundell on Tuesday afternoon, January 12. Mrs. Lonnie Henderson of Lexington will be co-hostess.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson over the New Year's Day week-end were their son, John, of University of Portland, and Miss Kathy McMahon of Kennewick, who attends Maryhurst College. They returned to school on Sunday accompanied by Geraldine Morgan, who had spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan.

Preceding the rehearsal of the Martin-Holloway ceremony on Friday, December 18, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin were hosts for a dinner for 28 guests at the T & R restaurant in Albany. An evergreen arrangement with five red candles centered the head table. Each place at the tables was marked with a name card flanked by tiny white wedding bells.

Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Portland arrived on Sunday to stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson and family, while they attend National Wheat League in Portland.

George Griffith drove to Portland on Sunday to take his daughter Charlotte back to school. He was accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frances Mitchell, who had spent the New Year's holiday visiting relatives here. Another passenger was Gail Hoskins of Heppner, who was returning to college in Portland.

Bill Salter of Forest Grove, arrived on December 26 to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter. He had driven as far as The Dalles December 22 and was unable to come any further so visited friends there until the roads were passable.

Ed Haseloff, high school teacher, spent part of the vacation in southern Oregon. He

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, January 7, 1965 Sec. 2 - 4 pages

DAMAGE to county roads was of many different types in recent floods. Washouts were the most damaging, but in the instance pictured above on the Lower Rhea Creek road, tons of rock have been washed on to the road to depth of three or four feet, posing a big job of removal. (G-T Photo) had planned to go home to Texas, but was unable to, following the floods.

Tanna Valentine visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Padberg during the holidays from her home in The Dalles.

Month's Rainfall Nearly 5 Inches

Rainfall measured on gauges north of Ione show an unprecedented amount for the month of December, which totaled almost five inches. October rainfall was just .75 and November chalked up 1.71. Rainfall in December shows December 1, .18; December 8, .18; December 10, .09; December 14, .47; December 16, .10; December 19, .17; December 20, .16; December 21, .75; December 22, 1.09; December 23, .47; December 25, .19; December 27, .02; making a total of 4.92 with a grand total since the first of October of 7.38 inches of rain. Average yearly rainfall is slightly less than 10 inches.

Mrs. Nancy Zinter entertained a party of little folks on January 1 in honor of the 8th birthday of her daughter Cathryn. Guests were Kathleen Crum, Cassy Chapel, Barbara Palmer, Meg Lujan and Cathryn's brothers Gene, Bobby and David. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served. Instead of one large birthday cake, the children, each had a cup cake with a candle except the honoree, who had two, and they blew them out together.

Ed Marick, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marick, spent his Christmas vacation at home and has now returned to the U. S. Army training camp at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri.

Students returning to college campuses this week were Tom and Linda Heimbigner to U of O; Merrie Jo and Tass Morrison; Jean Martin, Dick Hynd, and Kenneth Smouse, Oregon State; Phil Emert, Jr., Willamette; Bill Akers, Lewis and Clark; Stephen Lindstrom, Pacific Lutheran U.; Barbara Bishop and Judy Sherer, EOCE; Roland Ekstrom, Wenatchee Jr. College; Kenneth Nelson, Gary Morgan, Dallas Dalzell, C.B.C.; Jack Crum, Portland State; Delores Emert, Nurses training; Les Madden, barber school; Sue Townsend, Northwestern School of Commerce, Portland, and Evelyn Jepsen to N. W. Christian College at Eugene.

Co-op Meet Calls Lamb and McCurdy

Morrow County Grain Growers, Inc. will be represented at the 1965 annual meeting of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives to be held at Seattle, Washington, January 18-19-20, 1965, by Al Lamb, manager. The council is a nationwide organization of farmers' cooperative marketing and purchasing associations, of which Morrow County Grain Growers is a member. It represents more than 5,700 farmer cooperatives in all parts of the U. S. and Puerto Rico with a combined farm membership of nearly 3 million.

Funeral Services Held For Ken Lundell

IONE — Funeral services for Oral Kenneth (Kenny) Lundell of Oakland, Calif., who died December 28, were held at the United Church of Christ in Ione on Monday morning, January 4, with Rev. Walter B. Crowell officiating. Interment was at Valley cemetery with Sweeney Mortuary in charge. Mrs. Fredrick Martin was the organist and Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr. sang two sacred selections. Wallace Lundell, Roy A. Lindstrom, Arthur Lindstrom, Adon Hamlet, Robert Drake, and Joel Engleman served as pallbearers.

Kenneth Lundell was born at the family farm home near Arlington on lower Willow Creek on December 31, 1918, to Oscar and Mary Petre Lundell. He spent his entire boyhood there and attended 12 years of school in Arlington. He took a course at a trade school in Pendleton and went two years to Oregon Institute of Technology at Portland.

During World War II he worked for Boeing Aircraft Co. at Seattle. Following the end of the war, he moved to Oakland, where he entered the television repair and service business. In 1951 he joined the Friden Calculator firm, working with electronic computers for that firm for ten years. Since 1961 he had been employed by Nuclear Research Instrument Co. in Berkeley, Calif. He traveled all over the U. S. in connection with his work, as well as several foreign countries. He was considered a near genius in the nuclear engineering field by his fellow employees. He was well known in Ione, having visited his parents and relatives here many times. His father, Oscar Lundell, passed away on February 14, 1964.

Besides his mother, Mrs. Mary Lundell, he is survived by two brothers, Henry Dale Lundell of Piedmont, Calif., and Oscar Harold Lundell of Boise, Idaho; six nieces and nephews; and other relatives.

His death resulted from strangulation by an unknown assailant. His body was discovered in their duplex apartment by his roommate, Eugene Swinhart, and police are still investigating. No motive has been discovered for the crime.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral were Wallace Lundell and Mrs. Algott Lundell of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lundell of Piedmont, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lundell and family of Boise, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lundell and daughter Sharon of Pendleton.

Give your Hair New Beauty!

Let us condition your winter-dulled hair... give it new life and sparkle with a color rinse... or fashion a personally-styled hairdo to go with your prettiest clothes!

JAN CECIL ON DUTY MONDAY THRU FRIDAY
 PAT JENSEN ON SATURDAY
 JET STREAM 5-MINUTE DRYING

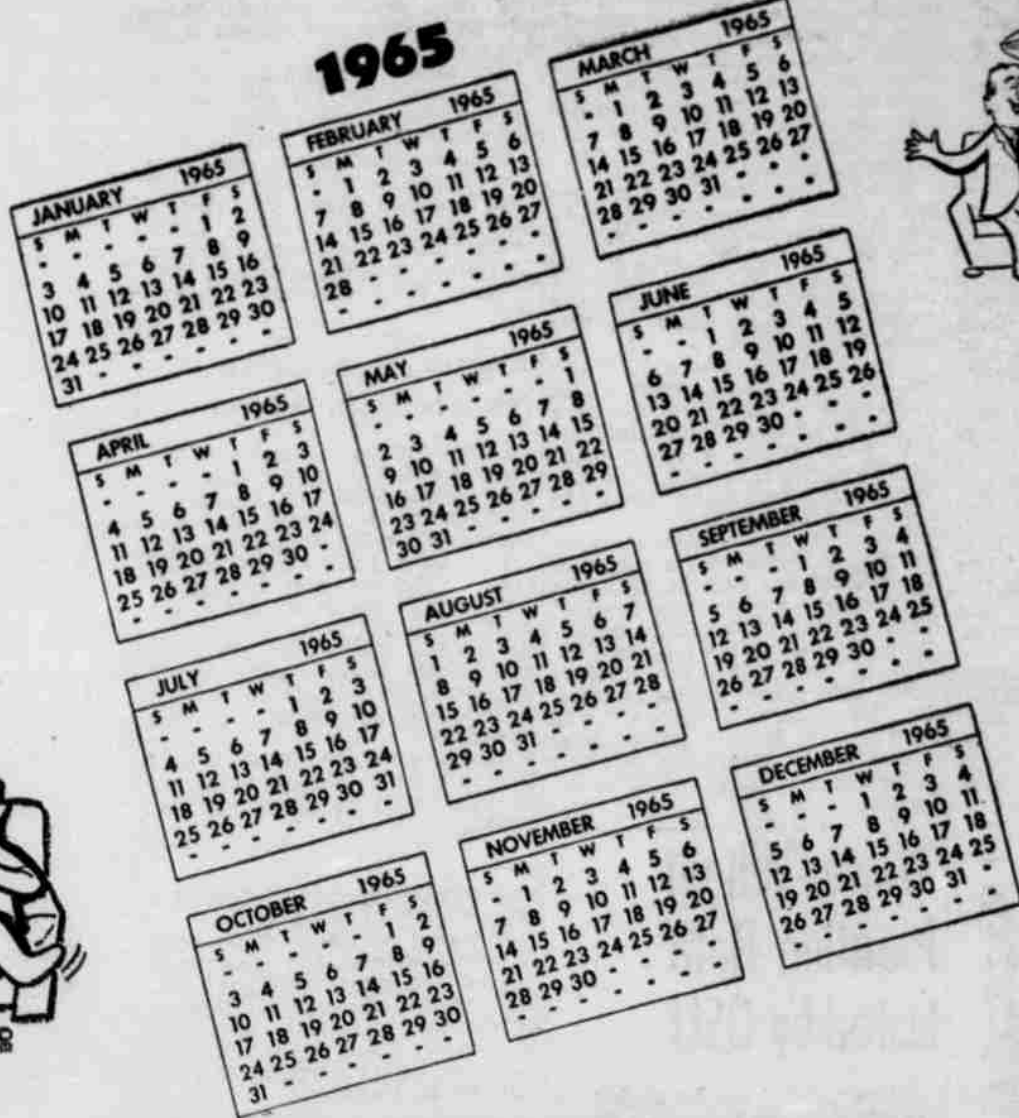

Evenings By Appointment

Jeanne's Beauty Shop

Ph. 676-9480

Heppner

Year-Around Comfort

WITH ELECTRIC HEAT

Do you live in ALL of your house ALL year? Or do the Winter months bring cold corners, drafty floors and closed off rooms? And the summer months bring a hot, stuffy home? Electric Heating can bring you real COMFORT, WHEN and WHERE you want it.

There are a variety of modern Electric systems which perform two important functions: heat in winter and coolness in summer.

We will help you pay the cost of installing electric heat in your new home or converting your present heating system at the rate of $5 per 1000 watts. Thus, if it takes 10KW of installed electric heat, we will pay you $50.

Columbia Basin Electric Co-op

Serving Morrow, Wheeler and Gilliam Counties

BASKETBALL DOUBLEHEADER

Two Full Length Games

Sunday, January 10

Ione High School Gym

CONDON vs. HEPPNER

2 P. M.

IONE TOWN TEAM

vs.

BLUE MTN. COLLEGE

3:30 P. M.

Town Teams Composed of Ex-High School and College Stars

No Admission - Donations Will Be Taken

Ad Sponsored by:

- |                                      |                        |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------|
| Rietmann Hardware                    | Bi County Chemical     |
| Aker's Motor Service                 | Paul Pettyjohn Company |
| Bristow's Market                     | Hick's Market          |
| Stefani's Fine Food and Harvest Room | Ekstrom Farm Chemical  |
|                                      | Dobyns Pest Control    |
|                                      | Ione Chevron Station   |