A county statement of taxes for the 1928 rolls shows a surprisingly high valuation in the county, $13,979,729, and nice low taxes!

There was a program of the Umatilla and Morrow Odd Fellows convention of February 26, 1921, and a charter night program of the Heppner Lions of March 15, 1930...

Then we came upon some printed copies of the Heppner High paper, "The Hehlsch," when it was printed in 1945 and 1946...

Among the editors were Colleen Miller, Marlene Turner, Curtis, "Then don't talk like an idiot."

Salem Scene

by Robert L. Darnedda

"Property tax relief congressional reapportionment, Constitutional revision, workmen's compensation and the Governor's record budget are issues of greatest concern."

Although several proposals have been discussed, Montgomery indicated he favors "tying down" these surplus funds as an offset against existing county budgets, thus providing "direct relief" to the property taxpayer.

Starting the 10-20-30 Years Ago column again this week. Many folks wrote and told us that they used to enjoy it very much, and getting a little better organized now, we hope to keep it going.

Although it is too early to know the impact of December flood damages on income tax returns, Montgomery said the legislature, at this juncture, would be more inclined to make use of bonding programs for capital construction than increasing taxes...
